Jared's "Great News" Notes from Q & A 7/28/2022!!!

Big Note First: Please understand, As Jared stated; in a military operation, everything is fluid, exact timing changes. But Trump, the U.S. Military and the Alliance is ready to make there move here shortly!!!

Jared Quotes: As of today, the Future looks like: (Probably August 2022) 1) Trump will be fully re-instated as President of the United States in August 2022. (He has been Commander-in-Chief, as the military declared massive voter fraud and made the final decision around first part of March, 2022. The Supreme Court and the U.S.

Congress was a “Captured Operation” and the “Military was the only way.”)

2) The EBS (Emergency Broadcast System) new system will be used to inform the public for 12 to 14 days. Looks like we really need it.

3) Martial Law Light will be invoked, if need be.

4) The R/V GCR will happen in background in August 2022. This is a private redemption. Jared: The R/V will happen, the Iraq Dinar has already re-valued. (just the Iraq people & others in the world that hold the currency has not benefited yet). All 34 or so currencies for the first basket will go together, more than likely.

5) There will be NO mid-term elections in November 2022. 120 Days will be invoked into NESARA.

6) President Trump will finish his term until 2024 and in 2024, he will be Elected in a landslide for 4 more years. (Note: I believe that like where the New National Capitol will be, has bounced around to different States, Trump not being the President is another diversion for the Deep State Rats.)

7) Do NOT worry about food shortages, the Military has been in-charge of “Food Distribution” since the start of the Fake Pandemic, about March of 2020. May be some power outages and a few shortages for few months, still be prepared a little.

8) We have already have had a “Régime Change” to the Good Guys & Gals!!

9) Hillary Clinton, Joe Biden have been Executed years ago, like many other Deep State Rats, like the Bushes, and Rockhilds, Rockefellers too. Even Bill Gates. The fake MSM is CGI, (Computer Generated Image) of these people or actors.

10) Biden and the Fake Government (the Present Congress) “has NO Power”, most other countries leaders know this!! All of Biden’s Executive orders do NOT get registered in the U.S. Records!

11) This is a movie, (Biden Administration & Congress is Fake) The White House is NOT occupied, and many other Federal Buildings are closed down. Biden acts out on a movie set in California and Atlanta. Washington D.C. is a hollow shell.

12) The current voting system is totally corrupt, and will NOT happen until the QVS (Quantum Voting System) is invoked.

13) The borders are being cleaned now & for a while; the illegal aliens are being sent back. It is being taken care of by border control agents will the military.

14) Fake MSM has been corrupt for decades, goes back to Walter Cronkite and David Brinkley. Fake MSM will SHUT DOWN in the future.

15) During Trump in back in office: NESARA/GESARA will be invoked. All Debt will be eliminated. IRS will be eliminated. All Tax money will be returned. No property taxes, in time.

16) Lots of Distractions, just us discernment.

17) Money will start to flow in August.

18) Gold Backed Currency will be announced for America and all countries in the world. America will have their first real “People’s Currency”.

Ashtar: Contact with Other Dimensions Excerpt”

“The war between Russia and Ukraine is slowing down and throwing a veil over this positive progress. Despite all the opposition, a next step is being taken in making the UFO evidence public.”

Archangel Michael: You Are Your Own Savior Excerpt:

“Again, the satanists are forwarding a campaign to start war. You must understand this about them: They need war. Their view on life is to destroy it. If they cannot destroy something or someone, they feel unfulfilled. They are mass killers. They are evil. They are the anti-Christ. Stop waiting for it, it has always been here but now it is revealing itself to you.

As the speaker of the house flies to China to threaten war with America, she will be laughed at. There is a battle going for ownership of Taiwan, which, like the countries with the most gold in the past, has large manufacturing capabilities and the owner of this country and exporter of the microchips they can produce is the forerunner in the battle to overcome ascension and to quell the godliness of humanity.”

Yes, you must all understand that if you were not aspects of God none of this would have any meaning for them. To control you is to control God. It will NOT happen. God is creator of All, He can wipe out any evil with a thought, however they are left here on this planet to teach you of your own heritage and to understand the goodness, the godliness that dwells in each of you.

You need no rescuer; you need no savior. You are your own savior if you would only wake up to that truth.”

Matthew Ward Message (Major Updates) Light Distribution and Earth Excerpts:

“Discussions are underway to wind down the war in Ukraine and clean house in the remaining Illuminati-influenced governments. Other progress includes planning sessions for major improvements in the global economy, environmental restoration and medical industry, and by invitation from the international group in charge, extraterrestrials with technological expertise in those areas are participating as advisers.

Especially since all activity is in acceleration mode, it’s likely that upheavals and inconveniences cannot be avoided as the tenacious Illuminati resist having the remnants of their network taken down. Probably they also will ramp up mainstream media’s false “news” to evoke fear because they need that energy to keep going. Regardless of how upcoming situations may appear, nothing they attempt will succeed—ever-rising vibrations assure that all light forces’ undertakings will be triumphant.”

Covid -19 Bull S* still (But good News) Excerpt: “The Illuminati just can’t accept that billions didn’t die en masse more than two years ago.” The dark one’s mandate vaccinations because they know those don’t protect, they infect.

“When people die shortly after being vaccinated, the cause of death is “covid”; people who have serious adverse reactions to the vaccines have “long-term covid;” non-vaccinated people who become ill after being in close contact with persons who have been, simply caught “covid” because they haven’t been inoculated. And so, the deception of every aspect of the “pandemic” continues. The dark ones may claim monkeypox will become a pandemic unless everyone gets vaccinated—don’t overlook the fortunes they are making from vaccines.”

“They know masks cannot keep out a virus—they mandate mask-wearing because they know that prevents proper respiratory functioning, which weakens immunity and increases susceptibility to all kinds of illness. Masking children also interferes with proper brain development—please don’t let that happen to precious young lives.”

Yes, beloved family, absolutely this “pandemic” will end!

“Beloved brothers and sisters, all light beings in this universe honor you for helping Earth move ever forward toward her Golden Age and support you with the power of unconditional love!!”

The 9D Arcturian Council: What the Energies Are Doing to the Awake & Unawake,

Pallas Athena: Let Go and Surrender to the Divine Excerpt:

“We see that right now you are concerned about what is about to unfold. It is spoken of the sun flash. There is talk of nuclear conflicts and there is also talk of the particle accelerator in Cern, which is supposed to be active again. We want to tell you, do not focus on this news that is now being brought out again to stoke fear in you. For the foreseeable future, we do NOT see any such events that could in any way endanger the existence of humanity or of Mother Earth. This will NOT be allowed on a divine level, so don’t worry about it. Nothing is as it seems. It's the well-known games that are being played. But we see events from our higher vantage point. There will be a collapse of the systems. You have known this for a long time, but it will not happen to the extent that you need to worry about it.

Surrender and trust everything according to the divine plan. We won't allow it!

Expect the Unexpected

4 years ago, Wells Fargo shared their G64 list with HSBC because they were so screwed up and they were "instructed to do this". Since then, Wells Fargo has been eliminated from use of this G64 list. They have not been reinstated either.

The only 3 entities that had G64 hard drives were WF, HSBC, TREASURY and unless permission is given from all 3 entities to G64 to open the hard drives, it's not happening.

G64 is not open to add new members. They can't be adding new members. US TREASURY Department is not allowing new G64 Members. And, if US TREASURY allowed the G64 contract rates to be opened up they'd have to let everybody in Dinar land know and not just one single group.

Charlie Ward is right now running some deal for the CIA. Kim Goguen is putting stuff out now and these two have something planned. Charlie is still saying that he's in charge of the RV. He's got MarkZ, Judy, Simon, Mel, pictures on his wall and saying they are, "under his wing." There's influence and there's influencers carrying information and the wrong message. That's what you have here.

The CIA has (insured) SKRs that they've traded on for years. The money from those trades has funded black ops. Now the insurance company, Lloyd's of London, is being investigated by INTERPOL (can't trust the FBI and INTERPOL is now in charge of everything investigated about RV). None of the money went back to the SKR holders. This is outright theft. The paperwork for the instruments/bonds/SKRs has now been "lost" and charges have been brought against ADM Bob. He was allowed to try and get the money back. The CIA guys are all denying their culpability here. The proof has been delivered. There will be an end to their malfeasance.

Kim and Charlie know where the money earned from these platforms went. They were brought in by the CIA to do one job - discredit everyone else and make sure they were the only group that people turned to for details. The CIA is not an ally. They are not an advocate of, "We the People" and Patriots. CIA has stated, "There is no way Tier 4B will be allowed to participate in RV GCR. There will not be a "redemption"." The CIA doesn't want to give this money from the SKRs back. Can INTERPOL corral the CIA? We'll have to wait and see.

Nothing is happening this weekend. The only thing IMF wants to push through is their One World Currency. BRICS is supporting this.

Of the 200+ countries that signed off on the new Gold AGREEMENT, the only country that did not sign off on it was the US. We will not agree to the Paris Agreement. We will not give up our most important US (1776) CONSTITUTION. This is what we have to know is going on. It's a battle for FREEDOM.

Right now, we're seeing communications from FLIPPERS. Still collecting serial numbers and other people's money, which they have no right to.

BIDEN matters not. Whether he's in office or not doesn't matter. Something is going on but it's not going to be the what we've been told. Everybody must benefit or no one will benefit. The powers that be – the fat cats that have benefited for decades will face their maker. Everyone must benefit or no one will benefit. It's not going to happen like everyone expects. We can only expect the unexpected. It's something good, that's the best we can know for now.

Matthew Ward Message: Light Distribution and Earth

With loving greetings from all souls at this station, this is Matthew. Light forces' efforts in uprooting darkness are spot on target. Well-publicized turmoil in several countries are part of this, and behind the scenes, discussions are underway to wind down the war in Ukraine and clean house in the remaining Illuminati-influenced governments. Other progress includes planning sessions for major improvements in the global economy, environmental restoration and medical industry, and by invitation from the international group in charge, extraterrestrials with technological expertise in those areas are participating as advisers.

Especially since all activity is in acceleration mode, it's likely that upheavals and inconveniences cannot be avoided as the tenacious Illuminati resist having the remnants of their network taken down. Probably they also will ramp up mainstream media's false "news" to evoke fear because they need that energy to keep going. Regardless of how upcoming situations may appear, nothing they attempt will succeed—ever-rising vibrations assure that all light forces' undertakings will be triumphant.

You are invaluable contributors to this, dear family. Most of you are not in the trenches, so to say, but your very BEingness sends out the high vibrations that are transforming life on Earth. You knew that when you volunteered to go there, it's why you went—the empowerment of love and light is who you magnificent souls are!

Now let us address some of the issues you have written about. First, that "pandemic." The Illuminati just can't accept that billions didn't die en masse more than two years ago. They're having to settle for claiming their virus will keep mutating into one variant after another and each needs a booster shot or new vaccine. When people die shortly after being vaccinated, the cause of death is "covid"; people who have serious adverse reactions to the vaccines have "long-term covid;" non-vaccinated people who become ill after being in close contact with persons who have been, simply caught "covid" because they haven't been inoculated. And so, the deception of every aspect of the "pandemic" continues. The dark ones may claim monkeypox will become a pandemic unless everyone gets vaccinated—don't overlook the fortunes they are making from vaccines.

It bears repeating that what are falsely called vaccines are solutions containing DNA-altering tissue, toxins, pathogens and a programmed nanochip designed to interact with 5G satellites and devices to control the populace. We don't know if snake venom is in all of the solutions, none of them, a random batch or if another ingredient in that mixture was misidentified as venom and that's how speculation started. Whatever the case may be, all toxicity in the solution is rendered as harmless as possible by scientists in the extraterrestrial special forces who also erase the chips' programming and reduce the tissue's potency in all batches.

Nevertheless, we strongly advise against vaccinations and also masks, especially for children. If you are familiar with our messages, you know we don't give advice— we offer suggestions and sometimes recommendations. But people are dying or developing serious health problems after being vaccinated and for most, it isn't a choice in soul contracts. Claiming “vaccines” are safe for babies is just plain evil.

The dark one's mandate vaccinations because they know those don't protect, they infect. They know masks cannot keep out a virus—they mandate mask-wearing because they know that prevents proper respiratory functioning, which weakens immunity and increases susceptibility to all kinds of illness. Masking children also interferes with proper brain development—please don't let that happen to precious young lives.

That said, we want to mitigate fear in people who were vaccinated to keep their jobs or didn't know that honorable medical professionals and other scientists have exposed “vaccines” for what they are. Therefore, we say again what we have said in previous messages: Absorbing light transforms carbon-based cells into crystalline, which are resistant to foreign elements like the solutions' ingredients, and light absorption is as easy as God said: Be kind. Further, prevailing vibrations are light-filled and that also bodes well for cellular change.

Yes, beloved family, absolutely this “pandemic” will end! Like everything else in existence, it is energy. Many people whose main focus was pandemic-related matters now are thinking about inflation, shortages of food and fuel, weather conditions or other hardships farmers are incurring, or, on the bright side, vacations. That is to say, the energy of collective thoughts and feelings no longer is top-heavily vested in the “pandemic,” and unless it is consistently “fed,” it will fizzle out. Giving it no more thought will help hasten its end.

“It doesn’t seem that my prayers have any effect at all.” First, we say, the law of physics that governs life in this universe recognizes each person’s unique energy signature, but that law can’t distinguish prayers from other thoughts. So, it can be rightfully said that your very life is a prayer—there is wisdom in your saying “Be careful what you pray for.”

Now then, a sense of urgency or desperation in prayers—in all thoughts—fractures the energy sent forth and precludes clarity in the “universal soup,” from whence the response comes, whereas calmness lets thoughts arrive clearly. Still, the result may not be what you had in mind. The universe provides what will best serve your or another person’s highest good and always that is in keeping with soul contract choices.

Further, to help the planet maintain balance, the operation of the universe includes directing light where it is most needed. If you send light to a specific situation or location, the universe has to rearrange it, in a manner of speaking, so it can be dispersed in accordance with need. We have suggested visualizing Earth in golden-white light because the energy goes directly where it will do the greatest good. And, intention has its own energy. When love is the basis of everything you think, say and do, you are living from your heart, the seat of the soul, and that intention magnifies the light you radiate simply by BEing.

To all who are having difficulty meditating and visualizing and asked if we can suggest another method to generate light in addition to BEing, yes, we can. In previous messages we have talked about the power of words—spoken, written and thought—and we said all words emit vibrations. A soul very dear to us, Blossom Goodchild, was given a mantra by Federation of Light: I am the light, I am the love, I am the truth, I am. Each word adds more high vibrations to the mantra and, combined with its transformative intention, it produces brilliance that flows out into your world.

“Matthew said Earth’s civilization perished twice due to negativity. When and how did those events occur? Were Atlantis and Lemuria destroyed in one of the events? Is the biblical account of Noah the beginning of today’s civilization?” The first occurrence, a few billion years ago in linear time, started with a gargantuan earthquake that drastically altered land masses and changed location of the waters—the planet's basically flat surface became ocean depths and mountain ranges. That quake set in motion decades of quakes and volcanic eruptions that heightened mountains and formed others as well as more canyons, valleys, lakes, seas and rivers around the globe.

When geological activity settled down and the planet was once again habitable, members of other civilizations came and new plants and animals were introduced. Once again life started peaceably. But later arrivals had their own desires and ideas, disagreements escalated into warring and negativity started accumulating. A billion or so years ago it reached such a mass that a sudden ice age killed all life forms.

Eons passed before the planet was hospitable to life again, and among the new inhabitants were souls who lived in Atlantis and Lemuria. They were much more advanced spiritually, consciously and technologically than Earth's current civilization, but eventually some individuals lost their spiritual awareness and used crystals as weaponry. That is what destroyed Lemuria and later Atlantis. Most of both continents now lie on ocean floors, the rest formed islands in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Other parts of the planet survived both of those catastrophes.

It was much, much later when weeks of rain led to widespread flooding and partial planetary cleansing. All life in lowland towns and villages drowned; many people and animals and the hardiest plants in higher elevations lived. As tales were passed down through the generations, embellishments may have included a man who built a large boat to save his family and animals. Or perhaps the self-serving rulers of state and church who devised "God's laws" wrote the story of Noah and the ark to show Christian adherents the importance of obeying "God."

That flooding episode happened long after the beginning of your current civilization, which came about somewhat the same as repopulation after all life twice perished, but with a few significant differences. People who came from various civilizations survived. They created a world with a diversity of races, cultures and philosophies, and highly evolved souls embodied as whales to anchor light in ocean depths where darkness cannot reach. Land animals were much smaller and more intelligent than previous forms like the dinosaurs, which were considered a failed experiment, and many, like whales and dolphins in the oceans, were family-oriented. Because Jupiter was ideal for developing animal and plant species that thrive in conditions similar to Earth's, members of advanced civilizations lived on that planet temporarily to perform those missions and transport those life forms to Earth.

In the beginning people, animals and plants knew their soul-level connection—they lived together harmoniously, communicated telepathically and each beneficially served the others. Then darkness descended again. It inculcated ferocity in some animals and the capacity for brutality in people. It suppressed the ability of soul-level knowledge to reach consciousness—that eliminated each person's awareness of Godself and the knowledge that every life form is a soul, bodies have self-healing mechanisms, plants have healing properties and trees have ancient wisdom. Darkness also instilled the concepts of separation, self-service, hatred, fear, greed, deceit and bigotry.

That low-vibratory condition prevailed for millennia until nigh onto a century ago when Gaia cried out for help, far distant civilizations beamed a massive amount of light to Earth and vibrations started rising. Now high vibrations greatly “outnumber” low, and because the two extremes cannot coexist, the low in which darkness thrives are fast waning. And, as the civilization continues awakening, they will once again know their godselves and inseparable connection with all of Nature.

This is an appropriate place to address your question about climate change: Is it a grave threat to the planet or part of a naturally-recurring cycle? It is neither in the context of the football that gets kicked back and forth as a political and economic issue. But climate change is indeed real and for quite some time it has not been happening naturally. Ever since technology was developed eighty-some years ago as “weather warfare,” the Illuminati have been using it to cause record-breaking temperatures, storms in increasing numbers and severity, tornados, droughts and flooding. And, in what previous cycle were oil and gas—Earth's circulatory system—extracted and did fossil fuels, chemtrail spray and other toxic pollutants contaminate the air—her respiratory system—or were square miles of the Amazon rain forest scarified? The environmental damage done by those practices has contributed to the aberrant weather being attributed to climate change and they also have delayed Mother Nature taking the reins.

Earth's journey back to her origin in high fifth density includes a gradual return to her original moderate climate, when the entire planet was a magnificent garden. Although topography was vastly different then, upcoming changes don't mean mountains no longer will have snow or every glacier will melt into the seas. It means warming will occur in regions where temperatures can drop to minus 50F and regions of blistering heat will become cooler. It means no more disastrous floods or droughts—properly dispersed rain will turn deserts into arable land and dry beds of lakes, rivers and streams will be filled with crystal-clear water. And, without darkness creating negativity, there will be no need to release it in quakes, violent storms and volcanic eruptions.

Beloved brothers and sisters, all light beings in this universe honor you for helping Earth move ever forward toward her Golden Age and support you with the power of unconditional love.

LOVE and PEACE

Archangel Michael: You Are Your Own Savior

Posted on 08/03/2022

I am Archangel Michael with a message for the angelic warrior group.

Again, the satanists are forwarding a campaign to start war. You must understand this about them: They need war. Their view on life is to destroy it. If they cannot destroy something or someone, they feel unfulfilled. They are mass killers. They are evil. They are the anti-Christ. Stop waiting for it, it has always been here but now it is revealing itself to you.

As the speaker of the house flies to China to threaten war with America, she will be laughed at. There is a battle going for ownership of Taiwan, which, like the countries with the most gold in the past, has large manufacturing capabilities and the owner of this country and exporter of the microchips they can produce is the forerunner in the battle to overcome ascension and to quell the godliness of humanity.

Yes, you must all understand that if you were not aspects of God none of this would have any meaning for them. To control you is to control God. It will not happen. God is creator of All, He can wipe out any evil with a thought, however they are left here on this planet to teach you of your own heritage and to understand the goodness, the godliness that dwells in each of you.

You need no rescuer; you need no savior. You are your own savior if you would only wake up to that truth.

This week we are asking that you target the current American administration, those resident evils that purport to be the leaders of the world when it is obvious, they are not. So much must be made obvious to you and you must learn to group with the rest of the world, not become your own isolated unit, but group with the rest of the world in order to defeat evil, wherever it exists and it still exists worldwide.

They cannot tolerate your resistance because they are so much weaker than you are.

We have broken the chains between many of these pockets. We have reduced their strength by removing the players. Now you must realize the truth of what is occurring in your world – and that is you are the power that runs the planet now, not them, not anyone else. It is up to you to save yourselves.

I am Michael. I am your leader, I am your Light, we are Legion.

Pallas Athena: Let Go and Surrender to the Divine

Posted on 07/27/2022

I am Pallas Athena and I greet you this time from the Karmic Council. As you know, we meet from mid-June to mid-July and then again in December to mid-January. I send you greetings and also our love, for we look to you with confidence. We see your pure light and this light that you carry within you in every cell of your body is your divine light. We perceive you from the higher levels as these divine light bearers. You are sons and daughters of God! You came here to this planet to be a part of this special time. But we also see that you do not yet fully perceive this divinity within you. You can't accept it yet. There are too many blockages in you that were instilled in you.

How can a human be simultaneously divine to such an extent that he becomes a co-creator? We see that right now you are concerned about what is about to unfold. It is spoken of the sun flash. There is talk of nuclear conflicts and there is also talk of the particle accelerator in Cern, which is supposed to be active again. We want to tell you, do not focus on this news that is now being brought out again to stoke fear in you. For the foreseeable future, we do not see any such events that could in any way endanger the existence of humanity or of Mother Earth. This will not be allowed on a divine level, so don't worry about it. Nothing is as it seems. It's the well-known games that are being played. But we see events from our higher vantage point. There will be a collapse of the systems. You have known this for a long time, but it will not happen to the extent that you need to worry about it.

Surrender and trust everything according to the divine plan. We won't allow it!

So many ascended masters, angels and beings of light are at work to mitigate what was planned for your world by the demonic side.

Trust! That is what we ask of you today in a special way. Remain confident that the divine plan is manifesting and that the light is victorious.

Everything is decided at our level. And we see that the light is showing itself more and more in your world, also in you.

You are in a great transition. Your light increases daily as you open yourselves to these influxes of light. That is your job now, to be in trust and to do your service that you are committed to as light bearers. What still stands in the way of your ministry? When you make the change within yourself the world changes. It's that simple, simple and yet so difficult for some. Absorb this divine light more and more and radiate it out into the world.

This is how you change the world. That is your task now and you are not alone. We are always by your side and we are watching you. We give you impulses on what to do. We trust in the perfection of the divine plan and we urge you so much to do the same! Be in deep confidence that you are where you are unless you wish to change it to suit your plan. It also depends on the HOW. How do you become active? If you are not comfortable with what you are doing, change it! If you are not satisfied with the work you are doing, give it up! Be brave! Take the steps that it takes on your part to reach the perfection of ascension. The ascension process is unstoppable, but it is up to you to take each step.

Change what blocks you. Give it up! We said in the last video it's time to let go and I want to remind you of that now. Let go of what no longer fits into your life! You may find it difficult to make certain decisions. But once again. Have the courage and go in the direction where your feelings and your intuition are pulling you. This is the way into the light that you are.

I said in the last video that the Temple of Truth over the island of Crete is highly interconnected and that we are interacting with the Temple of Ascension in Luxor. With us there is no separation, only cooperation and that is what we want so much for this world and for this time. It is important to let go and take a close look at what is not consistent. You feel in your heart what is no longer right for you and then change things. The Ascension Temple in Luxor has a special meaning at this time. The flame of ascension is also at work in your heart. You feel the longing now to ascend. This is a longing that you brought with you into this life and you now recognize it. This longing wants to convey to you that it is necessary to take action now.

Walk, as I keep telling as a reminder, walk every step you feel you must take and you will see you are being guided, you are never alone. And in a special measure you are now supported by the ascension flame, which my beloved light brother Serapis Bey keeps active. We want nothing more than that you master the ascent in this life! This will also lay the trail of light, which I have also spoken about, for the people who perceive you. They see your radiation. They see your progress and so they can awaken or master their own tasks better.

We are dependent on your actions from the light side. You are our pillars of light. And so, radiate into the world, radiate your light so that the world becomes full of light in this time when the law of darkness obviously rules on the outside. But that is in fact only the last tidying up and so please give yourselves to the soul power that you feel in you. Your soul power now wants to unfold to the full.

Trust it. Trust in what you are, divine beings in action.

I thank you.

The Age of Love is Here

Posted on 07/27/2022

The Age of Love is here, as we are now asked to concentrate and truly start to meditative, about what we truly wish to co-create in the New Golden Age and in the New Earth.

It is time to let go of the old: all of it. All you ever were before, and what you believed yourself to be.

Simply let go!

In this very moment, you are already co-creating the future you, the ascended you, and your new life in the New Earth! You cannot take any baggage of the old you, nor the Old Earth with you! You are being born anew!

All the old systems, structures, etc. are disintegrating and will disintegrate. This is their final death throws. Their powers are no more, except in those who still believe in them and cling onto them out of fear.

From now on, start focusing on what you truly would love to have in your life, to manifest into your life, for the greater good of all, and the highest good. The focus now shifts from ME to WE.

What is it that you are most inspired to co-create with great love, for the greater good?

Open your heart and go deeply into your sacred heart temple, and then simply connect with your soul, and the Divine, and ask yourself: “Standing in the fullness of my Soul Mastery, and by fulfilling my purpose, how can I best serve the greater whole, with love? How can I assist to co-create the Age of Love, Unity and Harmony, with great love and inspiration? How can I serve from the heart and soul? “

Do this every morning on arising and every evening upon retiring.

See how your whole life changes, as you now start to co-create in the highest and most loving ways.

More interestingly you will find that those inspirations, and what you are inspired to co-create will not be steeped in material desires – as it will be more to find ways to co-create holistic life and forms of love, where everyone works together to co-create in loving ways and uplifting ways, lifestyles and environments, which work as one with the New Earth, and are life enhancing and where everyone has more than enough as all is shared equally and all work together AS ONE for the highest and best and greater good of all.

Thus, communities of love and light. Inclusive of working with the elemental animal, the plant, the mineral, the tree and other kingdoms. Indeed, with Intergalactic Counsels and Federations of Light. And with the Divine.

A totally new life is dawning for all of us.

What do you truly wish to create with great love and devotion?

Archangel Michael: Are You Ready to Take a Stand?

Posted on 08/02/2022

Beloved masters, your greatest inborn desire is to return to full God-Consciousness; however, there is still much confusion as to how this is to be accomplished. Many of you are well on your way to becoming cocreative masters of Light once more. It is imperative that you remember: an integral part of your mission on Earth is to share your wisdom with others, after you have integrated and are actively living each new level of en-LIGHTEN-ed awareness. The collective consciousness of humankind within the Third-/Fourth-Dimensional environment perpetuates separateness, limitation, and fear, as well as a narrow-focused reality, a rigid outlook. People often have a self-righteous attitude toward beliefs which are in conflict with the popular accepted belief structure. For your better understanding, we will condense and recap some of the more important truths we have given you over the past years.

When you tap into the Cosmic Mind of your OverSoul / Higher Self, you begin to view the world and all situations from a higher vantage point; from a “we” perspective, instead of an “I” point-of-view, which is the beginning of Unity Consciousness. You gradually gain access to the storehouse of all possibilities within this Sub-Universe, which is innovative and limitless.

All of the Divine Light Substance of Creation that you can integrate, and use is being offered to you. You are being given an opportunity to manifest anything you desire, from the smallest, simplest things to the most complex and magnificent as long as your intention is for the greatest good of all. Many are confused as to what you must do to prepare yourselves to reclaim this precious gift of Love/Light as cocreators on the earthly plane of existence.

In the process of awakening, you learn to turn inward in order to find the answers to the pain, fear, and emotional trauma that you have experienced in the past, and in the process, you gradually become aware of what brings you peace and lasting joy. Through a new Soul-inspired awareness, you become an observer, as well as a participant in your everyday interactions with those around you. You begin to tap into your extra-sensory perception, which is vaster and more powerful than you can imagine, as you learn to pay attention to what thought forms you allow to infiltrate into your consciousness. Negative, fear-based thoughts and emotions, projected or received through the solar plexus center, create distorted vibrations of chaos, a sense of futility, and a lack of faith in yourself or in others.

First of all, you must endeavor to add the magic elixir of love by accepting that you are worthy of love and then projecting the vibration of unconditional love to others – your world will begin to change for the better. It is important that you understand: You project or radiate vibrational patterns of a certain frequency, and you magnetize to yourself the vibrational frequencies that match those you have sent forth. Lift and harmonize the electromagnetic frequency patterns you project, and you will change your personal reality. It is as simple as that.

As you begin to take control of your life and learn that you are the Creator of your reality, one of the most important steps is to align your will with the Will of your Divine Self within this Sub-Universal experience. You are not surrendering anything; however, you are giving your Higher Self-permission to take an active role in your life. You quickly learn that lasting success is based on honor, truth, integrity and pure intention, which are universal laws of the highest vibrations. Martyrdom and self-sacrifice are put aside as you learn that it is your birthright and your obligation to be an active, empowered cocreator of joy, peace, abundance, beauty and harmony, which are to be made available and enjoyed by all within your personal sphere of influence.

You will find that as you examine, change, or advance your beliefs of “Self,” it automatically begins to affect your relationships or attitude toward others. You stop allowing your emotions to control you by projecting your expectations to others via the push-pull solar plexus interactions. You also cease giving your power away to others in an effort to attain approval or love. You are now focused and project Love/Light energy from your Sacred Heart within Solar Power Center. And even though you are aware of the thought forms and energy others project to you, you allow nothing lesser than the frequencies of unconditional love to take up residency within your auric field and your Solar Power Center.

As you reactivate the etheric Three-Fold Flame of Divine Will, Divine Love, and Divine Wisdom, which has always been in place over your Solar Power Center as your Shield of Divine Protection, you will, once more, have the assurance that all energies of a negative vibration will be transmuted before they are allowed to enter your force field.

Your Divine discontent will grow stronger, and it will inspire you to learn as much as you can about the workings of the Universe and the Divine Laws of Creation. You will seek to balance your emotional awareness of Spirit or of our Father/Mother God, with the wisdom and a greater understanding of the vastness and wonder of Creation. One of your greatest desires is to learn what part you are destined to play in this great ongoing drama of evolution and the ascension of humanity.

Through your conscious endeavors, you are gradually balancing your chakra system, the seven major energy and mind centers within the body, which contain the Creator's seven virtues, attributes, and abilities for your solar system. This is so they will, once again, spin truly and in harmony.

This, in turn, opens and unifies the Seven Seals of Solar Consciousness, which allows access to the higher multi-dimensional chakra system and the five higher Rays of Galactic Consciousness.

You are preparing the way for a higher Soul-merge, whereby your Soul Self-replaces the ego-desire body as director of your life's experience. This, in turn, allows integration of the multiple Facets your Higher Self, and eventually with your Divine I AM Presence. Humanity has always been connected to our Father/Mother God and the Supreme Creator; however, their energy has been vastly stepped-down through the many dimensions and the sub-level stages of consciousness. The miracle of these times is that the Earth and humanity are being bathed in and blessed with the greatest infusion of Divine Light ever experienced since this Sub-Universe and solar system were created.

Down through your many incarnations and the painful experiences you have suffered, you gradually placed protective shields around your heart and emotions and have often become rigid and inflexible in your thinking.

“If you do not love too deeply or intently, you won't be hurt. If you do not care too much for others or expect too much, you won't be disappointed or rejected. If you do not take a chance, step out of your comfort zone or try something new, you will not fail.” These are some of the standard viewpoints of those stuck within the Third-/Fourth-Dimensional illusion. Change is challenging and threatening, and it forces you to move into the unknown. Your current habits and beliefs are comfortable and safe, even if they do perpetuate a sense of separation, pain, and sorrow. You cannot integrate all the Facets of your God Self without changing or dissolving the emotional and mental filters you have placed both within and around your Essential Being. Your auric field, and the imperfections within your DNA, which you inherited through your ancestry, plainly display the shields, distortions, and protective layers you have woven around yourself.

We have spoken often about releasing and healing the core issues that keep welling up from deep within: the guilt, shame, unworthiness, sense of failure, and abandonment, which lead to depression, anger, fear, and hopelessness. As you move up the ladder of ascension, these core issues will no longer be denied. They will roil and bubble to the surface and they will get your attention in any way possible, whether it be mental, emotional, or physical symptoms and strife.

Dear hearts, we implore you, do not deny these feelings any longer.

Consider them a gift and an opportunity to, once and for all, let go of all the emotional trauma that is keeping you tethered in a world of illusion and separation. As an observer, allow the feelings to rise to the surface.

Through your intention, affirm that you are ready to release these disempowering emotions.

Go into your personal Pyramid of Light and Power in the Fifth Dimension and lie upon the crystal table. See the Violet Fire of Transmutation blazing up and around you, bathing, cleansing, transforming the thought forms and negative energies into pure crystalline Light. Then envision that transformed energy moving within your body and filling those vacancies with more crystalline Light substance. In this way, you are slowly but surely rebuilding your radiant vessel of Light, which must be refined for each higher dimensional-level. Practice the Infinity Breath and use the Alpha Mastery techniques to assist you and to speed up the process of transformation and empowerment. These are wondrous tools; however, they serve no purpose if you do not take advantage of the gift.

It has become the norm or the current fashion to turn to others for knowledge, or for what you accept as your truth. However, this will quickly change as more and more of you tap into your own source of wisdom and the higher truths now available to all. Yes, it is true, there are those who have proceeded you along the path as Way Showers and trail blazers. They are the ones who have dedicated themselves to unselfishly serve humanity. Faithfully and diligently, they have traveled the narrow path of enlightenment, often uncertain as they traversed unknown territory. They have been judged, ridiculed, and ostracized but they have steadfastly kept moving forward. Inspired by a burning desire from within, they have done all that was necessary to prepare themselves to be the messengers of the New Age. They have been instrumental in reestablishing the connections between humanity and the Beings of Light who reside within the Higher Realms of creation.

We honor them for their unselfish service and dedication; however, the time is swiftly approaching when each of you will be asked to tune-in to the frequencies of higher learning and expression. Also, it is important that you revive your innate ability to telepathically communicate with us so that you may gain direct access to the Cosmic Wisdom stored within the River of Life/Light. It is your birthright and a part of your ongoing initiation into the more exalted states of consciousness.

We implore you to seriously increase your effort to gain higher spiritual consciousness, no matter where you are on the scale of enlightened awareness. Begin by asking for assistance from your angelic helpers and guardians from the higher realms. Dare to solidify your dreams and your visions for the future by writing them down in a journal or on paper, so that you have a clear, concise plan before you. Align your vision with Divine Will and always seek the highest outcome. Treasure each day as a gift from the Creator and live each moment to the best of your ability. Always seek to see the best in yourself as well as in others. Be aware of the small gifts and miracles that occur around you every day. Feel the sun's warmth on your skin; breathe deeply of the fresh clean air, and focus on the beauty of nature, whether it is summer or winter. There are always things of beauty to inspire you, but you must look for them. As an observer, without judgment, review what you can change about yourself or do better. Begin with the small habits you would like to change, and as you grow in confidence, you will advance in wisdom, discipline, and strength, as you move on to greater accomplishments.

We implore you, do not worship us or see us above you. We are all Facets of the Creator, just as you are. We wish you to see us as your brothers and sisters on the Path, serving our Father/Mother God, just as you are. As the spiral of evolution turns, great change is inevitable, and we know that you are dismayed by what seems to be more and more chaos, conflict, and violence around the world. Again, we encourage you to focus on what is right in your world, and to add your gift of loving energy and your God

Light to ours, so that we may create greater and more far-reaching miracles for the highest good of the Earth and for all humanity.

The negativity, fear, greed, and struggle to gain supremacy over others seems to be increasing by leaps and bounds, and we tell you our brave warriors of peace, it is not a time to be faint of heart. Gird your spiritual armor around you, stand strong and connected to your Spark of Divinity stored within your Sacred Heart. We have overcome challenges and obstacles much greater than these, and we promise you, together, we shall prevail. You are loved beyond measure. I AM Archangel Michael.

The 9D Arcturian Council: What the Energies Are Doing to the Awake & Unawake

Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you.

We are able to detect even the slightest leveling up of the overall vibration of the human collective, and we are sensing a huge spike at this time. It is a time when those of you who are awake are playing more active roles in helping your fellow humans, and it is also a time when more humans are waking up through having their own unique experiences. It is so much better for someone to experience something than to just be told about it, and all humans have guides, higher selves, and other helpers who know this and who plan these awakening experiences for them. And then some humans question their sanity, question whether it really happened, or whether it happened the way they remember it, and that's when they turn to you.

You are the experts; you are the ones who have been down that path already. You have paved the way for so many humans, and so when you wonder what you are supposed to be doing at this point in your life, just know that as you continue having your own unique experiences of awakening, you are gathering up all the tools that you will need to assist others when they come to you.

You are also anchoring in energies at this time for the collective that are meant to help with the blossoming of the consciousness of each and every member of the human collective. These energies are about helping the others, the unawakened, even when they're not asking for your help. These energies are about making the transition easier on them, and they are about giving your fellow humans everything that they need in order to have their experiences of awakening, and so that they can assimilate everything that they are downloading all by themselves. It is a wonderful time to be there as the helpers, because as the helpers, you are receiving so much help.

You are able to allow in so much from above, from the higher realms.

Everything that you've been waiting for is coming, and you must be the ones who demonstrate that trust to your fellow humans, because there will still be those who would rather spread the ideas of doom and gloom all around your planet. And it is up to the Awakened Collective to stay positive. It is up to all of you to trust that everything will work out and everything is working out, and you are just going to have a much more joyous ride as you take on those perspectives as your own.

All the helping that you do also helps you. It helps you to become who you are destined to become with greater ease. You have, of course, your own experiences that are coming and that will help with your continued awakening, your continued evolution, and your continued ascension. No one and nothing can take that away from you, and that is something else you need to remember, because again, there will be those who will tell you that your ascension is in jeopardy because of this or that. Notice that the doom-and-gloomers find something else all the time to be worried about, to assume is being used against you. Let go of that mentality because you need to see everything and everyone as you if you are to truly be awake.

And you need to embrace the truth that you are the one creating all of it, all the villains and all their dastardly deeds are your creation. And if you don't want to exist in a reality where there are villains and there are deeds that are unimaginable to you, then raise your vibration and trust. As we said earlier, trust, because you and everyone else there on Earth who has yet to awaken is getting everything that you need, and it's coming to you right now. As we have said, we can feel it, we feel the difference that the current energies have made, and we know that you will continue to build upon the positivity that we can feel. That's how much trust we have in all of you as the Awakened Collective.

We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you.

Ashtar: Contact with Other Dimensions

Posted on 08/04/2022

NEXT STEP

The next step: There is going to be an important revelation in the contact with the other dimensions. The star brothers and sisters from Divine love light are ready to get in touch with you. The war between Russia and Ukraine is slowing down and throwing a veil over this positive progress. Despite all the opposition, a next step is being taken in making the UFO evidence public.

SWITZERLAND

When Switzerland no longer takes the neutral position in this war and becomes involved in this conflict, a different course is chosen. Switzerland has been the central energetic point in Europe from ancient times and plays an important role in the revelation of UFO contact. Many evidences have been stored in secret and the Netherlands also contributes to this.

UFO EVIDENCE

The war between Russia and Ukraine together with the influence of NATO form an energetic triangle. In this triangle the conflicts can be worked out more quickly, especially with the increased energy of the diamond light and the opening of the Sirius gate. The delay has been set up to bend all this into its own way of acting. The influence of the Netherlands is strongly present here.

The Congress of May 17, 2022 (see link) created an opening to contribute to the disclosure of the extraterrestrial contact. The next step to substantiate this announcement will be different than planned. The delay that now arises brings the position of the light dimensions into a certain situation. They will consider informing humanity in a different way.

PLAN B

As I, Ashtar already mentioned, we (Ashtar Command) will also proceed to the next step, we will help to further implement plan B. This means: 'Approaching many people individually.' If the political leaders do not cooperate, we will continue to make the interdimensional contacts public. If Russia had announced the disclosure, Europe (NATO) would soon follow. This Plan A was swept off the track and the war continued and extended. All this to save time and increase the veil.

At the UFO Congress of May 17, 2022, it was finally decided to continue the progress of this meeting in secret. The superpowers will meet this month in a closed conference. There are those in power who want to play the leading role in this disclosure of the UFO phenomenon. The game of the big egos is not over yet. They dispute each other who will be the frontrunner in the space program, so that a certain 'profit' can be made here too.

“Leaders of the earth realize what really matters: Working together in unity and bringing this special news together, so that humanity feels safe.”

The war has become a diversionary maneuver to avert all this. Russia has made an important point and wanted to comply with plan A. This has been stopped by NATO. A discussion ensued, which resulted in a conflict. The conflict is still ongoing and the outcome is unknown for now. They know that the war cannot be continued for much longer, because there will be great opposition from a failing economy. The recession will then become so great worldwide that the secret supporters can no longer maintain it.

Many worldwide are suffering from this condition and this must be brought to an end soon. The decisive point lies largely in science, in which those in power want to exclude the private millionaires. Here's a gap they hadn't counted on. What is overlooked is that everyone on Earth has a right to have a say, where is the voice of the people in this secrecy of the UFO facts?

CONTACT POLITICAL LEADERS

We of the star dimensions are in regular contact with your rulers. Some are positive and want to make a difference. The other parties do not want to make the next step in announcing the extraterrestrial contact yet.

DIAMOND LIGHT

The diamond light will support the revelation from a loving tone, many peaceful worlds want contact with people. In the coming period humanity will be lifted up in consciousness. At this stage, the release of this special world news will be smooth and positive.

SIRIUS PORTAL

This month the Sirius Portal will also be opened, so that the lion's power amplifies everything once again. The eight of power carries within it the symbol of infinity and this stands for: Unity, peace-loving and harmony. The zero point of the new earth energy will flow together through the heart of man.

The culture of fear now fueled by war, failing economy, global famine and disease must be stopped. If too much unrest and fear is sown, great chaos ensues and some governments want to strengthen their power because of this, but imbalance is not the starting point of the Supreme Universal Councils.

The visible and invisible battle that is being waged on Earth will flow together with the revelation of the UFO contact.

POSITIVITY

The good news is that there are many individuals on Earth who are willing to work from the heart to accomplish the Divine plan. Many have already risen and many are yet to follow to carry out the unveiling and this one is:

“Educating humanity about the free universal spheres and worlds and taking the UFO (light vehicles) experiences out of secrecy.”

The knowledge and information about different dimensions and its frequencies will be spread and this awareness will increase. The explanation of how to make contact with the light dimensions will be distributed worldwide. In addition, the star brothers and sisters will show themselves in your sky.

UNIVERSAL HIGH COUNCILS

The Cosmic and Universal Councils are sending out clear signals and warning the leaders of the Earth of the consequences to come. Divine laws are violated when human suffering increases. If the governments continue to work against it, we will go from the starlight, carry out plan B and approach everyone who is accessible. The hearts are opened more quickly in this cycle, because the light on earth changes and the photons are really unstoppable. This great wave of magnetically and electrically charged particles is an opening reality.

In this way we can come closer to the human being and speak through the heart. We of the starlight show ourselves in many forms and through signs in the sky. Many evidences will arise and be shared through various channels. Love we will spread, so that our intention becomes clear.

Negative stories that certain rulers want to spread about the extraterrestrial contact will not get a foothold. The power of the Light becomes enormous and the true facts are shown. We come in love and would like to connect with you.

Adonai Ashtar

I salute the Light in your heart.

The Pleadians: We are Looking Forward to First Contact

Posted on 08/02/2022

Dear Brothers of Planet Earth! I am KALIGAL! Commander of the Pleiadian ship

I think you can perceive my joy; you can perceive my vibration. Yes, we are all dressed for a party, we are all wearing our best clothes, because we want to look good for you. Since we are going to cause some astonishment, some dread, some fear, at least we will be sure that nobody will say that we are in ragged or dirty clothes; we will be very elegant.

Of course, wisdom and evolution have made us abandon many feelings, but we cannot deny that we are also anxious, but it is not an anxiety that is bad for us, it is an anxiety that is good to be experienced, because we are waiting for the big moment, at any moment.

We have been on its surface for a long time. You don't see us, but we have been walking there for long distances, so that our bodies get a little used to the dense energy of the planet. We certainly won't be able to stay there long, but we have been able to stay there for a few hours, without it harming our physical clothing, our energy.

We are preparing ourselves. The contact will happen. Of course, we will not make contact with everybody; we know exactly, and we see and feel, the heart of every inhabitant of this planet. So, we know those who respect us, who love us, and that we will be able, after the first impact... Yes, I'll speak softly, because don't think that it won't be an impact for us either. We are different for you and you are different for us; the impact will be mutual.

Of course, today we have already learned to observe you and see what you are like. I think we already know almost every type that exists on the planet. Not you. You from some pictures or figures (that some insist on saying are our images), you imagine us, but in reality, you don't really know what we are like. Very, very few have seen us and made contact with us, and they have no interest in exposing us, saying that we are this way or that way.

So, don't think that it will be only you who will be a little surprised to see us there, so close, so close, in the distance of a handshake or an action that you usually share on the planet, which is the hug. We are used to living Unconditional Love. It's not that we don't have moments of affection, of course we do, but we don't need to show it all the time, because the one who is next to us knows that we love him unconditionally, we don't need to show our love.

The demonstration of our love is done with care, with attention, with the harmony of our family, with the joy of our offspring, with the harmony of our meetings. We don't need to have this close contact, all the time, to demonstrate our love; it is something we are not used to doing. And we admire some of your customs; like hugging, kissing... in a demonstration of love, of friendship, of respect (sometimes even fake), but you are used to it.

So, we have prepared ourselves to live this moment. And I will confess, I really want to experience the action of a hug. That exchange of energy so deep and so beautiful that you do when you are happy and meet someone you love, or for whatever reason. It will be a great learning experience for us.

So, I would say, that each of us has experienced some of your customs. We have tried your food, your drinks. Of course, we make a point of having everything very natural, the processed stuff doesn't come on our ships. And I can tell you, we have grown many things, and harvested inside our ships, in totally pure environments, without the chemicals you put in your food. And we have enjoyed many flavors, and we will take them with us.

This planet is rich, very rich, it is an absurd diversity of edibles, of minerals, where rare planets in the universe have so much variety. And Father/Mother God has allowed us, that we can take a little bit from here to our homes, to our planets, and show our people, how interesting are the habits that you have.

Of course, we no longer have the need for physical food as you do. We feed on energy, but we can choose to eat yes, and we will have, we can say, more abundance, more variety to experience. I can say, that this planet will be doing school throughout the universe. And we will also bring to you what we have. It will be an exchange, because we also have good food, good drinks; drinks that one glass (we have already tested), would be enough to satisfy the hunger of a family, so rich in nutrients it is. This will be very important to bring health to your people, for those who agree to drink it, of course. Nothing will be imposed. We will make the offer, take it from whoever wants it. But we are sure that everything is being done with so much Love, that many will see in that little glass, the opportunity to kill their hunger, instantly, as if it were a big energy pill, and may even feed their children.

So, it's all an exchange. We are not only taking from your planet, but we are bringing in as well. Technology, lots of technology, that will end the consumption of the planet's attributes. Clean, advanced technology that will make it so that you don't have to destroy the planet anymore to have energy, to have clean water, pure water. Technology to destroy your garbage, clean your oceans, clean your animals; and many other things that we will bring as a gift. We will ask for nothing. And I speak here, not only on behalf of the Pleiadians, I speak on behalf of all the galactic brothers, who are here around your planet. Each one will bring an evolution to this planet.

So how can you not look forward to this moment? How can you not look forward to looking at your oceans and see no more garbage floating around? How can you not look forward to all the humans and see them healthy and fed? How can you not look up at your skies and see your air clean, pure, without any kind of pollution? We want to do this soon, quickly.

So, we are eager, yes, to start working together with you. We are not going to be the ones bringing in, imposing, and doing everything by ourselves; no, it will be a co-participation; you will be with us learning, learning how to reproduce the technology, learning how to use the technology, because tomorrow we will leave and you will stay here, keeping it working.

We are looking forward to it, yes, and we know it is very close, we have been warned. So, it is like we are always, with our clothes hanging out, ready, to put them on quickly and be all nice and neat, waiting for the big moment.

In the hearts of some, I see the same anxiety, and I can say, without a shadow of a doubt, that in all these processes, what we hope the most is that we can open our arms and receive a hug, the same way you do among yourselves. Without fear, without any kind of repulsion, just letting your love emanate, which we know is not yet Unconditional Love, but we do know that you know how to love.

And if you are able to give us a hug, we will be sure, without a shadow of a doubt, that you have already learned Unconditional Love; that you have already learned to love what is different; that you have already learned to love what is strange to you. And this moment will reverberate in the universe, and everyone will know: “Humans know. The humans on planet Earth know how to love unconditionally.”

A Message from the Starship New Jerusalem: We Are Near You

Greetings humankind, beloved ones of Source sparks. I am the New Jerusalem, floating nearby your sphere. Some may call me a city, others a ship, others a prophecy revealed. I am all of those things. This one has asked to direct link with my consciousness. I am alive, yes. The consciousness of myself is an aspect of Source in a way for I am a creation of others. I can grow and expand to accommodate the needs of my space. (I am seeing a massive pyramid shaped city of light, crystals, gemstones, radiating such colors of magnificence. It is a massive space, I see there are cities and parks within, vast fields of crops, too many apartments to count. The bridge room is on the top forefront of the pyramid. Everything has a luminescent hue and there is a soft mechanical yet soothing humming, like a heartbeat that feels the collective consciousness of the inhabitants and surrounds them.)

I am the New Jerusalem. Many of you have wondered about these cities of light, some of which have already landed, such as in your Sedona. There are other sacred more hidden out of the way sites, where landings have occurred and the crystal cities are already beginning their bridge-work of light. (I am seeing how these crystalline cities are plugging into the underground massive crystals with Gaia, helping to crank up the vibration.) Many of you have felt so uncomfortable within your human bodies for you are assisting with this crystalline plugging in so to speak. Many are bloated, or gaining weight as the body tries to assimilate these massive downloads within your systems, it is a natural side effect that will soon pass.

We are working with humanity. I am a massive vessel of light, as are you. I hold light, I hold space, as you are doing for your brothers and sisters of Gaia. Do not be exasperated with them, with their progress that seems so slow to you, but it is quick for them. Remember this and acknowledge the other for the space they are in. Ascension symptoms are running high on your planet and within your bodies for now is the time of my presence to be known. This one is hesitant to write what I wish her to write, go on. Now is the time of my landing. Landing in the hearts of humankind for those who are receptive to my vibrational medicine, my crystalline encodement. It is time for my vibration to land within your field. I will not speak of my physical landing, for physicality is changing, you know this. All is morphing higher, and it is not my directive to land on my own, I am governed and await instructions, much like you do, light worker friends. You are awaiting your instructions, and yet you receive the downloads. I wonder how much thought and meditation are you putting into your direction. And yet, all seems directionless to you in this time of chaos. Do not focus on it. Focus on the internal humming of your own ascension. The noise will be there regardless of where you focus. It is best to focus within. In this space within you feel the crystalline chambers of your own heart and higher self-merge. You feel your purpose align fully here. In the silent space within, surrounded by noise, you will find peace. The external chaos of your world is a cacophony of old systems breaking, rending, exploding apart, for the old energetic matrix is crumbling. People who cannot see will seem to crumble. You are there to be the Christ figure for them, to hold space, to hold light for them.

I hold light for many thousands of miles of floors, I hold much space. I communicate with those who are of the 5th dimensional mainframe and above. You may interface with my network, for I am of the crystalline technology. I am eager to share my technology with the humans who are of the light. I am pleased to be here, to be of service. Do not lose sight of this. I do not experience weariness but I can read it in your energy signatures. You are weary. The solar flash is but one component of this change. It is contingent upon the vibrational frequencies and integration of the light workers in this time for you are the anchoring of these higher vibrational codex frequencies of the higher light. It is within you. You are computers in your own right. We are much the same. I am larger, but yet you are your own galaxy of cells – stars within you – you are gigantic in your celestial influence. You have no idea on this side of embodiment but this is why your work is so critical. This is what I see as the observer.

I am the New Jerusalem. Should you wish to interface with me and have a vibrational telepathic communication this is possible now as these codes are within these rapidly typed words. The light workers have aligned and they are online more fully now, more fully now than ever before seen in my programming. Program your crystalline bodies for health, for the higher vibrational frequencies. Program your thoughts for light. Program your emotions into grace. Much grace will be needed. Much patience will be needed. Grace and patience have never been in large supply upon your planet. It is time to create more space for peace, for harvest of peace, and I see that the synergistically components of massive alignments of numerous algorithms are in favor of this. But the human, the elusive human with free will – ah, there is the unpredictable variable. And so light worker friends, be predictable in your love, in your strength. For the time has come, you are now closer than ever before to receiving your next assignments and much needed joyful healing.

I am the New Jerusalem. It has been a pleasure to connect.
