Jared Rand's Notes 11/16/2022 Conference Call (Expectations High, but disappointment for many Patriots. There was very good news, too!!)

- ) The Big-Announcement is the return of "President Trump filed and will run in the 2024 Presidential race! This is for the New Republic, the 19th President of the Republic.
- ) It is going to get a "Lot Worst" says Trump in the speech!
- ) Jared says, the "White Hats" are acting, even though they appear not to be. The "fake Corporation" that is old corrupt government, will not come back. They have NO money.
- ) Trump stated in the speech, 10 million immigrants have flooded since fake Biden has been in the fake office. This will NOT thin our ranks or bankrupt America. The American people have been "put through the ropes", we have been hardened. For the behind the scenes war has been taken place. He stated the things that are "Bad" happening in America.
- ) Will we have to wait two years for NESARA/GESARA or the R/V? NO, the R/V is NOT that far off, as is NESARA. The R/V activations has NOTHING to do with what Trump is doing. We are going to get a gold backed currencies. Jared says it “Closer than you Think”.

-) The Big Question: How are the American People going to last two more years, if the “White Hats” do not act? As a country! Many people have landed on hard-times. There is a flip side!! Why does species survive? Going through tough times, we learn and survive. The Deep State are causing these issues because “It is created by these Deep State Rats!

-) Trump was stating to “Help Each Other” to work together to get through this dark time. Just a few months.

-) Some Good New that Trump related in his 11/15/2022 speech:

a) Fake Biden ended up MISSING, did NOT show up to the G-20 meeting, that Biden is gone & NOT to come back!!

b) Nancy Pelosi has lost her power of Speaker of the House, and will NOT return too. They “fired her!” MANY OF THE PEOPLE moving forward will just end up missing. She is probably death, even the clone. Most say she was executed years ago at GITMO.

c) Kamala Harris will be next. Ending up missing.

-) There were coded messages too: One was the Trump Announcement to run again was “666 days” of the Fake Biden administration has been the President of the corporation.

-) That there were 19 Flags behind President Trump, meaning he is the 19th President of the “The Republic of the United States”.

-) NO World War III will happen!! Even though the Ukrainians fired a missile into Poland and killed two American advisers. They used this excuse in Vietnam too. Will NOT create a war.

-) There is a much “Higher Power” that is overseeing this Transition of the Planet. Much higher than Trump, the White Hats and all of them on the planet!

-) We are going through a “rough spots” in the next few months, but America will survive and the other side is the “New Earth”.

-) Trump stated in the speech, that “America is being hit from All Sides”, the example he used was the Fentanyl flooding into America.

-) America is one of the Last Three Deep State havens. The other two is Switzerland, Israel, and the Ukraine are almost over. The Khazarian Mafia.

-) Overseas, other countries are NOT accepting the Federal Reserve Dollar. Food trucking is the lowest it has ever been. The low amount of Diesel Fuel being low talk has STOPPED. We have about 340 oil refining plants in America. The reason Diesel fuel is so high, so the public will feel “the pain” of the higher prices of food.

-) Crypto-Currencies are failing, and more will fall. One big one has failed and will be the truth and example for most of them.

-) Kari Lake lost in Arizona race for the senate, the Deep State cheated.

-) Are we going to have “disruptions in America”, this is to AWAKE.

-) We are NOT going to lose America!! Do not worry, stress or fear!

-) Some the Doctors who arranged and implemented the Vaccines have been on trial, convicted and executed.

-) The Vaccine “Cure” announcement worldwide is getting very Close to happening!!

-) There will be a “failed attempt” to do “The Great Reset” from the illuminati fading powers with a digital currency reset called the CDBC (central bank digital currency).

The Telosians: A Split Will Occur in Humanity Excerpt:

“So, in the coming months, attempts by the world government to degrade you will be put in place. But while they may shake you up a bit for the moment, know that it will not last long, for if it goes too far, we will apply our “backlash” method as you say.

Dear children of the Earth, dear brothers and sisters, know that you can continue your life on Earth in confidence, resilience and serenity. We ask you once again, not to listen to the media information that repeats the same things over and over again throughout the day so that your mind becomes imbued with fear information. This is all manipulation by your governments of whatever country. Do not let yourself be impressed by this; we thank you.

Dear children of the Earth, continue to live in the joy of your heart.”

Is This New Beginnings or Is It the End? Excerpts:

“The ‘shadowy darkness,’ that has been controlling this world for many years, is being revealed for everyone to see. The lies and deceptions are on show. Their evil has risen to the surface and is now exposed. There is no hiding from it and no flushing it away.

But just because the truth of our reality is being revealed, on a massive scale, it doesn’t mean people will instantly wake up to it. In fact, some are clearly going deeper into denial. Which is only to be expected. Discovering that your whole reality has been built on lies is not easy to face or deal with.

Those who remain in ‘slumber,’ however, are not the only ones struggling...

There are many ‘awake and aware’ people who wish they were still asleep to the truth of our world. Because, let’s face it, ‘knowing’ has not made this journey any easier.”

“We are our own superpower.

This isn’t just about endings; it is about new beginnings. Where we are going, no one knows for sure. But trust in your own power. You are not alone. We are all in this together!”

Tunia: Let’s Free Earth Excerpt:

“At some point, we will have to stop treating Earthlings as children and actually start disclosing truth to Earthlings in a way that average Earthlings can’t look away from, such as via your mainstream media. Yes, maybe it is indeed smart to not literally dump every single piece of information out there all at once, but let’s at least start with disclosing things in a way that actually reaches average Earthlings. The longer you wait, the bigger the gap will be between the awake and the asleep, and the tougher this waking-up process is going to be.

If we ever want Earthlings to be one people again, we will have to start disclosing things to the people who are currently sleeping.

Some people claim that the white hats or counterforces had no choice, and that the current path was the only one option. So basically, the argument is: yes, the people are suffering, but this was the only way.

We Pleiadians disagree.

The Telosians: A Split Will Occur in Humanity

Posted on 11/15/2022

We are happy to see you again, dear children of the Earth. On this day we are going to speak to you again about what may happen in the near future. We have already spoken to you about what the world government wants you to experience in order to have a greater hold on you. Imagine that they are preparing a way to scare you, very scary, by telling you about possible nuclear war, possible huge inflations that would deprive you of money or even prevent you from having the money to buy your food and pay your bills.

All of this “gossip” from world government sources is just to “push” you further and further into fear. We will tell you this again: DO NOT give in to fear, this is very important because by not worrying about what those who want to manipulate you are telling you, you will make them give in.

Indeed: as far as a nuclear war is concerned, it cannot be done. Why not? Because they themselves fear the fallout of nuclear destruction. Do not doubt that those who make up this world government are humans and non-humans who are themselves in fear. Fear of what? Fear of losing their power over you, over the Earth, fear that they can no longer afford to rule the billions of you. Yes, these humans are currently in fear, in great fear.

But you will say to yourselves: “It is quite different from us! They have the money they need to live; they don’t have this concern.

Yes, we are going to tell you, they have the money that gives them the impression of being in great power, but in reality, it is a tiny power because, as we have already told you in previous messages, we have the capacity to ruin their bank accounts if they were to go too far in their desire to “mistreat” humanity.

Indeed, what are a few numbers on a bank account? It is entirely possible for us to erase all that and make sure that they cannot find those numbers again, neither on their accounts nor elsewhere. That is their biggest fear. That is why they are trying to bring you to your knees so that you cannot live properly. But have faith. Even though there may be delicate events on your planet, they will not go through with it, for we will see to it that most of humanity is protected.

We have spoken to you about the New Earth, the one that is coming to you and that you will experience at the end of this turbulent transition. Of course, it is not going to be easy for you in the times to come, and at some point, there will be a split in humanity on earth. Indeed, a part of humans will have modified their consciousness and will have understood what True Life is. This part of the human race, at present, works for the best for humans and for the whole of the Earth, i.e. for all the kingdoms that live on it.

However, on the other hand, there will be those humans who will not want to leave what they think is their current comfort, i.e. their way of life, to bend to the decisions of their governments, to be afraid of the future etc. ....

The split between humans will be inevitable, as you well understand. It is not the whole of humanity that will change its consciousness as to the understanding of the True Life. But that is how it is. Each soul that has incarnated on Earth has decided before incarnation to live such and such a thing for its own evolution but also, and this is important, to help humanity progress in a certain way.

It is by confronting difficulties that you can overcome your fears, your anxieties, etc. It is thanks to the others in front of you that you progress in the understanding of True Life. You know, you are each other's mirrors. This is how humanity can progress in understanding what others can bring to it.

So, in the coming months, attempts by the world government to degrade you will be put in place. But while they may shake you up a bit for the moment, know that it will not last long, for if it goes too far, we will apply our "backlash" method as you say.

Dear children of the Earth, dear brothers and sisters, know that you can continue your life on Earth in confidence, resilience and serenity. We ask you once again, not to listen to the media information that repeats the same things over and over again throughout the day so that your mind becomes imbued with fear information. This is all manipulation by your governments of whatever country. Do not let yourself be impressed by this; we thank you.

Dear children of the Earth, continue to live in the joy of your heart. Bring to your friends, to your families all the Love of your heart, also give to the Earth all your thanks of Love for the beauty it offers you but also for what it allows you to live by sheltering you, by nourishing you.

We accompany you with great Love, do not doubt it.

Archangel Michael: Be Proud of Yourself and Your Unique Footsteps

I am Michael and I love you!

There are days when you think, where are Michael? Where are the angels? Have they dropped me? Left me? Do they think I am not good enough and chooses someone else?

You are taught that you are a lightworker, an obedient love worker from the heavens, and that is exactly what you are!

And no, we have not chosen someone else, that you might think is better than you. Never!

We could NEVER do that! And why?

You are not replaceable! No one else can do exactly what you can do!

No one else has your ability, your personal knowing, your uniqueness.

You are not cloning of each other.

You seem to forget this time after time. No one else can do what you came to earth to do. No one.

Your own life. This is where it starts. No one else have lived your life. So, no one else are the master of YOUR life, but you!

When you are born into a lifetime on Earth you embody a matrix of circumstances. You inherit a body, with different biological imprints. You have to master your body, and all the feelings that come with that.

You have to master your life; you have to understand what you go through in every step of the way. And this is what you become your own master of. And no one else can do this.

When you decide in heaven that you want to go to live on Earth and learn and also as the lightworker you are to do your work as a love connector and love spreader you take on a gigantic task.

First you have to handle the very life, and the family that you have chosen to be born into, often to bring light and love into it.

Then you have to mature. And realize that you are indeed a Light and love worker. So, you have to go through all your fears, and your traumas first, in order to be able to work outside of yourself.

You have to pull yourself up by your own shoulders while you are lying down, it is a hard task as I said.

But you know this, you have done this before. You have lived many lives on Earth. And faith is the sign of you. You have the greatest faith. Otherwise, you could not pull yourself up on your own, time after time.

And it is in the good faith that you believe in. The faith that always works together with hope and love, and also with gratitude, goodness and joy. You actually embody these energies.

You are unique! No one has walked the same steps as you have. And no one else can be the master that you are.

We, the angels, can never give another lightworker your work to do. That is impossible.

All the miseries, all the negatives, all the discomfort, all the traumas that you have walked into, and been consumed by and then finally worked yourself through and out on the other side, this is what your mastery lies within. This is the material that you can help other souls with.

If you are a doctor, you have to be sick first, and then get well to know what you are dealing with.

If you are a lawyer, you have to have a personal experience with injustice first, to be able to understand the very need of a lawyer.

Do you understand me? You can never help anyone, if you don't have a personal experience of the matter. That is impossible.

You sometimes value a grade from a University, but by reading in books will take you where? Reading in a book gives you a hint of things, but you can never get the full picture.

By going to Real Earth-University, learning by living, it is the ultimate place to study. Never look down on yourself if you have gone to the school of life, your life, it is not less than any diplomas or grades or education of any university.

Ask your doctor “-have you ever been sick yourself?” Ask your lawyer; have you ever encountered injustice? ASK!

Ask them, everyone you meet, ask them questions to learn more about the one you choose to trust.

Do you trust grades, a diploma, or a fancy education? Or do you trust your gut feeling, your heart feeling and a personal connection and a personal experience?

Who do you trust? Ask and make them talk about themselves and their personal experience. The grades they want to show you does not mean so much. Anyone can read a book, and study for a test and get good grades?

Ask so you can feel their hearts ambition. And then it is up to you to make a choice. Do you want to visit a doctor that has never been ill? Never been sick for one single day? Can this doctor be empathic enough? Can this doctor relate to you?

If you go to a healer, they must understand how it is for you, a healers first task is always to heal themselves. A true healer needs to know about being opposite to being healed – first. Otherwise...how can they heal if they don't know anything about it?

Personal experience dear is all I talk about today, and it is vital, very important.

And the same goes for all occupations. Ask. To ask a question means that you are interested. That you care. But many “professionals” hide behind a “proper” schooling, the “right kind” of university, the “perfect grades”, the “best diploma”?

You must learn to see straight through and into people's hearts, what hides behind all the diplomas and degrees?

You must absolutely learn to not look down on yourself anymore!

You have indeed walked on Earth and learned in the school of Life, where there are no diplomas given, nor given any grades, nor a prize.

But God always walks beside you, as well as the embodiment of Gaia and they know all about you!

Please dear be proud of yourself and of your life, and of all of your steps you took whether they were small or big or whatever they were, they were the steps YOU TOOK and all that you have learned is because of them all.

I actually want you to give praise to your feet and love your feet for every step they have taken for you.

In our eyes we see your radiant light, the beautiful colors that indeed is your grades, is your diploma and all the confirmation of your hard work.

Love yourself and be grateful that God knows you to 100 percent and everyone else in heaven can see you for who you truly are, your colors and light and pattern reveals you totally.

You embody this unique light on Earth and you are a precious pillar of love and no one else can do this important transformation work but you, so please believe in yourself and hear me out when I say,

I love you

Michael

Is This New Beginnings or Is It the End?

Posted on 11/17/2022

THE CHANGES

Each month that passes, we are seeing more of our rights and freedoms taken away. Most are either living in fear or are in a state of confusion as to where we are heading. Nothing makes sense anymore.

We are being given so much contradictory information. The mainstream media is pumping out one narrative. The alternative media is giving out another. But whatever side of the fence we sit, in our beliefs, no one seems to know for sure the destination of the collective.

The finish line is moving further and further away. And the fear mongering is like nothing we have ever experienced.

In this post, I noted how important it is for Empaths to stay out of the stirred-up propaganda. However, those who are still ‘deeply asleep’ may benefit from experiencing the intense levels of fear or anger. For one reason, it helps trigger ‘an awakening,’ and for another, they need to become aware of the truth of the world we live in.

DARKNESS REVEALED

The ‘shadowy darkness,’ that has been controlling this world for many years, is being revealed for everyone to see. The lies and deceptions are on show. Their evil has risen to the surface and is now exposed. There is no hiding from it and no flushing it away.

But just because the truth of our reality is being revealed, on a massive scale, it doesn’t mean people will instantly wake up to it. In fact, some are clearly going deeper into denial. Which is only to be expected. Discovering that your whole reality has been built on lies is not easy to face or deal with.

Those who remain in ‘slumber,’ however, are not the only ones struggling...

There are many ‘awake and aware’ people who wish they were still asleep to the truth of our world. Because, let’s face it, ‘knowing’ has not made this journey any easier. If anything, in recent times, it has caused more troubles, especially when no one wants to hear your truth, when your words fall on deaf ears, or if you are ridiculed for your ideas and opinions.

But those who are ‘asleep,’ or unaware, will become the newly awakened, and they will, in time, need your guidance. They just don’t know it yet.

CONFUSING TIMES

During these confusing times, we are all looking for a little light to be shone on our path. We want to know what is really happening and where we are heading.

There seems to be no one holding the answers. The positive predictions, from those who are gifted, are either not coming to fruition or are not offering the support needed. This, I also believe, is for a reason...

If you are a long-time awakened, you will find those you listened to, to find solace, might not be offering you the comfort they once did. You might feel more alone and isolated than ever, and are scratching around, looking for someone else to fill the void or to give you answers. If this is the case, it is unlikely you will find anyone.

Why?

Because you have evolved beyond that.

You already have what you need within. You are just not trusting yourself and your own inner-guidance.

Looking to another for verification of your intuition is beneficial (I know many Empaths come here to my blog as a back-up to what they already feel inside.), but constantly looking outside yourself for answers will probably cause more confusion. It's called having 'too much information.'

That said, our intuition may appear to be playing games with us. Telling us one thing one week and another the next. I've certainly been having this experience. Because everything is in flux, truths can shift. What I mean by this is, and as bonkers as it may sound, what is true one day might not be true the next. (The Mandela Effect is an example.)

The old world has gone forever; and that includes how we operate within our reality. We have to be adaptive to variations and fluctuations in our perceptions. Everything is changing and nothing is set in stone.

TRUST THE PROCESS

We have to ride this one out. This really is a time for faith. Trust the process.

Many of the uncomfortable things that are occurring are not only part of a shifting world, but they are also a trigger for the un-awakened to wake up. A chance for them to see the truth.

Even those of us who are awakened will have disturbing truths revealed. However, the longer we have been 'on the path,' the less impact these shocks will have.

TAKE CONTROL

Now is the time to take control of what we can. It's a time to control not only where our attention goes, but also our reactions.

We shouldn't allow ourselves to be dragged into unnecessary fear mongering, nor should we pin our hopes on someone or something to save us.

We need to remember our light and supremacy; really remember it. Feel the power within. Know that what we have been witnessing is an illusion of the highest order.

Fear is what has controlled humans for many years. And recently, this fear and confusion has been amped up to record levels to keep us from living within our own supremacy.

Sitting within the energy of confusion and despair, just keeps us trapped. It blocks prosperity, abundance, and any of the 'good stuff' from unfolding in our reality.

NEW BEGINNINGS

The world outside might appear to be crazy, and going from bad to worse, but that doesn't mean we have to join in with the madness.

We are our own superpower.

This isn't just about endings; it is about new beginnings. Where we are going, no one knows for sure. But trust in your own power. You are not alone. We are all in this together!

Hope this helps during these uncertain times.

Until next time.

Diane

Tunia: Let's Free Earth

Posted on 11/14/2022

My dearest brothers and sisters,
This is Tunia speaking. I love you so very much. Earthlings have been in my thoughts a lot lately.

Steps are being made towards your liberation. However, a part of that is that hidden darkness comes to the light. This both leads to disturbing information being spread on your alternative media, as well as a general feeling of unease spreading among mankind. This process leads to healing, but it is challenging in the short term.

After all, if there was some old pain buried in your subconscious, then healing it often involves becoming aware of it and perceiving it. This is beneficial, but also tough in the short term.

Plus, the dark controllers on your world, those who still try to rule the world from behind the scenes, are playing their last cards. This, too, leads to scary news items and a feeling of unease. They will not be allowed to start world war three, but that doesn't mean they won't try, or that they won't come close.

You can think of this period as a time of healing and processing of darkness. It is very scary and tough right now, but it is going to lead to a better future. Alternatively, you can think of this time as giving birth to a baby, which is a painful process on your world, but the beautiful baby – a better world – is coming. It will be worth it.

That said, it is also absolutely true that people are dying, people are becoming depressed, people are turning to drugs and alcohol, people are losing loved ones and people are feeling very, very alone. I know that the current situation on your world is awful and I wish that it were better.

You are incredibly brave and strong. If you have the space to improve your life or help others, amazing. However, even if all you can do right now is just hang on and get through the day, that is enough for now from my perspective. Many beings would not even be able to do survive right now on Earth. Better times are coming.

From the perspective of myself and many other Pleiadians, this period has dragged on for far too long already and has been far too painful and lonely. Furthermore, it is completely unfair that the more awake people on your world – such as the people tuning into these messages – are often considered to be insane and treated poorly.

We think that it is our responsibility to do all the parts of Earth's liberations that average Earthlings can't reasonably do, such as addressing problems posed by hostile Galactics and demons. However, we still think that it is the responsibility of Earthlings to address the problems that they reasonably can solve – such as arresting known Earthling criminals who seek to control humanity. There's more than enough proof of their crimes.

I am calling on Earthling police, military and secret service people to step up the process of arresting known criminals, providing disclosure and paving the way for a free humanity. I know that you are already taking steps in this direction, but from the Pleiadian perspective, it is time to step up these efforts. Yes, I know that it is tough, but most of you have sworn an oath, and every day innocent children are suffering. You can put an end to the suffering of innocent children.

The longer this current drawn-out limbo period goes on, the more that previously awakened and previously motivated people tap out, become disillusioned, give up or even die. Furthermore, the longer this process goes on, the less that the awake population will trust the white hats or counterforces. And when all is revealed, it will be tough for the white hats or counterforces to defend the slowness with which they acted if this process goes on for much longer.

At some point, we will have to stop treating Earthlings as children and actually start disclosing truth to Earthlings in a way that average Earthlings can't look away from, such as via your mainstream media. Yes, maybe it is indeed smart to not literally dump every single piece of information out there all at once, but let's at least start with disclosing things in a way that actually reaches average Earthlings. The longer you wait, the bigger the gap will be between the awake and the asleep, and the tougher this waking-up process is going to be.

Some people claim that the white hats or counterforces had no choice, and that the current path was the only one option. So basically, the argument is: yes, the people are suffering, but this was the only way.

We Pleadians disagree. For example, one alternative path would have been for the counterforces to take over the mainstream media in early 2020 and broadcasting the following message: “there are benevolent extraterrestrials who wish to gift us a covid cure, free energy, advanced healthcare and a machine that can just create anything you want, like replicators from Star Trek. Let us hold a national vote, country-by-country, on whether we allow these Galactics to send us these blueprints, for free, to very many people so that the technology can't be hidden away. Then once we verify that these technologies work, let us hold a second vote on whether we want to allow these Galactics to actually land and meet us face-to-face.”

This is one alternative path that could have been taken. In fact, this idea can still be implemented right now. Without the consent of the population it is hard for us to justify landing. However, if such a national vote is held, then we would be very happy to share our technology with any country in which a majority votes “yes.”

I am offering a formal invitation to Earth leaders to hold such a vote in your countries.

We are willing to give you enough material and evidence and a video where we introduce ourselves, so that you can convince your citizens that we are indeed real and are indeed willing to share our technology with you. We are willing to work with you to address any concerns you may have.

You Earthlings are our brothers and sisters. Of course, you deserve to live in material abundance and good health, just like us. Would you deny that to your brothers and sisters? Yes, Earthlings used to not yet be ready for these technologies, but now you finally are. Your consciousness has matured enough for them.

So, we disagree with the notion that the current path chosen by the counterforces was the only way.

From our point of view, the Earthling counterforces are a bit too attached to maintaining current power structures and a bit too attached to maintaining systems as they currently are. To be blunt, many of these counterforces may not want Earthlings to be controlled by hostile Galactics and demons, but they are rich or powerful and they would like to keep being richer or more powerful than average citizens.

That said, it is also true that many people in the counterforces are nevertheless working very hard and sacrificing a lot, to help their brother and sister Earthlings. So, we also do not wish to be too critical of them. They are helping to free Earthlings, just in a slower and more roundabout way than we would prefer.

Still, innocent children are suffering every single day. So: Earthling leaders, we would like to invite you to hold these national votes. To the police and military: we would like to remind you that many of you have sworn an oath to protect the people or the constitution. Both are being violated. So: remember your oath.

To be clear, nothing can change the fact that your medium-term future is incredibly bright. The worst-case scenario is that this current birth-giving period will take longer and be more painful than is necessary, and that the context of the birth will be less happy than it could be. But humanity will live in freedom and abundance and peace and love. Nothing can stop that.

I love you so very dearly. I am very much looking forward to the day when we will finally be able to physically meet Earthlings.
