Jared Rand 10/5/2022 Conference Call Excerpts:

-) All satanic governments are now being taken down. The big one is the CCP (Chinese Communist Party) and will turn into a Republic like all countries in the world, in time.

-) The pipeline called Nord Stream Gas Pipeline was NOT blown up on 9/28/2022, this was hard news on the news wires just to get prices even higher, all designed by the Deep State machine.

-) Jared believes the White Hats (the good guys and gals) will STOP the November 8th election because all the old corrupt system is still there, like the dominion computers. As example, in Georgia, 97% of the vote went to Biden for the November 2020 election.

-) The UK (United Kingdom) pension fund collapsed.

-) Here in October is the start of the bleed-out of the real truth and will ramp up over a short time.

-) Credit Swiss bank (Stock Price now $3.20, was $14.90 a year ago) and Deutsche Bank are both on the verge of collapse. Credit Swiss has 40 billion in current assets but has 400 billion of “Call debt” which needs to be paid right after a call is made. Deutsche Bank has 47 trillion in derivatives outstanding. The Central Banks have no money. The old Deep State companies like Blackrock has been cutoff by the Alliance. House lending has almost stopped. This will cause a temporary panic, until the mighty Alliance starts the QFS (Quantum Financial System) and gold back currencies worldwide. Please get some extra cash for a short time.

-) This will trigger the QFS, the R/V GCR, Gold Backed Currencies worldwide, New Rainbow Currency for America, and the EBS (Emergency Broadcast System, some call it the Emergency Alert System) but Fake MSM will be shut down at that time, 10 to 15 days. Martial Law will be invoked worldwide. For 4 weeks to three months, for public safety. This has all be extremely planned out and thought out. The Alliance is now just about ready to reveal more to the public and take action publicly.

-) President Trump is still the President, because he did not concede! The Fake government (Shadow Government) is Biden with the what is left of the Deep state machine. Won election by severe dominion computer cheating). The Deep State did really did shut down the Keystone pipeline to from Canada to America. To make Americans suffer. Most building in Washington D.C. is shutdown, and most people know the White House is not being used.

-) At the country level; Presidents, Judges, Congress and general three-letter agencies. The illuminati will not have any power now and shortly. At the state and local level, it will still need to be cleaned up.

Jesus Christ: Big Bang # 1 Excerpt:

“The days are approaching when the high-ranking dark powers will fall and descend into the kingdom of darkness. The days of radical upheaval are approaching, the days when the system of injustice will explode, erode and implode – a big bang (1) that is necessary because humanity needs to be shaken awake.

Matthew Ward Message: Last Act of Light vs Darkness Excerpt:

“The last act before the curtain falls on the light forces vs dark forces drama playing out on Earth is becoming increasingly active. This includes the uprooting of the last of the Illuminati’s strongholds, international alliances for uplifting life worldwide, rising numbers of dark minds and hearts being taken off the planet, exposure of their look-alike doubles and other truths starting to emerge. And, the peoples are contributing to the downfall of a diabolical global network they don’t know exists. By demanding their governments serve the needs of the citizenry, the growing power of grassroots movements is aiding the international group’s efforts to rid countries of all individuals who are serving that sinister network.

The Illuminati still have in their corner the global economy, mainstream media, social media censorship and a few national leaders, but the systems essential to their retaining control are rapidly disintegrating. Still, please don’t expect them to go out gently. For millennia puppets of the dark forces succeeded in oppressing and deceiving the masses, and those who still are among you are of the delusional mindset to press forward toward ruling the world. Although it will be an exercise in abject futility, as long as they can cause chaos, fear and confusion, they will. Therefore, it is practical to have on hand some cash and a few weeks of food for your family and companion animals as well as other supplies helpful in standard emergencies.”

James Gilliland: Full Steam Ahead Excerpt:

“There is without a doubt a very powerful Satanic/Luciferian influence in almost all positions of power. This is all going to be exposed and dealt with shortly in the days to come. That network is coming to an end. The kick off has started and the white hats look like a team of rhinoceros heading full steam ahead. The last holdouts, the tunnels and dumps, deep underground bases have been eliminated or under control of the white hats. There are lots of rumors about the cabal surrendering.”

JESUS CHRIST: Big Bang # 2 Excerpt: (On the Vaccines) The divine laws obey the divine order of love. Every human being, who was induced to this bodily injury out of love and not out of fear of his own demise, will find all possibilities of healing – on this world or on the other world: To these souls it will be well done and good! Those people, however, who wanted to preserve their own life by this intervention, will lose it.

Time for Change to Manifest in the Physical Realms by Kejraj.
Excerpt:

“As the light increases, nothing can remain hidden any longer. The waters of Aquarius will wash over, cleanse and transmute all to light, and reveal all secrets.

The time has arrived for change to manifest in the physical realms.”

“This will be evident for the majority of humanity. For only a few weeks from now, energetically you will be in a new world. You are to rise a few levels higher in vibration from where you are now, breathing in a higher light than you are now.”

One Who Serves and Shoshanna: Glimpses Beyond the Veil
Excerpts:

“Guest: We all know that we’re heading into very exciting time, this Fall, when we are starting to see things happening. And I was wondering if the good guys, the White Hats, still have a plan to do an emergency broadcast if the mainstream does not go down, or has that all not been decided yet?

OWS: We can tell you there are many parts of this plan, and that is one specific part here, that is likely to be introduced here in a very short time, as we find it, at this point. That, of course, could change depending on how collective consciousness across the planet continues to move through this plan. But it is very likely that you will be having this process coming soon here. And there is that word 'soon,' but taking it for what it is here at this point. Shoshanna, do you have anything to add?

Shoshanna: We do not add to that answer.

OWS: Very good., Was this sufficient for you?

Guest: Yes.

On the vaccine:

“And if you know the reason for this in terms of what you are calling ‘the shot,’ the ‘clot shot,’ or the ‘kill shot’, this type of thing, all of this was predetermined by those of your dark forces to bring about the extermination of the large population of this planet. If they could not do it one way, then they would look to do it another way. Nuclear war did not work. Famine likely would not work. But they went toward the so-called pandemic, and this type of thing, to spread fear and all of this. And notice they continue to attempt to spread fear wherever they are able to. But that is all coming to an end here. Shoshanna, do you have anything to add?

Shoshanna: We will add that this phenomenon is caused by electronic wireless signaling to those that have the mechanism within them that has been distributed by this inoculation. It is electronically being emitted. Namaste.”

The dark being stubborn, for millennia, they have tried everything they could think of, to achieve their goals. All they have thrown at the world, only slowed down the process, simply delayed the inevitable.

The Shift: Your Inner Light, The Electric Grid Excerpt:

“They (Deep State Rats) have for now given up on creating and releasing viruses. The people have ‘lost interest’ in those types of games. And many did not play along to begin with.

The resistance movement against the dark puppets must grow stronger. You must remain steadfast, those of you who refused to buy into the ‘plandemic’ games, and did not follow its rules, it is time to do more, share and prepare others with what you know. Send a clear message to your local and state leaders, that you will not tolerate any unjust actions of the puppets.

The next plot of the mischievous players is an attempt to bring down the electrical grid. This may occur in many parts of the world, particularly Europe and the U.S. They want the population to surrender, and hand over everything they’ve got if you want the electricity restored.”

Hakann: Solar Flash Excerpt:

Gaia and Source want Earth to become a paradise-like world, and want Earthlings to be able to start living peaceful and blissful lives, without violating the free will of Earthlings. Us good-hearted extraterrestrials serve Source, and thus we work to accomplish what Source wants. I can promise you that in the medium term, Earthlings really will end up in a love-based society.

The solar flash is one tool that Source has to help Earth and Earthlings move into a love-based society. But it’s a tool that also has downsides, because it will kill people who are completely not ready for it.

Will that tool be used? If the level of consciousness of Earthlings rises very quickly, then it won't be necessary and the solar flash tool won't be used, which also means that those people won't die. In this scenario, you will just move into an amazing love-based society on your own without the flash."

Lord Melchizedek: A Great Light Portal Opening Excerpt:

"Now you are the Warriors spreading the light, sharing it. Sharing truth wherever you are able to.

And there is a great portal now that is opening. It is in the process of opening. And as it does, more and more light will flow through that portal, opening other portals throughout the planet, bringing truth forward from many different directions, truth being revealed everywhere. You are beginning to see just the beginnings of that."

"And more and more will continue on this way until the truth spreads everywhere.

The Ascended Masters: Maintain Inner Peace

"And the tsunami of love and light will reach every corner of the planet and hasten that which is the Great Event."

The golden age of light will be built in no time on the pillars of love. What is still unthinkable and unimaginable for you today will then be the most natural thing – with each other, for each other and connected with the source of all being.

Unity with God will lead to unity among people. Then there will be peace among people and there will be peace among nations."

Ashtar: Cracks in the Political Platform

NEGATIVE BATTLE

“The cracks in the political platform are getting bigger, this could lead to the fall of the Rutte IV cabinet in the Netherlands. The political debate creates a diffuse atmosphere in the autumn. The foreign pressure is mounting and taking a different turn, this comes as an unexpected impulse and creates another shock wave that will affect everyone in 2023.”

Salusa: First Contact, Elections in Brazil, And Ascension Except:

“The many leaders who held the surface population in a kind of captivity retreat and begin to leave the physical landscape.

More opportunities begin to emerge and the first signs that your media are starting to yield to the power of the Light are noticed.

The big TV stations of your reality are starting to talk behind the scenes of their administrations about our presence, and that it is becoming untenable to deny our existence.

They fear the pressures of the masses when they begin to question why they have neglected this truth, when they have such far-reaching power and could change, forever, the way of life of thousands of souls.

All of them would benefit from our technologies if we were announced, in a friendly way, contrary to what has been preached about us for decades, painting us as a threat.”

I am now under an NDA

[Forwarded from Nick Fleming]

Happy October 2nd, a New Start to a New Year

As many know, Nick Fleming canceled his recent calls. This was requested by his Military and by the principals managing the RV. Reason given for this action was, "Everything is starting. You need to be quiet." And so, Nick was quiet.

For more than the last decade Nick has carried the RV GCR Flag proudly. He has been consistent in his belief of We the People's ability to exchange exotic currencies and benefit themselves, their families and the World through benevolent means. Nick has tried to educate people about this process and about the incredible opportunity this represents. Millions have listened. Millions have benefited.

Last night Nick was asked by Military, to sign an NDA. This is in keeping with the protocols laid out so long ago. This NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT stops Nick's ability to share further details to any extent. It is also the first stage necessary for the RV launch. Further, it is a precursor to the release of the distribution of 1%, already allocated to historic bond holders, and other platforms involved in RV GCR trading, all around the world. This is the precursor to LAUNCH RV GCR.

Get happy, Friends! It's a New (fiscal) Year with a new look of PROSPERITY. And everyone participating will benefit.

Even though Nick has this NDA, doesn't mean he has nothing more to say. Stay tuned for further details as they are allowed to be released. The party is really getting started now... Hallelujah!

Do's and Don'ts with NDA

Even though Nick has signed an NDA, he will return ASAP to support the Global rollout for Tier 4B.

The NDA that Nick has signed prohibits discussion involving terms involved in his personal Exchange/Redemption. Some things he will not discuss:

Rates

Caps

Return

Account

Treasury involvement

Basically, anything personal to Nick's Agreement.

What he will talk about:

- 800# Notifications
- Generic Exchange /
- Redemption protocols
- Timing for appointment scheduling
- Further discussion including Instructions, as provided for Tier 4 Exchange Redemption

No Military, or any "official" Entity will prevent Nick Fleming from delivering on his commitment to see this through to its ultimate happy ending.

Matthew Ward Message: Last Act of Light vs Darkness

Posted on 10/04/2022

With loving greetings from all souls at this station, this is Matthew. The last act before the curtain falls on the light forces vs dark forces drama playing out on Earth is becoming increasingly active.

This includes the uprooting of the last of the Illuminati's strongholds, international alliances for uplifting life worldwide, rising numbers of dark minds and hearts being taken off the planet, exposure of their look-alike doubles and other truths starting to emerge. And, the peoples are contributing to the downfall of a diabolical global network they don't know exists. By demanding their governments serve the needs of the citizenry, the growing power of grassroots movements is aiding the international group's efforts to rid countries of all individuals who are serving that sinister network.

The Illuminati still have in their corner the global economy, mainstream media, social media censorship and a few national leaders, but the systems essential to their retaining control are rapidly disintegrating. Still, please don't expect them to go out gently. For millennia puppets of the dark forces succeeded in oppressing and deceiving the masses, and those who still are among you are of the delusional mindset to press forward toward ruling the world. Although it will be an exercise in abject futility, as long as they can cause chaos, fear and confusion, they will. Therefore, it is practical to have on hand some cash and a few weeks of food for your family and companion animals as well as other supplies helpful in standard emergencies.

Once again, the Illuminati are circulating the ominous alert that any day now the planet's axis will suddenly flip and annihilate all life. No, it will not! Ever since far-distant civilizations infused Earth with massive amounts of light 80-some years ago, Earth's axis has been gradually returning to its proper alignment. The dark ones are counting on false information such as the "flipping axis" to generate the low vibrations of fear they require for their very survival.

If you have heard of an unusually powerful solar flare or something else of global proportion coming soon, be aware that the dark ones will present it as something fear-filled. We are overjoyed to tell you that what is coming soon is an inpouring of love-light energy of a magnitude that is without precedence in this universe! The unmistakable effects of this co-creation of God, Gaia, Sol and light forces on the planet and beyond will differ in accordance with individuals' willingness to embrace the intensive light as well as personal beliefs. So, we say it is the Christed light, but not the "second coming of Christ," and absolutely it is not heralding doomsayers' "end times."

As you anticipate this glorious divine event, know that you are eminently prepared to handle the upcoming tempest caused by the Illuminati's last gasps. Your lifetimes of experience helping civilizations in the same circumstances is why you wanted to be where you are and why you were chosen. This is what you have been patiently awaiting during this most exciting era in Earth's history! Your confidence that liberation of your world from darkness is nigh will help others feel calm and optimistic instead of fearful and pessimistic—this is your mentorship role in the weeks ahead.

When many people are experiencing prolonged hardships, we know it isn't easy to think of them as taking advantage of this unique opportunity to complete all karmic lessons in one lifetime instead of several. They have no idea they chose to achieve the balance they need to advance from third to fourth density in soul evolvement status. However, when they transition to Nirvana, those who are successful will have a grand celebration, those who find they still have a way to go will honor their progress and be glad they're in a spirit world again, and souls who endured unchosen harsh lifetimes will rejoice when they discover they gained leaps forward in evolvement.

Back down to Earth, the high vibrations of your compassion, caring and empathy are radiating hope to people living in dreadful conditions. Hopefulness is light-filled and this also is helping them more easily handle their burdens of homelessness or impoverishment.

Beloved sisters and brothers, please don't think we are overlooking that you, too, experience severe challenges, setbacks and sorrow! The difference is, you know what most others do not: Always every soul has the assistance of God's emissaries—angels, spirit guides and beloved people in spirit worlds. While they can't interfere with soul contract provisions, they are permitted to give comforting signs of their closeness, help ease unchosen trauma, and nudge in ways that keep folks on track with contract choices.

You know to use the universal law of attraction to your benefit whereas most others unwittingly use it to their detriment, and you know that countless members of vast, powerful civilizations are assisting Earth and her residents in myriad ways.

Let us now address another matter of timely significance. “Matthew and other messengers of the light talk about the importance of forgiveness. How can anyone forgive people who commit unspeakable atrocities like satanists do? If they are reptilians pretending to be human, does forgiveness still apply?” First let us say that forgiveness, like love, starts with self. Only by loving self and forgiving self of perceived or actual wrongdoings can one extend those feelings to others. And love, which encompasses forgiveness, is not understood.

Love is far, far more than the emotion it is considered to be! It is the same energy as light, the most powerful force in the cosmos, and the origin of everything in existence. It is the composition of the soul, the Godself of every life in this universe. The capacity to feel and receive love is limitless and so are the ways it can be expressed. Mother, please insert the date of our message that includes some of the “everyday-life” ways everyone can send love’s energy flowing throughout the planet and in doing so, radiate love’s magnificence to other worlds. That will be a helpful reminder to long-time readers and valuable information for awakening soul-searchers.

[December 13, 2018 message is archived in All Messages

section of <http://www.matthewbooks.com>.]

Thank you. Now then, forgiveness is the innate capacity of the soul to separate a person’s actions from the Soulself or Godself or I AM self, and not condemn the soul. It isn’t an instantaneous reaction like emotions are—for instance, ecstasy of a mother holding her newborn, relief of a hiker who emerges from a forest after being lost for three fearful days, or gratitude for the offer of assistance to complete an arduous task. Forgiveness, whose components are compassion and understanding, is more likely to come gradually, and never does it mean tolerating or condoning any individual’s injurious behavior, much less unconscionable acts!

People who commit heinous crimes come into the world as the pure love-light essence of Creator, the source of energy souls use to manifest bodies as humans, reptilians or any other species within this universe. For reasons unique to each, some individuals start succumbing to the lure of power and act upon that enticement through meanness, deviousness and lying.

As that behavior becomes more extensive and crueler, the light in those individuals keeps dimming until the heart-space is a dark void wherein there is no conscience or other guidance from the soul to the consciousness. With only the spark of light that is the body's life force, they become captives of the dark forces and act as its puppets. That is what happened to the weakest souls in the universal family, the Satanists. They became capable of happily committing acts that to others of all species in all civilizations are unspeakable, unthinkable.

It isn't likely that anyone can feel genuinely lovingly toward those individuals or even neutral about them, but it is possible to hate them. Hatred isn't the opposite of love, it is the absence of love, a deeply internalized feeling that springs from the ego, and its low vibrations form a barrier between the soul and the consciousness. That leads to dis-ease and, at physical death, individuals who hate are automatically drawn by the physics of this universe to a very low level of multi-layered Nirvana where everything is in consonance with those individuals' vibrations. They live in those dismal conditions until they are willing to accept the love-light energy that can replace all traces of hatred, and some refuse for centuries in your concept of time. That is how destructive hatred is!

Forgiveness comes from the divinity of the soul, the Godself, just as love does. It radiates the high vibrations that uplift the heart and mind of the forgiver, who sends forth an abundance of light into the world and grows in soul evolution. Upon transition from physical life, persons who forgive enter one of Nirvana's top layers, where they live actively and harmoniously in that wondrous spirit world's amazing diversity until they are ready to incarnate in an advanced world in keeping with their evolved status and choice. That is how powerful forgiveness is!

Yes, forgiveness applies to reptilians, with whom you are energetically connected at soul level just as you are with all other lives in all other species throughout this universe. And let us correct the fallacy that reptilians are an ungodly species. Many more souls that incarnate as reptilians are benevolent than are malevolent, and individuals of each persuasion were or still are in your midst. Some commit acts of pure evil and others live within the light. Many members of the ever-vigilant extraterrestrial special forces, who are among the most effective lightworkers on the planet because they can use all of their innate capabilities, are reptilians. [March 2, 2022 message includes an explanation of the forces, their capabilities and influential positions.] Now we shall address the numerous questions and comments about Queen Elizabeth II. It is true that she died some time ago, and according to special forces members, delaying the announcement was due in part to officials in the City of London, the Illuminati's European financial center with global tentacles, who wanted to keep money flowing into the coffers of the world's longest-reigning and internationally respected monarch.

European royalty is one of the disparate groups operating under the Illuminati "umbrella," so to say, and everything that secret society does is a strategic part of a larger picture. So, very likely the decision to finally announce the death of Queen Elizabeth is important to them, but we don't know its significance. Perhaps it's simply diversion from their desperate straits because so little of their agenda is succeeding.

The queen was a reptilian as was her consort, Prince Phillip. Eventually the centuries-old intention to keep the reptilian bloodline pure via marriages within the royal families produced weakened traits. To counter that, most spouses for Prince Charles' generation and their offspring were chosen from human bloodlines. The queen's private life differed considerably from the regal monarch seen in public, and while she was in favor of elitists ruling the masses, she wasn't in favor of killing the vast majority of the population as a means to attain world domination.

We don't know how long people in the United Kingdom will want to continue their ceremonial monarchy—they have yet to discover that for quite some time look-alike doubles have been acting as family members—but we can tell you there are no monarchies in Earth's Golden Age.

Dear family, as this eons-old global play comes to its end, your steadfastness in the truth of the light continues to be invaluable in helping Earth's civilization manifest the planet's Golden Age. All light beings in this universe honor you and support you with unconditional love.

LOVE and PEACE

Time for Change to Manifest in the Physical Realms

Posted on 10/04/2022

Greetings friends! From heart to heart in this moment we speak, I am Kejraj. The information expressed here is that of my perspective, my point of view. For all truth awaits you in your heart. Tune in to the light within you.

The energies continue to intensify, as you are being prepared for major shifts during this autumn and the coming winter season.

The light is to permeate all the densified bodies, pockets, and structures that are of a third dimensional frequency.

In a world as dense as Earth, with practically sludge like movement of low light particles, turbulence is only natural as the energies are amplified, four to eight times in the coming days and weeks ahead, in order to speed up the vibration of the light particles, with the light quotient increasing greatly, in a very short amount of time.

The DNA of each individual is being infused with this higher light, thus creating, yes discomfort for some, drama, perhaps illnesses. However, this is all in preparation for the full embodiment of your Soul Self.

The Human Kingdom, the Animal Kingdom, the Elementals, the Waters, the Lands, all is being cleansed and reset now in preparation for this great and most unique change to ever occur in this Universe.

With this also comes the change in the technological and economical areas. The 3D economy is already going through a stage of deconstruction. This may get chaotic for a little while, though it is necessary, as something wonderous will emerge from the ashes.

As the light increases, nothing can remain hidden any longer. The waters of Aquarius will wash over, cleanse and transmute all to light, and reveal all secrets.

The time has arrived for change to manifest in the physical realms, for in the spiritual realms all is complete. The many portals in the local star systems are being activated, for light to flow towards Earth without any interruptions. This will be evident for the majority of humanity. For only a few weeks from now, energetically you will be in a new world. You are to rise a few levels higher in vibration from where you are now, breathing in a higher light than you are now.

All that is unfolding now are stepping stones leading to the Grand Event, the Galactic Wave of Light from the Heart of Prime Creator, from the Great Central Sun that is to arrive to Earth, and change the world permanently. And nothing will ever be the same again.

Your light is needed now, from your heart, coming forth, merging with the higher light entering Earth at this time. Focus and infuse your desires for a peaceful and abundant world, for all.

This is not just a new chapter for humanity. This is a whole new book. A story once told far and wide in the stars, of who and what the Human Beings are in their truest form, and what they will create. It is now becoming reality on Earth, only in greater ways than it was foretold in the stories and prophecies by the Ancients of the Stars, a new reality, made manifest by You.

The Human Beings, the Guardians of Mother Earth. A planet destined to become paradise, for all, including many Star Races who will come visit, share their gifts, and learn together.

So, we say to you now, hold your highest light, hold your peace, and be ready, for the time is finally here.

The brightest light shines from within. From heart to heart, I Am KejRaj!

Lord Melchizedek: A Great Light Portal Opening

Posted on 09/30/2022

I am Melchizedek. I have asked to be able to speak to you to bring a message forward, where it was going to be KaRa speaking. But I've sent the message to this one, this channel, in the way that he would understand that I wish to speak.

For my message is to all of you. Not only here, those of you that are on this call, but to all of those that will read or listen to this at times beyond and resonate to these words, and know them as the truth. Because the truth is coming forward in so many ways, and in so many directions, and from so many different sources.

And the light that is coming into the planet is growing, and growing, and growing. For at first, you were simply the Lightworkers anchoring the light, holding the light. Now you are the Warriors spreading the light, sharing it. Sharing truth wherever you are able to.

And there is a great portal now that is opening. It is in the process of opening. And as it does, more and more light will flow through that portal, opening other portals throughout the planet, bringing truth forward from many different directions, truth being revealed everywhere. You are beginning to see just the beginnings of that.

But think about how it has changed over the years, and how much more truth has been coming forward. How those of the dark forces can no longer hold it back. They can no longer hold the flood of information, the flood of truth, that is breaking through all of the dams. The dams that have held the truth back everywhere on the planet. They are all breaking free, bringing the truth forward, flowing into all corners of the planet.

Each and every country throughout the planet will receive this truth, will receive this light. For as you have heard many times, it cannot be stopped, even though they have attempted, and continue to attempt, to stop the flood of information, attempt to patch the holes in those dams wherever they can. They cannot any longer. They are breaking free now. And you are going to see much, much more coming forward in the days, weeks, and months ahead.

And know that all of you that came to be a part of this, and have been preparing for this, are going to find the time, find the day, when all of this is fully revealed. And that, my friends, will be a day of remembrance.

It will first start off as a trickle, as it has already been. But gaining momentum, just as a tsunami that flows into an area, comes in slowly at first, but then gains more and more momentum and flows more freely everywhere, overcoming all of its obstacles in its way. That is what you are looking toward now. Date-wise, time-wise cannot be given. For it is still yet unknown exactly when this all shall be. But know that it is coming now.

And all of you have been prepared by those of us that have been working with you to ready you for this great avalanche of truth to be brought forward. You will be in the forefront. You are the Way-showers to all of those that yet are going to have their awakening. And a great awakening it is!

Will all of the people on the planet awaken? No. That is not the destiny at this time. But many, many more will than was thought of even a few years ago.

For those that have been at the forefront of this bringing the truth forward, again from many different directions and different sources, they have been doing their due diligence. They have been the Light-warriors, bringing these truths forward to those of you that have been ready to accept them. And now you are the Light-warriors bringing this information to others that are ready now to accept it. And more and more will continue on this way until the truth spreads everywhere.

And the tsunami of love and light will reach every corner of the planet and hasten that which is the Great Event.

I am Melchizedek. And I appreciate this time that I can be with you and share this message. Especially of that of the great portal that is in process of opening. Peace and love be with all of you.

The Shift: Your Inner Light, The Electric Grid

Posted on 10/01/2022

Greetings friends! From heart to heart in this moment we speak, I am Kejraj. The information expressed here is that of my perspective, my point of view, for all truth awaits you in your heart. Tune in to the light within you.

The greater aspects of the shift continue to unfold within your being. The clearing and transmuting of the old energies, as well as releasing altogether that which no longer serves the new you. The new version of you, of a higher consciousness and deeper understanding of story of creation.

Each day you align more with your Soul, allowing it to come forth, enhancing your abilities, particularly that of forgiveness and love. While placing more focus on creating the new, instead of mourning and fearing what may become of the old.

The dark players of the third dimensional world are well aware of the shift, and aware of the ones who are doing much light work towards manifesting the new reality. So, they too have upped their game, and continue to speed up their processes towards world domination, in hopes of somehow, some way, preventing the shift of humanity and Earth into the fifth dimension. We chuckle as we write the last sentence, for we know in truth, it simply cannot be done.

There is nothing the dark can do which would put a stop to the shift. For the Divine Source has decreed, the shift will occur, and also move forward at a slightly quicker pace than previous times. This is part of the Divine Plan of the Universe which Creator has set forth. And since what occurs on Earth impacts the galaxy and beyond, nothing will be allowed to thwart the Divine Plan.

The dark being stubborn, for millennia, they have tried everything they could think of, to achieve their goals. All they have thrown at the world, only slowed down the process, simply delayed the inevitable.

They have for now given up on creating and releasing viruses. The people have ‘lost interest’ in those types of games. And many did not play along to begin with.

The resistance movement against the dark puppets must grow stronger. You must remain steadfast, those of you who refused to buy into the ‘plandemic’ games, and did not follow its rules, it is time to do more, share and prepare others with what you know. Send a clear message to your local and state leaders, that you will not tolerate any unjust actions of the puppets.

The next plot of the mischievous players is an attempt to bring down the electrical grid. This may occur in many parts of the world, particularly Europe and the U.S. They want the population to surrender, and hand over everything they’ve got if you want the electricity restored.

We remind you, like many of their other plans, this too will backfire. Although they may succeed in doing this, it will be temporary. It is something which would only last two to four days. They want total darkness. And they may get their wish, as we stated for a few days. However, the hours of darkness will be used by the White Hats to round up the entities whose thrones now face a total demise.

The lost entities have always ignored the fact that humans are not alone on this journey. And this is not to say that humans need saviors or assistance from other worldly forces, whether it be angelic beings, or benevolent extraterrestrials. We only state that the help is there if intervention is absolutely required. As always, do not forget, you have freewill, and you're asking for assistance permits the higher dimensional beings to intervene in certain cases.

So, if the electricity is out, the world is dark, no tv or radio to report anything, someone may just step in and light up the skies, while at the same time bringing up the electric grid, wirelessly. This would be the Galactic Federation of Light. Imagine the awakening that this would trigger, worldwide.

Humanity will not be left in the dark. For the new energies entering the planet are touching your hearts, and helping many realize the light and love you hold within. This is changing the world. The more people awaken to this truth, awaken to their inner light, the more the frequency of the planet changes, rises, and the shift to the fifth dimension unfolds in harmony.

Remember, your daily prayers and meditations have a huge impact on preventing the dark's plans, and creating a greater light quotient on Earth.

You are in for very exciting days ahead. From a higher perspective, the process of upliftment into the fifth dimension is already complete. That is why we have said you are in the final days of the old third dimensional reality.

There are more changes to manifest in the physical, necessary events and adjustments prior to the powerful wave of light, which will see humanity into the new reality of paradise. This has begun.

The light you hold within will lead you to the reality of peace and prosperity you truly desire.

From heart to heart, I am Kejraj!

Ashtar: Cracks in the Political Platform

Posted on 10/03/2022

NEGATIVE BATTLE

The cracks in the political platform are getting bigger, this could lead to the fall of the Rutte IV cabinet in the Netherlands. The political debate creates a diffuse atmosphere in the autumn.

The foreign pressure is mounting and taking a different turn, this comes as an unexpected impulse and creates another shock wave that will affect everyone in 2023.

From the moment the war disrupted the Ukraine, an artificial war was put in place to increase the psychological pressure. This psychological burden is part of the great chaos that is being rolled out on a worldwide level.

DAMAGE OF TRUST

Undermining your basic personal security will lower confidence in politics to below zero. This autumn is going to be tough and the blowing over of many old structures is now really about to happen, the great chaos will take place nationally and internationally.

It is important to relax and protect yourself from the impact of the outside world.

PSYCHIC LOAD

Make a distinction between your own private situation and the problems that play out in the far outside world. Let go of the heaviness that you have no influence on and make sure that your personal psychological pressure decreases. The media likes sensationalism and with a colored scenario, it can increase the fears. Don't be influenced in a negative way!

The highly sensitive people can take extra protection, it is important to keep different things separate. Stay realistic and look at the outside world with a clear neutral view. Solve your own problems as best you can and stand firmly in your original core. Be real: What belongs to you and what does not? That way you can safely surf through these big waves of violence.

The increases to a psychological low in 2023

Tensions are mounting in foreign policy and straining the mind. An unprecedented low will occur in 2023. Prepare for this event so that you are not blown away.

You become vulnerable because of all the unrest and therefore the great chaos enters you unconsciously. Become aware of this and deal well with overstimulation. In order to maintain a good connection with the Light Dimensions and your higher self, it is necessary to detach yourself from this old manipulation. You are (still) part of it, so it touches you. How far do you let the chaos get in?

It is a difficult time for everyone, the political rulers have opted for an extra heavy scenario of fear. So that they can increase their ego, making the next political step very unsafe with all the consequences in 2023.

A great fear is swirling in politics for the failure of their 2030 agenda. They want to transform this world of manipulation and bend it to their will. Manipulation invades your mind and wants to take over your emotions negatively. Focus on what you want to transform. Create a piece of new earth that will rise from a different power.

PROCESS OF TRANSFORMATION

In addition to all the psychic oppression, a totally new field of liberation is emerging, this movement is getting stronger. Take part in this new liberation and start with positive thoughts. Communicate consciously with the Quantum field, which is everywhere. Through the Quantum Field you can communicate with your cosmic knowledge and realize new ideas. This consciousness is opening and this is the new power. The Divine powers are now taking a definitive place in the Quantum field and the new Earth is resonating through everything.

This period of great chaos can be a turning point for everyone. It can drastically change life in the positive sense of the word. The more consciously you deal with this phenomenon, the stronger you become in manifesting a new loving world. Create a new world from unity and simplicity, embrace and pass on your original knowledge. Through your ideals you can transform the world around you into a beautiful manifesto. Open this power, despite all the chaos that wants to distract your mind. The suction of the Big Reset has begun. Be aware of this.

UNNATURAL WARS

In your dual world areas regularly arise that have been polluted by much sadness and negative energies. The trauma must be converted so that the energy can flow again. These places are prone to disease, quarrels, misfortunes, disasters and wars. They are the dark spots in the energy field of mother earth and these parts become dull in color.

NATURAL HEALING

Mother Earth restores these areas with her self-healing ability. An explosion of purification ensues. There may be temporary war, disease and severe climate disturbances in this purification, but these serve to clear the air. This is the natural way, unless this peak is exploited artificially. Wars and diseases last far too long and weigh the energy of this area in an extreme way. The dark place now becomes a long dark maze.

Manipulative powers use these areas to start a war and exploit their power. The dark circles become active. This can only be broken by a lot of light, love, clear conscience and deep rest to recover.

From the cosmos and through the Divine Source a healing energy is sent again and again and a healing occurs. This imbalance is then carried out in the energetic layers. Solar flares, magnetic fields and natural lightning restore the balance.

DIVINE LIGHT

Do not let yourself be carried away too much by the negativity and first bring your mind into balance. Put your focus on the recovery and the immediate environment, so that the power released from it can support the earth. The more light that shines in you, the more powerful everything becomes. Do not become part of an unnatural struggle, but direct your energy towards a peaceful and pure light. In this way your potential is increased and the cooperation with the Divine Light forces ensures that you are protected and safe.

Step out of the vortex of fear and set up a vortex of love, but first through your own system.

I salute the light in your heart

Adonai Ashtar

The Ascended Masters: Maintain Inner Peace

Posted on 09/30/2022

'Do not be afraid of the future!'

What is dawning now is the great time in which the change becomes visible. The light of truth shows things as they are, and new ways are revealed to mankind. Off the beaten track you build a world as it was unimaginable for you so far. Light pushes upwards and the true being in God becomes the all-determining power.

Until it is so far, the old burdens of mankind will be worked up, removed or redeemed. This phase of change is associated with great challenges. On a spiritual-mental as well as on a physical level, everything will be demanded of you.

When the essence of things is revealed to people, there is great astonishment – in the positive as well as initially still in the negative, because it is necessary to understand what held the old world together inside.

3 Phases

This first phase of revelations is followed in the second step by the phase of the great clearing up. In the course of this, many entities will leave this earth. This is followed by the great cleansing by asking forgiveness and practicing forgiveness.

In this way, a healthy foundation will be laid for the building of the new human family, for only people who have entered their inner kingdom of peace will populate the NEW EARTH.

The golden age of light will be built in no time on the pillars of love. What is still unthinkable and unimaginable for you today will then be the most natural thing – with each other, for each other and connected with the source of all being.

Unity with God will lead to unity among people. Then there will be peace among people and there will be peace among nations.

All efforts of the powers from the light aim at this, because development steps of unimaginable extent will then be possible in a very short period of time.

That is why every single phase in the ascension process is of great importance and that is why, first of all, the evil with the “root race” that embodied it will be removed. This is the work that must be done now, a work that will not end until the last powers of baseness have also been destroyed and removed from this earth.

Redeem envy and hatred!

Meanwhile, you, beloved human being, are called upon to keep real, true and deep peace. If you have not yet entered your kingdom of peace, since you still find remnants of envy and hatred within you, then detach yourself from them and thereby redeem humanity.

Stifle the swelling flame of envy, remove the ground from the all-destroying fire of hatred! Feed what nourishes you, preserve what preserves you, love as you are loved by God!

We are the Ascended Masters.

James Gilliland: Full Steam Ahead

Posted on 09/30/2022

It's been a while since the last newsletter mainly because we have been building rock walls fences keeping out pigzilla along with his friends etc. We have also planted a lot of fruit trees, gardens, and are making a food bank out of the land to add to the already abundance of fruit. Not a lot of time to sit at the computer. Kilauea is erupting with a swarm of quakes; she is just making the island bigger. The contacts have continued and we have been receiving a lot of information about the days to come. It is important to realize that according to them they have been working for over 80 years on the planetary liberation with those of noble virtue. There is a prerequisite for contact and few have the moral foundation and integrity to work with the spiritually and technologically advanced off-worlders. There are many however that will work with the regenerate ET's with promises of fame, fortune and power.

Most cannot fathom how dark and corrupt the leadership, the music and movie industry even major religions have become. It has also infested the UFO and Spiritual communities preying on people who lack discernment and inner sensitivity. There is without a doubt a very powerful Satanic/Luciferian influence in almost all positions of power. This is all going to be exposed and dealt with shortly in the days to come. That network is coming to an end. The kick off has started and the white hats look like a team of rhinoceros heading full steam ahead. The last holdouts, the tunnels and dumps, deep underground bases have been eliminated or under control of the white hats. There are lots of rumors about the cabal surrendering. They don't know how to surrender or keep their word so don't count on that. Here is a little hint, the Ukraine is their home base, the Ukrainian army has within it the Azof Battalion which are NAZIs, there are extreme bioweapon labs controlled by the NWO which were necessary to reach their 80 to 90% reduction in population. The Russian army is taking out those labs and putting an end to the Nazi's replete within the NWO, New World Order AKA Global Elite/Cabal. Not what the global elite owned politicians and mainstream news is telling you.

The “public announcement” of the passing of the queen, the most powerful person on the chessboard is the pivotal point signaling the end of the tyrants. The child and sex trafficking as well as ritual sacrifice is real. The scope of which most people cannot comprehend. Those who cannot comprehend the magnitude of this degenerate behavior are going to have a real eye opener they cannot deny. There was a mysterious voice that came out of nowhere that said, “She's gone, we cannot retrieve her, she is trapped.” being scrubbed off of you tube. These tyrannical leaders cannot return to Earth. There has been a 7th dimensional intervention. No ritual is going to bring her back!!!!!! As we have said before this is a multidimensional war. As above, so below. We thought the goat representing Baphomet was an obvious message for the critical thinking and research impaired leading her funeral procession.

We want to address the chaos in the UFO community. This is orchestrated and carried out by the regenerate ETs and other dark forces. The UFO community is replete with planned opposition, shills, a controlled narrative along with many with agendas other than service to humanity. They are in service to self, their own egos, fame, fortune. in some cases, they seek power over others creating a following. This is the goal of their handlers. They will give you 80 to 90% truth then spin the end with their agendas. They are trapping you in the intellect and taking you away from your heart, your God connection where the real discernment needs to happen. Names, images, stories fade away, change like socks, what does any of this have to do with your enlightenment, your ascension, how does this raise your frequency, put you in touch with direct knowing? This is becoming epidemic along with all the drama and competition.

There is no go between with God/Great Spirit/Creator whatever name you want to give it. There are no drive-in enlightenment franchises. Each person has to make their own personal God connection and so it goes with Spiritually and Technologically advanced Off-Worlders. If those masters, teachers and healers are not empowering you to heal yourself and make your own personal connection they are a distraction and that distraction is diverting your ascension process. It is all about raising your frequency, empowering the individual, dealing with our own shadow side, releasing the past and knowing who we are rather than someone telling us who we are.

Little hint you have the genes of the gods, there is no separation in omnipresence the Creator is omnipresent in all Creation which includes YOU. There is nowhere to go but within. The one consciousness that encompasses all consciousness on all planes and dimensions is within. It is the unified field in which we all reside, the Masters, Saints, Sages, higher vibrational beings and yes, the ETs all exist in that field. Expand in awareness and become the field. That is why the Buddha said you are the Universe; the whole Universe resides within.

Do you think the higher vibrational beings engage in all the competition and drama, the rumors and gossip, the planned opposition, controlled narratives? On the flip side do you think the regenerate ETs, darker forces inspire and influence it? All will be revealed and many will be shocked to see their icons are not what they believe them to be. We are making popcorn watching it all unfold. That is why I for one have removed myself from most public venues spending a lot more time in nature. We are entering some rough times, prepare on every level, we don't have the luxury of denial and lesser agendas. Imagine sitting on a beach, swimming in the ocean, walking in forests, planting trees and gardens working with nature while all this other nonsense is unfolding with a big grin on your face. That is where you will find us.

Be well,

James Gilliland

Hakann: Solar Flash

Posted on 10/01/2022

My dearest brothers and sisters,

This is Hakann speaking. It is my pleasure to answer some more questions.

Question: My question today is about the Solar Flash. Is it coming? If yes, how long does it affect us? instantly or days? What impact does it leave us?

Answer: Thank you for your question. This is a hot topic in the minds and subconscious minds of many Light workers. I appreciate the opportunity to talk about it.

Is the solar flash coming? Perhaps, it depends on which choices Earthlings make.

The flash will be near-instant, but it will take days before most Earthlings will have more or less stabilized from the flash.

It will be a flash of very high and intense energies. It will cause a wave of remembrance and it will shake loose a lot of illusions that people currently have. For most light workers it will be intense but also blissful and joyful. For most average people, it will feel like a train hit them out of nowhere. They'll be completely destabilized and disrupted, but after a few days, they'll enter the fourth dimension and will open-mindedly start looking around for what's really going on. They will be confused, but they will not be as fearful as they are today. Hopefully light workers can help them find their footing in those days.

Earthlings who are too stuck in their ways might die from getting a huge amount of intense energy. This is a large part of the reason why it hasn't happened yet. If it happened today, it would kill way too many people. Yes, on one hand souls are immortal and those souls can reincarnate elsewhere, but still we want to minimize deaths.

On the positive side, if the flash happens, then very shortly afterwards Earthlings will start working together on a much more positive world.

So, will the flash happen? Well, it depends on the choices that Earthlings make.

Gaia and Source want Earth to become a paradise-like world, and want Earthlings to be able to start living peaceful and blissful lives, without violating the free will of Earthlings. Us good-hearted extraterrestrials serve Source, and thus we work to accomplish what Source wants. I can promise you that in the medium term, Earthlings really will end up in a love-based society.

The solar flash is one tool that Source has to help Earth and Earthlings move into a love-based society. But it's a tool that also has downsides, because it will kill people who are completely not ready for it.

Will that tool be used? If the level of consciousness of Earthlings rises very quickly, then it won't be necessary and the solar flash tool won't be used, which also means that those people won't die. In this scenario, you will just move into an amazing love-based society on your own without the flash.

If the level of consciousness of Earthlings rises pretty quickly but not too quickly, then it's reasonably likely that the solar flash tool will get used at a point when not too many people will die from it. I do not enjoy the thought of Earthlings dying from the solar flash, but on the other hand, I also do not enjoy the thought of Earthlings currently suffering from repression and living in pain.

Note that the solar flash is just one tool out of many that Source has to help Earthlings move into a love-based world. There are also many others. Frankly, there's too many to list and some will have to stay secret for now because we do not want negative beings to know about them.

Often the channeler will ask me: "Is this going to happen and if so, when?" Usually I will respond with: "it depends on the choices that Earthlings make." This sometimes annoys him, but frankly, it really is up to you Earthlings how exactly the coming time is going to unfold.

In general, there are multiple different future timelines open, and multiple things may happen and it's not clear when exactly what will happen. So, beware of beings who give very specific predictions or who say that things absolutely will or will not happen. Usually it's only really possible to state that certain things are likely or unlikely, or that certain things will happen at some point but it's not clear when.

Although to be fair to channelers, both channelers and their audience usually just want to hear: "this thing will happen by that date." So sometimes benevolent beings will say: "this will happen" when in reality something is likely but not certain to happen. This does not make those beings secretly malevolent. Still, it is good to realize that any prediction that you hear about the future is simply one probable timeline, not something that's cast in stone.

Question: Hello, I have been wondering one thing for many years, after the event and once we are fully anchored in 5D on the new earth will our bodies (the current heavy ones) be abandoned in some way? It doesn't appeal to me that our bodies are to change so powerfully from their current state to the final effect after ascension from Carbon to Crystal or Diamond body as many say.

The way I feel about it is that this body will somehow be abandoned, die or be dematerialized and our entire consciousness will jump to the light body, which we are now rebuilding and which is non-physical. In conclusion, I think our body will only change to a certain extent so that all our Divine aspects will be anchored in one place, but in the end, we will abandon the physical body for the final change and anchor fully on the 5D earth after the event. Is this correct? I am wondering about this because this current body is very limited, although I love and respect it, I am also grateful that I can experience through it now. Please answer as comprehensively as possible, for this moment.

Answer: As detailed in the previous answer: Earthlings will end up in a love-based 5D society. It's quite possible that there will be the event of a solar flash that causes this, but there's also a possibility that Earthlings will end up in a love-based 5D society without a flash. Regardless, you are headed towards a love-based 5D society.

For the sake of new people: 5D refers to a state of love-based consciousness. It does not refer to five spatial dimensions. There are a small number of people right now on your world who are in 5D. Normal people are in the consciousness of 3D. 4D is a transition phase between 3D and 5D. 4D is when you know that something is wrong on Earth and normal life seems not so appealing anymore, but you don't yet know what is true or what to do with your life.

If there's the event of a solar flash, then most Earthlings will be briefly in 4D and then quickly move up to the lower to middle part of 5D. Their bodies will be healthier and their hearts will be open. Friendly ETs will land shortly after and will freely offer healing and spiritual teachings to anyone who wants it.

In the lower to middle part of 5D, people will be healthier and more loving and suffer from less illusions, but they will still be physically there. Their bodies will not go anywhere. They will not be able to walk through a wall, for example.

Once Earthlings develop to the upper end of 5D, they will be able to voluntarily leave their body for a time, and they can use their light body to do so-called supernatural things. However, they will still by default be in their body. You can think of a spiritually advanced Earthling in the present day: by default, they're in their bodies, but they can astral travel if they wish.

Earthlings have a slight misconception about light bodies. As you progress spiritually, then initially you will have an activated light body while still being in your physical body. It's only when you continue progressing that eventually you leave your physical body behind, but initially you'll have both a physical body and an activated light body. You won't really notice your light body, other than feeling more peace and love and having more access to so-called supernatural abilities.

By the time beings are 7th dimension, it becomes a choice if they want to be physically incarnated or if they prefer to be immaterial. And when you move beyond 7D, being immaterial becomes the default state of being. Needless to say, it will be some time before typical Earthlings become 7D. That said, specific Light Workers might reach 7D relatively shortly after the event.

Personally I, Hakann, am 7th dimension. And frankly I prefer to be physically incarnated most of the time. Because this physical reality is where I can touch people, where I can dance, where I can eat delicious meals, where I can interact with my children and where I can make love to the woman I love.

I understand that Earthlings have a lot of negative experiences with physical bodies, but once your entire society becomes 5D, a lot of physical discomforts will be gone and a lot of physical pleasures will become available. I think that once everyone is in 5D and your galactic brothers and sisters have landed, you will very much appreciate that you are physically in a body.

That said, if you have the desire to experience immateriality, feel free to ask us after we have landed and we will be happy to teach you how you can achieve that.

Thank you for your excellent question. And to everyone, thank you for listening. I hope this was helpful to you.

Your star brother,
Hakann

Salusa: First Contact, Elections in Brazil, And Ascension

Posted on 10/03/2022

It is evident that there are more sightings of our ships, as the threats are being removed considerably, and the first real contact will not take long. There is also excitement on our part as we have waited for thousands of years for this moment to come closer and it will certainly be a moment of great joy for all of us.

There is still a certain care, as it is a game of chess and we have to proceed with caution to guarantee, above all, the safety of the people of Earth and the non-violation of their free will.

Those who still operate in the dark keep trying to cause some chaos as they become more aware of our approach and the mass awakening of peoples underway.

Anyway, this is a destiny that cannot be changed, and it is certain that we will all meet and resume our cosmic coexistence as before.

The acceleration for such events continues in full swing, as the old continues to crumble, without delay.

The many leaders who held the surface population in a kind of captivity retreat and begin to leave the physical landscape.

More opportunities begin to emerge and the first signs that your media are starting to yield to the power of the Light are noticed.

The big TV stations of your reality are starting to talk behind the scenes of their administrations about our presence, and that it is becoming untenable to deny our existence.

They fear the pressures of the masses when they begin to question why they have neglected this truth, when they have such far-reaching power and could change, forever, the way of life of thousands of souls.

All of them would benefit from our technologies if we were announced, in a friendly way, contrary to what has been preached about us for decades, painting us as a threat.

These are times, indeed, where all of you will be in more healing processes.

Do not miss opportunities to be in tune with your Higher Selves.

This will allow for great healings and will accelerate your advances towards your release from the old patterns.

As you all continue to advance, it is natural that you also begin to perceive signs of the subtler planes merging with physical reality, such as the very bright points of light sometimes around you, or more vivid colors around you.

These are clear signs of these merging of realities, that the veil that separates the dimensions is getting thinner and that your physical bodies are losing density.

Don't be afraid when that happens.

Appreciate the experience in order to open up to it more.

It is also important that we emphasize, again, the need for discernment among all of you.

In recent times, there are souls who cling to patterns of fear and insecurity and release terrifying information to the masses about catastrophic events to come that would lead you to extinction.

Needless to say, such things will not happen.

There is a much greater plan for all of you, and it is not the Creator's desire for you to be annihilated, quite the opposite.

You have overcome tremendous challenges over the millennia and are indeed worthy of much love, respect and admiration for holding the Light through such delicate times.

Do not credit apocalyptic information, for in no way does Gaia want her children to suffer in such a way, even if, for a long time, you have been hard on her through her actions.

Goddess Gaia's unconditional love for everyone is endless.

Appreciate nature, keeping in touch with it daily.

Connect with the love that flows from everything there is, and you will be able to reframe past actions when you had another level of consciousness.

Seek self-forgiveness and acceptance, in the same way that you seek to forgive those who have not yet managed to transcend the low vibrations.

Don't forget that everyone is master of their destiny and everyone is responsible for their choices, and the Creator just respects that.

Certainly, many must be thinking about situations where people are violently assaulted and killed, or something similar.

Dear Ones, Divine Justice never fails and seeking self-forgiveness and forgiveness will not relieve you of the responsibility to recover from the misuse of energy, but you will certainly have more strength to heal and heal faster.

The power of forgiveness is endless and puts you on another level, quickly disintegrating layers of pain, suffering and anguish that tend to perpetuate the cycles of incarnation, in an expiatory way.

Enjoy the bonds with your ancestors who have transcended such limitations and ascended to the higher spheres.

Invoke us to assist you in these processes of resignification and healing.

They are present now, more than ever, and they are willing to collaborate with you during the great healings.

Always remember: forgiveness does not exempt you from your responsibilities and your acts as creators, but it gives you strength to heal and give new meaning to something you have practice outside the Law of Love.

Divine mercy never fails and there will always be opportunity for redemption.

Jesus said in his passage on Earth: "Forgive to be forgiven. Understand so that you are understood and help so that you are helped, because with the same measure you measure, you will also be measured".

Enjoy these times and also look at what you don't like and exercise love and compassion.

In these times when your country (Brazil) is going through an electoral process, evaluate in yourself how your level of unconditional love for those candidates who are not where voting card is going.

This alone will measure your vibration level.

There's nothing wrong with opting for this one or that one.

The “problem” begins when the one who will not be voted on by you is the triggering of your revolt and fury.

This indicates that their lower bodies still have full control over their emotions.

Of course, if you see that, don't feel bad or anything, but remember forgiveness and self-acceptance.

Recognizing this, with humility, will give you strength to transcend such inferior influences and raise you to greater and more expanded levels, where you will be able to help so many others who will arrive to receive help attracted by your expanding vibratory state.

It is, in a way, common, in times of elections, to have more agitation than usual, because this also affects the transcendental of most of you.

Many were involved in various political moments in history such as Rome and Ancient Greece.

However, today, you anchor far Lighter than ever before and you have the full capacity to push away such lower influences that are awakened and to hold yourself up no matter what scenario presents itself.

In any case, the love and support of all of us will remain inviolable, as we have an oath to fulfill since when the Creator called us to such a mission: to assist the Earth in her transition to the higher dimensions and her original form of Eden.

I am SaLuSa from Sirius and I see that my words continue to be well accepted by most of you on the surface.

Thus, I reinforce my commitment to bring clarifications about the progress of the Federation's plans, which is more active than ever.

We honor everyone who is willing to support us as we prepare for landing.

Those rural landowners, remember us! Our first landings will be in these areas, in order to contact, for the time being, in a more private and delicate way.

Obviously, many of you will be intuited by us to gather groups in meditations in these areas and we will give our signals whenever we are allowed, and if it is safe.

First Contact is not a simple wish: it is a reality that does not take long.

One Who Serves and Shoshanna: Glimpses Beyond the Veil

Posted on 09/30/2022

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum; hum, hum. Greetings to you! One Who Serves here. Shoshanna is here. And we are ready. The symptoms that The James had earlier are completely gone now because he recognized, just as there was two times before, as we find it, when this energy of Melchizedek was coming through. And it was a reminder to this one that he needed to open up for this message.

We are ready for your questions, if you have them.

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes.

Guest: My question is the absence of sound during last weeks' channeling while going through the chakra tones. I did listen to the recording, and there were dead spots exactly where I heard them before live last week. And I'm just wondering if there is any reason that was found out why that happened.

OWS: What we can tell you is this is largely within each and every one of you in terms of a difference within you as to what you would be able to handle within yourself as to remember these sounds. And we specifically say 'remember' here. And some of you are ready for this, and some not so much. So, it was determined within each of you, in terms of your Higher God Self-working within you, that you are either ready or not ready for this at this point. So, we are going to hold back from this as a group now because of this, as we find it. Shoshanna, do you have other perspective here, perhaps?

SHOSHANNA: (JoAnna's Higher Self, channeled by JoAnna McConnell)
We do not.

OWS: Very good. Then we hope this answers your questions here.

Guest: Yes.

OWS: Very good. Are there any further questions here?

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes?

Guest: When I was meditating, when I was sitting where I usually meditate, every now and then I see little sparkles. But this day I saw quite a bright blue sparkle out of the side of my eye. This was there for a second or two, and then it was gone. I was just wondering if you had any information you could share about that.

OWS: That's what we can tell you, is this is what we have been speaking about for some time now as to the glimpses. The glimpses beyond the veil, if you will, of the third-dimensional illusion, and seeing into the higher dimensional frequencies. And when you get these glimpses, which often happen out of the corner of your eye, in your peripheral vision at first, and they are fleeting. This has been happening to many of you for some time, and will continue to happen, and even become stronger where, at a point where your third eye is much more reactivated, you will then be able to see directly into that experience that is right there in front of you. And we say 'right there in front of you' because it is all happening right there in front of you, you just cannot see it yet at this point. Sometimes you get glimpses. Shoshanna, do you have perspective here?

Shoshanna: We can share. May we share, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, we find that this blue sparkly color that you have seen is a reminder for you to be tranquil, to be calm. And you have been seeking this calmness within you, this tranquility within you, for a long time. This is a reminder that you are achieving this. Namaste.

OWS: Very good.

Guest: Namaste. Thank you.

OWS: Would there be other questions here?

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes?

Guest: We all know that we're heading into very exciting time, this Fall, when we are starting to see things happening. And I was wondering if the good guys, the White Hats, still have a plan to do an emergency broadcast if the mainstream does not go down, or has that all not been decided yet?

OWS: We can tell you there are many parts of this plan, and that is one specific part here, that is likely to be introduced here in a very short time, as we find it, at this point. That, of course, could change depending on how collective consciousness across the planet continues to move through this plan. But it is very likely that you will be having this process coming soon here. And there is that word ‘soon,’ but taking it for what it is here at this point. Shoshanna, do you have anything to add?

Shoshanna: We do not add to that answer.

OWS: Very good., Was this sufficient for you?

Guest: Yes. I see that some people are not able to awaken, so possibly that will be what jars them into awakening, if that happens.

OWS: This is another sign, which is yet to come.

Guest: Thank you very much.

OWS: Yes. Would there be other questions here?

Guest: Yes, I have a question.

OWS: Yes?

Guest: I've been having more and more of these high frequency tones in my head somewhere coming in at night. At a certain time, each night there is a star that's outside my door. And it seems that the tones are connected to the light and the frequencies. Like the star itself is twinkling (but it's more than twinkling) and it's connecting to the tones that I'm hearing. Is there anything that you can maybe tell me about this?

OWS: Yes, certainly. Do you remember the movie, the one of the landings that occurred, "Close Encounters of the Third Kind," your movie, and the tones that were used?

Guest: Ohheww.

OWS: It was not fictional. This was not simply made up. This was a known understanding here of the type of communication that could occur, that the human being here on the planet could receive this. And you are receiving this within your head as tones that are coming. And this is an indication of those that are attempting to communicate with you. Long lost family.

Guest: Any idea what they are trying to tell me?

OWS: We cannot do that, but we can tell you that they are attempting to communicate, and would hope that you would listen and then be able to telepathically communicate back with them. Shoshanna may have other perspective or more?

Shoshanna: We do. We have perspective here.

OWS: Yes.

Shoshanna: May we share, Dear Sister?

Guest: Sure. Please.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, these sounds that you are being given, these high frequency sounds, are healing tones. They are sending healing throughout your body, and these healing tones will affect your body to the level that you receive and accept them; So when you feel these tones, when you hear these tones, know that this is a recalibration taking place to mend the areas that need mending. These are the areas that need healing in your physical body. Namaste.

OWS: Very good.

Guest: Thank you. Thank you very much.

OWS: And the other one that wished to ask question here?

Guest: Yes. The way I'm going to frame this question is around, say, actors and musicians that we are finding out are not good people as these truths come forward. And I'm going to use Tom Hanks, or some of the other ones that are more well known that are not good people. What is the correct energetic response (and that is the best way I know to term it) on continuing to watch movies, listen to music, or any form of entertainment that includes these folks, these evil ones, as we find out they are evil? Because I guess what I'm trying to get as it I don't want to inadvertently support that structure. And then once we find out the truth about someone being evil, if I go ahead and watch a movie that they starred in, or whatever, if I continue to listen to their music after I know they are evil, isn't that inadvertently sort of supporting that within the matrix? So, my question is, what is the correct energetic response? Do we never watch those movies again? Do we never listen to their music again once we realized they are evil? I guess that's my question.

OWS: We would say it is dependent upon each individual, and how they feel. And it is about feeling, as you are watching this, or listening to this, how it feels to you, how it resonates within you. And there are those that can watch these movies and with whatever actors are in them, and not be concerned about it, not be affected by it. Then there are others that are at that same consciousness level of that one that is in the movie, or being depicted in the movie, as we find it, as we know there are many that are being depicted, not actually being the ones in these movies, and they are not able to differentiate between them, you see? But it is mostly about feeling. How it feels to you. If it feels okay, then it is okay. But if it does not, then we would say to hold back from it.

An example would be of your themes in terms of horror movies, this type of thing. If this is something you watch and you become ensconced within it, and you feel within it, and feel the fear, and all of this within it, then we would say to not watch those movies. And it is the same thing with various of your music at this point. Shoshanna?

Guest: Got it. Okay, thank you.

Shoshanna: We can share. May we share our perspective, Dear Brother?

Guest: Absolutely. Thank you.

Shoshanna: Dear Brother, ‘to thine own self be true.’ That is what we have to say. All that was given by One Who Serves is accurate. And in this life, as in all paths, the straighter path requires complete commitment to the truth of one’s self. All other paths lead to destruction, you see. So, to thine own self be true. Namaste.

OWS: Very good.

Guest: Great. Thank you so much.

OWS: Very good. Any other further questions before we release channel? We take one more if there is. No further questions? Then we are ready for your e-mail question here.

Guest: Yes. The question was asked, “what is the real cause of the people’s sudden death happening on the planet right now?”

OWS: As many of you have been receiving information on this as to this sudden death syndrome, or sudden adult death syndrome, this type of thing. And that is what we have been alluding to and bringing messages to you for some time here that there will be many that have chosen this way to leave the Earth, to leave this expression here. This was their ticket out, you might say. So that is certainly happening.

There are those that did not have that desire to leave, but are getting brought into the entire process here. And that is in some ways unfortunate that they are leaving the life in that way, but it is all a part of their larger contract that they have. So even if they did not want to, it is part of their deeper contract here that they are leaving.

And if you know the reason for this in terms of what you are calling ‘the shot,’ the ‘clot shot,’ or the ‘kill shot,’ this type of thing, all of this was predetermined by those of your dark forces to bring about the extermination of the large population of this planet. If they could not do it one way, then they would look to do it another way. Nuclear war did not work. Famine likely would not work. But they went toward the so-called pandemic, and this type of thing, to spread fear and all of this. And notice they continue to attempt to spread fear wherever they are able to. But that is all coming to an end here. Shoshanna, do you have anything to add?

Shoshanna: We will add that this phenomenon is caused by electronic wireless signaling to those that have the mechanism within them that has been distributed by this inoculation. It is electronically being emitted. Namaste.

OWS: Very good.

Guest: Can I just ask quickly, will the total truth come out to these people who are asleep to this? Will the truth come out them dying because of the vaccination eventually?

OWS: Yes. This is certainly destined to do so at this point.

Shoshanna: May we share?

Guest: Yes.

Shoshanna: It is, again, the idea of those that have ears to hear this, you see. So those that are seeking the truth will be given the truth. Those that do not seek the truth will not find the truth. Namaste.

OWS: Yes. Very good. Then we are done for the time. Shoshanna, do you have any message to give here?

Shoshanna: We will say hold onto your seats, dear people, it is about to break loose. Namaste.

OWS: Yes. Fasten those seat-belts, because it is coming.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the one.

Jeshua: The Big Bang Part 1

Posted on 10/01/2022

JJK: For one week I am on vacation with my family in Paros, the beautiful island in the Aegean Sea. All of a sudden today I feel weakened and somehow not quite with myself; emotionally sensitive like a “butterfly child”, wrapped in absorbent cotton and somewhat numb. For me, this is an unmistakable sign that a message is about to arrive and that I am just being tuned in to it. On the pleasantly shaded terrace of our accommodation, with a view of the roaring sea, I begin to write ...

JESUS CHRIST: Be carried in my love, as all mankind is carried in my love.

The days are approaching when the high-ranking dark powers will fall and descend into the kingdom of darkness. The days of radical upheaval are approaching, the days when the system of injustice will explode, erode and implode – a big bang (1) that is necessary because humanity needs to be shaken awake.

JJK: After all, isn't what we are currently experiencing WAKE-UP enough: Corona. Transhumanism, economic crisis, wars?

JESUS CHRIST: Enough for those who have eyes and can think with their hearts, too little for those who still need to wake up now for this game to end.

Everything happens in the order of God. God is the ordering authority who now intervenes directly in what is happening on earth. Humanity will overcome chaos; it will be led out of the valley of darkness and tread the path of light.

JJK: THE BIG BANG – what is it and when does it take place?

JESUS CHRIST: The exposure of the evilness of dark entities will hit the whole humanity like a shock wave. Committed misdeeds and future plans of this lightless brood will be revealed in one fell swoop. In this way, what seemed to be of permanent existence will be destroyed at one stroke.

He who has eyes will see, and he who has ears will hear. Nothing that was planned inhuman for the future has a future after the big bang! The humanity wins the upper hand and new life is breathed into the souls.

24 months

When? In the course of the next 24 months! The process of revelations is already underway, increasing month by month and reaching ever greater proportions. Everything is moving towards the big bang.

The boil of injustice and the ulcer of inhumanity must burst open so that the healing of wounded human hearts can begin.

JJK: Some people might be afraid of this now? In some messages – which I have received myself, but also in those I read on the net – there is talk of the “event” of “disclosures” or of “revelations”. While some people can hardly wait for it, other people develop a lot of fears about such announcements.

JESUS CHRIST: Fears that dissolve as soon as the dimension of healing and the light behind it become visible.

JJK: How to prepare for it?

JESUS CHRIST: With God in your heart and armed with the truth – taking your place, full of confidence and devotion. Everything else happens!

Heaven on earth has dawned, for the hellish goings-on are being nourished by fewer and fewer people – and those who are yet to awaken will awaken, for they will be given the awakening experience. Beloved, honored and protected beyond all measure are you, beloved people.

I am JESUS CHRIST,

I am in the midst of you.

Jeshua: The Big Bang Part 2

Posted on 10/01/2022

JJK: The “boil” will burst! (See THE BIG BANG 1) I understand it like this: While deeper and deeper abysses open up, more and more people will rise and not only demand a new, a just system based on peace and unity, but will unhinge it themselves. Shock will be accompanied by wonder!

JESUS CHRIST: Thus, it happens that inherent in every terror is healing. Yes, mankind is rising and will continue to rise.

What can already be seen today, and so far, applies only to a minority, will grow into an unimaginably powerful movement – this is now maturing. What you have seen so far in resistance, disobedience and courage, in the revolutionary spirit of freedom movements and in rebellion, was only the beginning.

For this change to succeed, it needs wide-awake people who take action. It is necessary to actively participate in the process of ascension – because this change leads to ascension – and to help shape it. This process, in which more and more people step into action, is now initiated.

Passivity is no longer an option! Only the sages and saints, who were born for a life in seclusion, perform their service to mankind in this way. Beyond that all humans are called to come into action and visibly or invisibly, audibly or quietly stand up for the new life.

The old goes down with a loud roar and you promote this process best by doing the necessary at the right time at the right place inspired by your soul.

Let your soul guide you, for it is guided by God. In this way, you will always be the light and point out the light to your fellow human beings at the right moment.

Will many people die?

JJK: As the energy for the “big bang” builds up, how are the energy crises, wars, pandemics and the like shaping up. There are still great fears being stirred up here. Will the masses continue to be moved and controlled with this? What will happen now to those who have undergone the Corona gene therapy? Will many die or is there hope?

JESUS CHRIST: As long as the beast of infamy is not completely defeated, it lashes out and it spreads fear and terror – and as long as the individual human being stares spellbound, like the rabbit before the blow, at this scene, he remains in the game and is part of the distortions.

The safe place outside this scene can only be taken by the one who is aware of the scene. The consciousness work in this respect is therefore still of the greatest importance!

Each person happens according to his will and according to the needs of his soul. Experiences want to be savored up to the complete saturation. Developments must be completed before the next higher stage of spiritual involution can be climbed.

Yes, great groups of people are taken from this world! They go in harmony with their souls, because they do not want to participate in this ascent.

They were only guests in this play, spectators and not actors who wanted to take an active part in it or to shape the scenes. They will share this experience at another time on another earth. The people ascending today will be their Ascended Masters in a distant future.

Will many people be healed by Corona Therapy?

JJK: Will many people be healed by the Corona Therapy? I am thinking especially of those who were inoculated against their will, such as parents who had themselves injected in order to be allowed to visit their own children in hospital, or people who wanted to say goodbye to dying people, but without the injection were not allowed to enter either a nursing home or a hospital. For a time, people could not even cross borders without vaccination. People were separated from each other and this led many to undergo this “therapy”.

What is the procedure or distinction here? Who receives the grace of healing and who remains exempt?

JESUS CHRIST: The divine laws obey the divine order of love. Every human being, who was induced to this bodily injury out of love and not out of fear of his own demise, will find all possibilities of healing – on this world or on the other world: To these souls it will be well done and good! Those people, however, who wanted to preserve their own life by this intervention, will lose it.

This is how it happens! This is how it is – today and all the time!

We conclude our today's meeting in the light of the truth.

My love is with those who are waiting for me.

My love is with you.

James Gilliland: Dempocracy

Posted on 10/05/2022

I was trying to think of a word which best sums up what is unfolding. Could not think of one so I made one up. It's called Dempocracy. It is when you accuse others of what you are doing tenfold. It pretty much sums up the Deep State lame stream news, the democratic party and a host of others. This is happening with the present administration; the mainstream news is the mouthpiece and the weaponized agencies are enforcing their foundationless projections.

As an observer, if I were to make every bad decision possible with the goal of taking down America I would fit right into the present administration. In order to fit in perfectly I would have to blame those bad decisions on the opposing parties. The democratic party and some rhinos are lockstep with the NWO agenda following, get this, operation lockstep and other agendas clearly spelled out with one goal and that is to take down America and enslave the world. Why? Because America loves freedom and America is armed, everything America stands for is opposite the world they wish to create. I believe Hilary publicly said we need to keep them stupid poor and sick as most other global elites. God forbid the deplorables rise up and figure out who is behind their suffering.

Every genocidal tyrant's first move is to disarm the people, censor free speech, keep them sick, poor and controllable. They install their puppets throughout governments and their agencies then make it look as if it is the will of the people spinning and twisting the truth to a level of complete hypocrisy. Social engineering is so thick those who are not critical thinking and research impaired no longer have a voice. Divide and conquer is their motes-operandi along with demoralization and destroying the basic family unit and values. They divide against each other the religions, the cultures, the genders one team against the other with a winner and loser. It is their program and ancient one at that. We have not evolved very far beyond the gladiators.

This social engineering program is replete throughout mainstream media, social media, Hollywood, the music industry and now almost every religion and agency on the planet. When you look behind the curtain you will see a Satanic/Luciferian influence, drugs, sex and child trafficking, horrible things done to children beyond most decent person's ability to comprehend. This will all be made known along with the participants and perpetrators of these events. That ungodly infrastructure is coming to an end.

A massive cleanup operation is now in full swing. It has been going on for years, everything is documented yet now it is going time. You are going to see what you were told was the enemy were actually white hats. What you were told were the white hats are in truth the enemy of a free humanity. Just as the Department of Justice is now the Just Us department along with the FBI doing the bidding of the deep state and their political puppets almost all other agencies have broken their oaths and mandates. This too is coming to an end and they will be held accountable. If you are okay with the Trump Mar-a-lago raid, the raids on other conservatives, the raids on prolife ministers, and now parents demonized as enemies of the state who want a voice in how their children are raised, you really need to move to another country. This includes those in jail for January 6th a psyop operation orchestrated by the FBI, do the research. You know someone who is from one of those socialistic countries everyone is fleeing from to come to America? Might want to ask them why the left and if it is a good idea to allow the same type of government to take over America before you buy the animal farm.

This may sound very unspiritual and PC incorrect which is another censorship and enslavement game yet when I see these people emotionally distraught, raging, crying when the NWO agenda is thwarted I see a very unstable, uneducated, socially engineered person willingly and some in ignorance participating in their own enslavement and eventual demise. Do you really think you are special when it comes to their 80 to 90% population reduction program? Do you think because you did their bidding you are going to get a free get out of genocide card? It is hard to see a human made in the same image and likeness of God, endowed with the DNA of the Gods act like victims totally ignorant of the mechanics of the world in which they live. It is even sadder to watch their DNA altered by the jab. It is hard to watch them participate in their own, their friends and families demise then turn on those trying to educate and protect them. Turning on their own friends and family members.

Has Earth become Hell's half acre? Look around at the poverty, the crime, the moral depravity, the senseless pain, suffering and death. Is there something wrong with the leadership globally and what is behind it. The sex, drug, child trafficking, ritual sacrifice, crimes carried out at the highest levels. How can this happen in an advanced society run by people of noble virtue and strong moral fiber? It can't.

What happens when you see beyond the veils, see a plan unfolding that can only be described as demonic, draconian, and lawless at least? What happens when you buck the system, speak up and reveal their plans? You have the full might of the NWO, global elite, their lame stream press, their corrupted agencies and the socially engineered lame stream and social media brainwashed masses rise up against you.

Your character will be assassinated, your life in a sick society ruined, and if you find the courage and moral fiber to stand on your convictions you and your family may very well be assassinated like many before you. Look up Arkancide, the Clinton Body Count, why the Kennedys and other purveyors of truth were eliminated. How about all the cutting-edge doctors and scientists bringing new healing and energy technologies, those exposing the big pharma genocide who have been character or physically assassinated. This rabbit hole goes deeper than anyone can imagine.

Many in the truth movement, conspiracy movement, UFO movement, spiritual and religious movements, places where one is misled to believe they will hear the truth, it is replete with shills, agents, planned opposition, honey pots and Manchurian candidates. Most are controlled narratives and those who follow the narrative are greatly rewarded. They will rise very rapidly and do very well financially, all they had to do was sell their souls. Like the late Art Bell said, "What is it with the UFO community, they eat their young." All of this is by design. The only way out is to develop your own inner sensitivity, spiritual discernment, go to the heart and feel. Do not participate in all the dramas, do not take sides. Nothing is as it seems on this level. What is natural is demonized yet those that demonize are often demonizing their own true nature. Just when you think you have seen it all new plans are made, traps are set, some very elaborate by unseen entities and those who willingly or in ignorance do their bidding. Just remember the lie travels the world several times in today's society before the truth has time to tie its shoes. Never forget who controls the network, "for now". All will be revealed. It is destiny and inevitable. There is a greater power and network pushing in, just be sure you're on the right side of the fence.

Concerning the UFO community, we will leave you with one thing to ponder. Why has forty years of documented contact at ECETI, www.eceti.org and ECETI Stargate Official You Tube with several hundred thousand viewers of UFO clips, thousands of eyewitnesses, pictures, videos and testimony been literally ignored and censored by the UFO community, the major TV and film documentaries, now the major conferences? Why is contact with Spiritually and Technologically Advanced Off Worlders taboo. Why have those promoting dark sinister stories or those keeping it in the past getting top billing rising to the top? The answer is obvious. It is a, "Controlled Narrative". Stop paying for and perpetuating the lie. The Spiritually and Technologically Advanced Off Worlders are waiting. They are the ones that can help us take a quantum leap in evolution. They have the med beds, quantum healing technologies, fuel less energy, anti/counter gravity, replicators and they have conquered poverty and disease. This leads us to exactly why they are censored and who is controlling the narrative. Connect the dots. The enslavers, the war and disease profiteers and those who due to greed and lack of moral character do their bidding. That is why we don't have contact with the masses. Few have risen to the occasion and few have refused to sell out. Those with an open mind, loving heart and pure intentions have and are being contacted. Very few will be found in the UFO community which seems to love its drama and division games.

Be well,

By James Gilliland
