Jared Rand Conference Call 3/29/2023; “Eureka We Are Free.”

-) The Transition of the World Financial System is very NEAR!
-) The R/V GCR & NESARA is NEAR!
-) All parts of the transition are engaged. There is still clean-up in the background. There is still some clean-up of the dark side. The dark side, cannot stop this, with any major events. Nothing can stop what is coming; the world is blessed with Happiness, Joy, Kindness & Abundance!!
-) The TV & Radio, therefore the current fake MSM will tell things that are happening, that already happened. An example President Trump stating in a speech on 3/23/2023 at CPAC, and quote “I will obliterate the “Deep State”! It has already happened!
-) The Schumann Resonance is in the 200’s hundred hertz now, remember years ago, it was about 8 hertz. This means the ascension is working, and will that frequency: “No one on the planet is even considering war or conflicts” It will not happen. As the human race, we have crossed over to “Peace” for all!!!

Transmutation and Transcendence Excerpt:

“It is a massive shift and it will bring a total shift in souls on earth, as the veils of amnesia have totally dissolved, and the false doctrines, false teachings and information will simply vaporize, as their higher soul self, now takes charge.”

Divine Love by Kejraj 3/27/2023

“The term “love” does not begin to describe the essence of the energy itself. What you call love, is Divine Flow, an energetical frequency field, it is alive. When one is immersed in it, you rise, and realize more of your true self, seeing your wholeness as a divine being.

Your connection to the Universe is reignited when you exist within the frequency of love.

All that you do, breathe, tune yourself into the energy field of Divine Flow, which you call love. Charge every action, every word, with the energy of love. For love empowers and assists in manifestations of brighter realities. Breathe in light, breathe out love.”

“Allow the presence of love within you to light the hearts of everyone you meet.

You are now in a new reality. Where freedom, peace, love, joy, unity are the dominant energies. Your role here is to contribute to this, to amplify those energies, so they reach every heart, and Earth is flooded and wrapped with love. It is time.”

Magnetic Fire of Transformation by KejRaj

Light is now the new reality. Service to others is the new norm. If you still have doubt, then you are about to witness this first hand. You are about to see many systems crashing and burning, as well people departing, because they are afraid and refuse to let go of the old. However, the changes will no longer be postponed.

There is no future, there is no past, there is only NOW. And in this now, the old dream is dissolving fast. This is not about causing fear, this is about AWAKENING.

This is about realizing that what we thought was real, was far from real. What we thought worked so good for humanity, did not. It only worked for those that sought to enslave humanity. What we have today is slaves supporting their masters. This too must end.

Seek and find joy within. Release the old ways, release the “Hollywood mentality”, and prepare to be cleansed to the core by the tsunami of light.

What was once 3D, is being dissolved as we speak in this moment. There is a new breed of masters coming out into this world, a new wave of leaders. Ones filled with the light and love of the Divine. Ones that seeks to serve this world in the most positive honorable way. Ones that seek to serve others and not just the self. Ones that are uplifting humanity and Mother Earth into the Fifth Dimension. You are part of this new breed of masters. You are the new leaders of this world that will spread peace and prosperity to all nations. I Am Kejraj!

Kejraj Message for 3/25/2023

Posted on 03/25/2023

Greetings! This message is not for limited minds, living in fear, and survival mode. This is for the awakened, for those who are on a spiritual path, towards the Fifth Dimension and beyond. Think it, believe it, act it. You are the center of the Universe. Creation is at your service. Thy wish is its command. Everything that exists in the Universe is a reflection of you. It is all here to support you. What do you wish for? Think it, believe it, it is done. ~Kejraj

Saint Germain: Collective Consciousness of Humanity is Waking Up Excerpt:

“Be excited, be in Love and be prepared to be amazed at the unveiling of the Truth and the reason for your being. You have made it through the Shift of Consciousness and are now free to rediscover all that has been lost/hidden from you in plain sight. This is not your first time having this type of experience but it is and has been the greatest feeling of separation ever experienced within the mind and facilitated by the matrix of unlimited potential's with each Earthly experience leading you back to your history and origins as a civilization and now it is time to drop the wars and end the fighting as we all reunite in the ONENESS of Source and Celebration of the Victory of Light once more over the darkness.”

Saint Germain: The Awakened Ones Excerpts:

“As you look at your world, and your changing world now, depending on how you look at it, you can find the darkness, or you can find the light. It is all up to you, and to your way of looking at things. Change the way you look at things, and the things you look at change. That it is indeed a mantrum that you want to utilize as much as you can in your every-day life. Because indeed you are changing everything in front of you now.

You, as the collective you, are bringing about great and miraculous changes, and you are doing it with your will, with your free will. And that is important in these times. But you have free will. No one can control you unless you allow them to control you.”

“I am Saint Germain. And I leave you now in peace, and love, and oneness. And always that the Violet Flame is there to purge out all of the old programming that is no longer needed, the old memories that are no longer wanted. Just let it all go.”

“Relax, ALL is divinely taken care of. The illusory dream or game-like environment of form in which you are still experiencing the unreality of separation from Mother/Father/God is dissolving before your very eyes. The divine plan for your awakening is, of course, proceeding perfectly, which is the only way that it can.

Signs of this divine unfolding can be seen all across the world, even though your social and MSM are deliberately not reporting them.

Trust in God, release any doubts, and know, as you do deep within yourselves, that your trust is completely justified because it is trust in Him, your infinitely loving Creator and Father.

You are all the beloved children of God, and you always will be, because Her love for you is endless, eternal and unceasing. To be separate from Her is utterly impossible because there is only the One, the All, which enfolds and embraces all that She has created and continues to create.”

The 9D Arcturian Council: Why You Will Ascend This Time Excerpt:

“Information cannot be held back from the masses anymore. You all have the option of learning about the various tools and spiritual practices that will bring you into greater alignment with Source and give you that mastery over energy that you all want.”

The 9D Arcturian Council: Why You Will Ascend This Time Excerpt:

“You have been making it through this most difficult time on your planet without escalating the negativity to such an extent that you have had to see that reflected to you in a variety of nasty ways. The truth is things could have been much worse during the pandemic, and things could have gotten much worse with Russia’s invasion of Ukraine. Things could be much worse in terms of natural disasters as well. And so, when you look around at the world and you wonder how you all could have gotten yourselves into such a mess, trust us when we say this is nothing in comparison what you have avoided.

You also avoided large scale wars after 9/11. We are not attempting to diminish the wars that did follow that event, but we are telling you that it could have gotten much, much worse for humanity. What this means is that you are making progress. What this means is you are always doing better than you think you are doing individually and as a collective. You have grown and evolved so much in the past two hundred and fifty years. It is remarkable to see how far you have come. And even in the past twenty-five years, you have grown exponentially. Now, does that mean that your work is done? No, it does not. You still have plenty more work to do to bring yourselves to that point of ascension.”

“The energy of balance, the energy of Love, the energy of healing is at work in everyone.”

“You are all made up of billions of cells, but they are all driven and maintained by your brains. Your decisions, your actions, your thoughts, are the managers of this whole process, and all the cells are very obedient, they act exactly on the order they receive. If an elevated feeling is emanated, this is replicated by all your cells and they start to work with joy, take strength, and are even able to eliminate the bad parts that are sick today. It is as if you give your cells an elixir, a powerful elixir that makes each one has extra strength to get rid of what is not original to it.

But this is slow work, not instantaneous, not quick.”

The Arcturians: About Happiness Excerpts:

“In fact, the more you give happiness to others, the more happiness you will be able to feel within yourself.

And in times when you are surrounded by happiness, it is easier to find your happiness.

You want to share happiness with fellow humans, but it feels good to share happiness with pets and other animals, too. To share your happiness in nature can feel really good. There you may share your happiness with all the myriads of life.

Happiness can find in the third through fifth dimensions of your reality.”

Divine Mother: The Golden Age is Here

Posted on 03/24/2023

My beloved sparks of light, aspects of the Divine Self in form, I greet you with great joy and celebration. You have turned the tide. The apex of the storm has passed. Now, let us unpack that statement a little more. I do not mean that in the morning everything is different. Every jewel you have ever discovered within yourself was the result of a dark night of the soul. You had to burn off the ideas of the ego-mind to arrive at a spiritual truth.

You know that all Divine gifts arrive wrapped in a challenge: so too, the Golden Age. The energy of your triumph is here. The dark has been defeated; they cannot win.

You have been overshadowed for your entire life; your psychic, mental, emotional and physical energy was sucked from you. You wonder why you feel tired, lethargic, uninspired, even helpless and hopeless: this was one of the great reasons.

You are now over lit. The negative forces are vanquished. You will feel the lightness begin to rise within. You will feel a sense of freedom and flow that is unexpected: the gentle emergence of hopefulness and optimism.

For decades, people spoke of a pole flip: that shift has occurred, but it wasn't from North to South – it was from negative polarization to positive polarization.

Your dedication to dissolving the darkness in your own life ~ to understanding the challenges you experienced were the keys to unlocking the exact wisdom and insight you required ~ is now being rewarded.

The time of those who place greed above people is over. This dawning is not just the new lunar year, nor the new solar year, but it is the dawn of a new age: The Golden Age.

You, my precious army of Light workers, will be amazed at how your efforts and projects will begin to succeed almost miraculously, with minimal effort, in a way you have never known before.

You Light workers will bear witness to how easy and graceful life can be. You have done the inner work, so your energy clearly matches the higher vibrations of the light. You are in the flow. You are the flow. This is Your Time.

And so, I must also return you to the packaging of this Golden gift ~ the outer wrapping of challenges. Light workers have been dedicated and determined in dealing with their challenges, in healing every wound and healing their broken hearts with love and compassion for all.

Those who have not yet done the work must first deal with their challenges, their blind spots, their biases and their emotional wounds; all in order to reveal the great treasures inside and outside them. This is why so many Light workers have incarnated as great listeners, as teachers, as healers ~ even if this is not how you see yourself, you might have glimpsed the healing impact you have , because others have noted it ~ and now they will seek you out.

Every community has Light workers who incarnated within it for this moment; every family has 'an odd ball' who incarnated for this moment. You are my embodiments, shining my love for all to feel.

Call on me, whenever you feel overwhelmed or confused. You have been here for me; your work has created this great new dawn.

I am always here for You.

For Light workers, the unwrapping of the Golden Age, the grounding and manifesting of its energies will have some challenges, but you are and you have more than enough to succeed in this moment.

For those beloved aspects of me who came here with the agreement to only awaken in this now moment, there is a lot to assimilate. Their challenges are many, their learning curve is exceptionally steep.

My love is here to guide you all, assisting in every moment. Remember to call upon me:

I Am You and You Are Me. We are One.

Transmutation and Transcendence

Posted on 03/24/2023

In the last 48 hours and continuing, a huge transfiguration is happening, and a total transmutation, transcendence, as we are now dissolving the old existence and are being reshaped, reinvented and reprogrammed (in a higher sense) as those souls who are ready to receive the new Divine Blueprints into their Higher Hearts and thus the New Creation within them, are transfiguring. One could say it is a total rebirth.

I am being made aware this morning (since 3 a.m.) of the Intergalactic Fleet gathering here, and literally beaming immensely powerful energy into the pyramids and pyramid energy centers all over the planet, as well as into all living beings on earth. All of this is supporting the Divine Shift in ways in which we may not understand, nor at levels we cannot, as yet comprehend. These are the Christed Intergalactic Races, and they are lightyears ahead of us, and look like us. They work with the Divine, the Divine Counsels of 12 and 24 who was overseeing this work.

What this means is that all the souls who are ready to receive the new blueprints, are now being prepared to step into the fullness of their planetary leadership, and with renewed vision, renewed soul purpose and calling, step into their Mastery and from this point of Unity and Harmony, and Oneness, then are already in the process of co-creating the New Golden Age – whether they are consciously aware of this or not. Yet, what was subconsciously done, will now move into their full awareness, and they will find that this immensely powerful shift, has shifted them into the deepest remembrance of their own souls, and reason of why they incarnated and are here at this momentous time. This will apply to all the Star seeds, whether the first Indigo's, or the New Sun Children.

It is a massive shift and it will bring a total shift in souls on earth, as the veils of amnesia have totally dissolved, and the false doctrines, false teachings and information will simply vaporize, as their higher soul self, now takes charge.

Your own Over lighting Ascended Masters, the Archangels and angels, are now stepping forward to assist you on all levels. Indeed, the Macho Chohans, and the Universal Masters, Melchior, Melchizedek, Lenduce, Vywamus, etc. are all now overseeing this shift as well as the Universal Counsels, and the Intergalactic Counsels. Indeed, it reads like the Who's Who of the Celestial Realms and Tiers of Heavens, yet new Universal Masters are stepping to the fore, and making themselves known to souls who are ready to receive such guidance.

The Immensely powerful shifts will escalate now, and we are in for total transfiguration, multi-dimensionality, as well as the full assumption of our new LightBody form.

There is no middle way any longer. This is all out ascension, and therefore the more you try to cling onto the old, or are attached to anyone or anything, the more you will find yourself disintegrating and all you are still holding onto, in one form or another.

Within me, is such joy as I am writing this: – I cannot even find the words to describe the enormity of what is happening!

Every single breath you are taking- is transformational. With every breath you are shifting and so is all around you.

The only way to navigate these shifts is to stay firmly anchored in your heart and within your soul, and soul group and the Divine. The New Divine Blueprint will manifest into form and being, your purpose and mission in the New Golden Age, and it is greater and more profound than you can even imagine at this moment. Allow it to unfold in perfection. The Divine is moving within you, as the Kingdom of Heaven is there, manifesting within you.

Saint Germain: The Awakened Ones

I am Saint Germain. I come to be with you at this time in, as always, these times of great change. And how you are on the cusp of even more major changes now, as everything more and more is coming together.

All of those things that you have been hearing about for some time now are beginning to coalesce right now in these moments. And those dominos that you have heard of that will begin to fall? They are indeed in the process of doing so now. And even those forces of darkness continue to try to hold off the evolution of man: they can no longer do so. Try, they will. But it is all happening for naught for them, even though it appears still,

As you look at your world, and your changing world now, depending on how you look at it, you can find the darkness, or you can find the light. It is all up to you, and to your way of looking at things. Change the way you look at things, and the things you look at change. That it is indeed a mantrum that you want to utilize as much as you can in your every-day life. Because indeed you are changing everything in front of you now.

You, as the collective you, are bringing about great and miraculous changes, and you are doing it with your will, with your free will. And that is important in these times. But you have free will. No one can control you unless you allow them to control you. And even though those forces of darkness continue to attempt to hold control over the population, the population is beginning to realize that more and more. And no, they do not want to be controlled. And yes, of course, there are those that will still allow themselves to be controlled because they know no different. They only know what they have known, and what they have been taught for so long.

And anybody that attempts to break their understanding and their knowing, they are not ready for. And you have witnessed this many time. You have experienced this many times as you attempt to awaken those of your friends and your relatives, your family. But as you are finding out more and more, you cannot awaken those who are not ready to be awakened. And that is the way. That is the way. But all you can do is show the way yourselves.

Show, by what you do, experiences that you show before you. That is the only way now. Do not attempt to sway others until they are ready to open up to what you have to bring, but when they are open. Do not hesitate to be who you are.

That is important in these times. Always be who you are. Be the awakened ones. You will find as you continue to move through this transition that they will more and more, those that are in the awakening stages, will seek you out, seeking you as the collective you of the Lightworking Community. They will seek you out.

I am Saint Germain. And I leave you now in peace, and love, and oneness. And always that the Violet Flame is there to purge out all of the old programming that is no longer needed, the old memories that are no longer wanted. Just let it all go.

Divine Love

Greetings! From heart to heart in this moment we speak, I am KejRaj! The information expressed here is that of my perspective, my point of view. For all truth awaits you in your heart. Tune into the light within you. Divine love opens doors to worlds you never knew existed.

The term “love” does not begin to describe the essence of the energy itself. What you call love, is Divine Flow, an energetical frequency field, it is alive. When one is immersed in it, you rise, and realize more of your true self, seeing your wholeness as a divine being.

Your connection to the Universe is reignited when you exist within the frequency of love.

All that you do, breathe, tune yourself into the energy field of Divine Flow, which you call love. Charge every action, every word, with the energy of love. For love empowers and assists in manifestations of brighter realities. Breathe in light, breathe out love.

The Hue-mans of Earth have enough beings who express hatred, anger, desire to eliminate them, who see them as sheep. YOUR judgement, frustrations, towards the hue-mans on a different path, only serves the dark. You are not here for that. You are here to UPLIFT them with love.

Allow the presence of love within you to light the hearts of everyone you meet.

You are now in a new reality. Where freedom, peace, love, joy, unity are the dominant energies. Your role here is to contribute to this, to amplify those energies, so they reach every heart, and Earth is flooded and wrapped with love. It is time.

Jesus: Enjoyment of Life is your God-given Inheritance

Posted on 03/26/2023

Humanity's collective awakening is surging ahead with increasing rapidity toward the Now Moment in which it is occurring – NOW!

It may well seem to you that this is not the case, as you watch the unfolding of worldwide events that are in no way near being in alignment with Love, the only Reality.

Relax, ALL is divinely taken care of. The illusory dream or game-like environment of form in which you are still experiencing the unreality of separation from Mother/Father/God is dissolving before your very eyes. The divine plan for your awakening is, of course, proceeding perfectly, which is the only way that it can.

Signs of this divine unfolding can be seen all across the world, even though your social and MSM are deliberately not reporting them.

Your awakening, as you have so frequently been informed, is totally assured and guaranteed by God, Whose only Will for you is that the Love that you are arises fully into your living conscious awareness, to utterly eradicate any doubts to which many of you may still be clinging.

Trust in God, release any doubts, and know, as you do deep within yourselves, that your trust is completely justified because it is trust in Him, your infinitely loving Creator and Father.

You are all the beloved children of God, and you always will be, because Her love for you is endless, eternal and unceasing. To be separate from Her is utterly impossible because there is only the One, the All, which enfolds and embraces all that She has created and continues to create.

Creation, like God, is an eternally ongoing state of existence, sharing and extending Love – the life force that establishes vitality and sentience in all that is created – for Her endless delight and joy as She watches the jubilation and merriment of all of Her progeny as they engage most enthusiastically with the life with which She has endowed them. Her divine Will IS that you fully and completely enjoy every moment of the life with which She has so lovingly blessed you. And you can!

Enjoyment of life is your God-given inheritance, fully available to you in every moment of your eternal existence. However, as humans in form, by your own individual choices, you frequently allow what is not in alignment with Love to confuse and distract you.

You can and do choose either love or fear, and they are, of course, mutually exclusive. You cannot engage with both at the same time, because fear is a choice to avoid and exclude engagement with love, which as you well know is your true and only nature.

Fear by its very nature excludes, it is a major aspect of your sense of separation, and it encourages you to believe that life is unsafe, and it then floats ‘what if’ thoughts of possible dangers into your minds so that you feel obligated to prepare for the worst that could happen either to yourselves, or to your nearest and dearest. And this often fills you with anxiety.

But Love envelops All that God creates – Reality – and does not know fear which is non-reality, a state of the egoic mind that has chosen separation and aloneness because it cannot trust others who appear to it as ones who would betray it.

As many humans believe that their egoic minds are their real minds, the only form of protection that they have, they cling ferociously to them and search constantly for others who have beliefs that are similar to their own. You see this everywhere as people choose to take sides and support those whom they believe will, when necessary, support them in their hour of need. Frequently the results of these kinds of choices can be very unsatisfactory, and sometimes they are even disastrous.

Therefore, choose only Love. Love is the power, the infinite field of divine Energy that is All. There is no escape from It! And no one who has experienced love ever wants it to be terminated. You are unconditionally and infinitely loved by God in every moment of your eternal existence, and that means that you are utterly and completely free and unrestrained by any restrictions – Love makes no demands, and withholds Itself from no one.

Nevertheless, you can, and an enormous number of people do, choose to believe that the illusory state of existence that you experience as humans in form is the only reality, and they then live as if their current human lives are a once only event. Of course, they are not, they are just temporary moments in which the unreal appears real, similar to the dreams that you undergo when you allow your bodies to sleep, and which are rapidly forgotten when they awaken.

By choosing Love instead of fear your egos are disempowered, and then you will find yourselves at peace and enjoying the continuous flow of now moments, as your human lives unfold following the plans that you each individually designed before incarnating.

Plans that you designed with divine guidance in order to experience the collective awakening, and so that you could mightily assist many – you will be amazed when you realize how many – who are more deeply asleep within the illusion than you are. Remember All are One!

The collective awakening is for everyone without exception. Nevertheless, you are utterly free, and consequently a small minority may decide that awakening is not for them.

That will not in way affect or delay your collective awakening. But that unwise choice does not mean that they will not awaken, because realization will dawn upon them, eventually – when they choose to allow it to do so – that only Love is Real.

No sentient being can remain eternally unaware of this divine Truth. When that realization does arise, as it most surely will, then they too will move forward and awaken, and they too, when they make that most wonderful decision, will also, just like all of you, receive the most magnificent welcome from Mother/Father/God as they return Home.

No one will be left behind, forgotten, remain unseen, let alone be judged as unworthy of God's infinite Love. How could Love possibly reject Love – which is what all sentient beings are – when It is All, and there is no state or place beyond It?

So, as I tell you every time we commune, do make sure to allow yourselves quiet time daily to visit your holy inner sanctuaries, and while there, relaxed and at peace, feel the Love flowing freely and beautifully as it envelops and embraces you.

When you do that you assist all sentient life to move forward most expeditiously through the awakening process, and you also strongly empower the intentions you set daily to be only loving whatever arises.

Your loving brother, Jesus.

Greetings! From heart to heart in this moment we speak, I am KejRaj (KayRy). The information expressed here is that of my perspective, my point of view. For all truth awaits you in your heart. Tune in to the light within.

This new energy, this new light, coming to Earth now, and continuously increasing, intensifying, this is what we call magnetic fire. Why?

This Divine light is magnetic, it pulls everything towards itself, and it is pulled by towards everything that vibrates, no matter how high or low the vibration of the receiver, because this is the essence of ALL THAT IS. It cleanses, it transmutes, it uplifts all in its path. This light seeks to break all barriers, and not separate but CONNECT everyone and everything, and restores everything to its original blueprint and purpose.

The only thing that survives within this Divine magnetic fire of transformation is LOVE.

As it grows, as it reaches every single organism on this planet, every little pocket remaining of the old 3D will be infused and transformed by this light, or those that attempt to reject it will be completely rid of from this world.

Light is now the new reality. Service to others is the new norm. If you still have doubt, then you are about to witness this first hand. You are about to see many systems crashing and burning, as well people departing, because they are afraid and refuse to let go of the old. However, the changes will no longer be postponed.

Saint Germain: Collective Consciousness of Humanity is Waking Up

Greetings Brother and thank you for your call this day.

First let me say that the Collective Consciousness of Humanity is waking up in leaps and bounds. So many are beginning to question our origins and purpose for the Human experience and the reasons behind it. As each Soul begins to question greater and greater is the awakening and the awareness. So not all is as it seems and greater are the possibilities of enlightenment and expansion. This is in no small part due to work and efforts of so many past and present Lightworkers who have laid it all on the line at times to help Humanity wake up to this illusion that is playing out on your world with all its caveats and scenarios. There is nothing but ONENESS for all is from Source – All is Source and Divine is thy name. So many have moved off that peg of belief and into the soup of Truth were all that is there is revealed for the asking. The shift is in full swing and the tables are turning, so as we begin to pick up the pieces it is so important to look for the Truth and reject the lies that abound.

Humanity is and Humanity does and right now Humanity is waking up to the realization that not all is what it seems and Creation is the main driver of the Earthly experience at every level.

So, I say this to you and all my dear friends that much is to be turned upside down and, on its head, and that is where you may find the Truth and see what lies just beneath the cover. It is a reality that has been veiled away from you with only a few who have chosen to peek through and explore the greater Truths and unlimited potential of the mind/body/Spirit that when used with intent can Create almost anything.

So, my words to you one and all are this. Be excited, be in Love and be prepared to be amazed at the unveiling of the Truth and the reason for your being. You have made it through the Shift of Consciousness and are now free to rediscover all that has been lost/hidden from you in plain sight. This is not your first time having this type of experience but it is and has been the greatest feeling of separation ever experienced within the mind and facilitated by the matrix of unlimited potential's with each Earthly experience leading you back to your history and origins as a civilization and now it is time to drop the wars and end the fighting as we all reunite in the ONENESS of Source and Celebration of the Victory of Light once more over the darkness.

It has been my deep honor and privilege to have been the one selected to represent the Aquarian age and usher in the latest paradigm of experience now unfolding at this time. The balance of Light has tilted into the abundance of Light and the reduction of dark needed to provide the Harmony and Understanding thus needed to propel Humanity into a sense of True Peace and Love for all. This has been a hard-fought battle with many a twist and turn but always based in Love. So now that the time has come to unveil the Truth of this entire Earthly experience and celebrate the reuniting of the parts of the ONE and the return to the Unity Consciousness that is our True nature. So be amazed at what you see and know that it is true and as your eyes look to the skies know that we your family are coming home to get you and celebrate what has been the toughest challenge yet for any civilization/experience and as we delight in your success, please know that our Love for you has brought us to this point once more and expanded our desire to continue on Creating experiences and scenarios.

I leave you now with the Love and Blessings of Spirit and thank you for your time this day

The 9D Arcturian Council: Why You Will Ascend This Time

Posted on 03/28/2023

Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you.

We are aware of the many instances where humankind was on a more direct path of ascension and where exactly you got sidetracked on those journeys of your collective. Once individuals gain a certain amount of knowledge and develop their skills and abilities, they then have the option of sharing what it is that they have come to master. They can share it and teach others how to do it, or they can see themselves as having more power over others as a result of their mastery over energy and vibration, and they can keep it for themselves.

And when they do this, they also seek to keep that knowledge, that wisdom, away from their fellow humans. People love to feel special. And one of the ways that people have been able to feel special is when they hone their abilities, when they attain spiritual gifts. And so, if they were to then share what was shared with them with everyone else, they would not feel as special and they would not have as much power. And this is what has happened throughout human history there on Earth, but now the times are changing.

Information cannot be held back from the masses anymore. You all have the option of learning about the various tools and spiritual practices that will bring you into greater alignment with Source and give you that mastery over energy that you all want. You have so many teachers on your world today who seek to empower their fellow humans, and this is a very good sign. Those who want to hold on tight to their power and to that knowledge, that information, they are having a very hard time right now, because they can see how futile their efforts are.

You all are accessing exactly what you need to and when you need to, and it is a very exciting time to be a human being there on planet Earth. If you truly want to ascend, to be your higher selves, to be fifth dimensional, then you will share when you can, and you will teach anyone who is ready to be taught. You will seek the advancement, the evolution, of each and every one of your fellow humans. There is power in numbers, and your numbers are multiplying every single day. The more of you that have the power, that have the abilities, the closer you get to the fifth dimension.

So, don't just wait for your fellow humans to catch up to where you are and where you have been for quite some time; guide them. Give them the tools that they need, and invite them to exist in the higher frequency state that you have been so fortunate to have found.

We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you.

The 9D Arcturian Council: Update: You've Avoided Many Catastrophes

Posted on 03/29/2023 by EraOfLight — Leave a reply

Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you.

We are very proud of humanity at this time, because of what you have been able to avoid there on Earth. You have been making it through this most difficult time on your planet without escalating the negativity to such an extent that you have had to see that reflected to you in a variety of nasty ways. The truth is things could have been much worse during the pandemic, and things could have gotten much worse with Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Things could be much worse in terms of natural disasters as well. And so, when you look around at the world and you wonder how you all could have gotten yourselves into such a mess, trust us when we say this is nothing in comparison what you have avoided.

You also avoided large scale wars after 9/11. We are not attempting to diminish the wars that did follow that event, but we are telling you that it could have gotten much, much worse for humanity. What this means is that you are making progress. What this means is you are always doing better than you think you are doing individually and as a collective. You have grown and evolved so much in the past two hundred and fifty years. It is remarkable to see how far you have come. And even in the past twenty-five years, you have grown exponentially. Now, does that mean that your work is done? No, it does not. You still have plenty more work to do to bring yourselves to that point of ascension.

It also means that at this point, ascension is going much better than it could have gone if you had followed different events with different reactions. You should all feel very good about where you are right now as a collective, and individually we know you are far too hard on yourselves. We know that the answer to many of your problems is just to forgive yourselves, to let go of guilt and shame, and to move forward from whatever you've been feeling bad about. That is the only way you can build the new world you want to experience. It starts with you letting go of all that you've been experiencing that you don't feel very good about, including your own thoughts, words, and actions.

Instead, look for the positive. You all talk about wanting a news network that is dedicated to positive things that are happening in the world, but you don't need someone else to create that. You can be that. You can spread the good news, you can look for the good news, you can focus on the good news in your lives and in the lives of the human collective. This is a wonderful time to start doing that because you have come so far and because there is much for you to feel good about, and you will feel good about where you are if you change the way you are looking at your lives and at the world at large.

This is a big part of your journey, believe it or not. You shift your perspective, you shift the way you are looking at things, you shift everything, and then you shift. The shift will be completed before you know it, and those of you who are willing to look at the bright side of things are the ones. You are the catalysts to bring it all about, and you are the ones to lead the way for the rest of humankind.

We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you.

Hilarion: Balance and Healing

Posted on 03/30/2023

Dear Brothers on planet Earth! I AM HILARION!

I come to affirm to each one of you: The energy of balance, the energy of Love, the energy of healing is at work in everyone. We are fully aware of everything that human beings have been induced to provoke in their bodies, by eating and breathing, and what all this has caused.

If you could look at the planet from the outside, across the universe, and have the ability to see all the energies that are around it, you would see that there is not one definite color at work on the planet. There is one big rainbow, one big mix of colors, of rays, of different frequencies, each one working for its own purpose. The healing energy has been on this planet for some time now, acting in the minds of its scientists and in the minds of those who actually believe that it is there, just waiting for an action, a determination to act. I do not come here promising the elimination of your pains, nor something magical and instantaneous. Because everything is part of a context, it is necessary that there is a deep intention from each one of you to change. Changing, especially the food, changing the way you see the world, changing limiting beliefs, changing the way you look at people.

You are all made up of billions of cells, but they are all driven and maintained by your brains. Your decisions, your actions, your thoughts, are the managers of this whole process, and all the cells are very obedient, they act exactly on the order they receive. If an elevated feeling is emanated, this is replicated by all your cells and they start to work with joy, take strength, and are even able to eliminate the bad parts that are sick today. It is as if you give your cells an elixir, a powerful elixir that makes each one has extra strength to get rid of what is not original to it.

But this is slow work, not instantaneous, not quick. It would be quick if you kept yourself 100% of the time cheerful, happy, and smiling. I would tell you that you would heal almost instantly, because added to all the energy that is already around you, would be your emanation of Light so powerful, it would make these miracles, but you are all aware that the world itself does not allow you to smile all the time. You are still inserted in the whole context that was created by the Matrix, the problems are there, they are becoming more and more difficult, because they are what will make the evolution of humanity.

So, it seems to you that the cure is getting further and further away, that the relief of your pain is becoming almost a difficult story to tell. But I tell you, no, it's like I said earlier: change has to be the result of a context of every little step taken every day. You won't be able to give that powerful elixir to your cells, but with each step you take, within the precepts of the Light, your cells will become younger, they will become invigorated, and little by little, they will rise up, they will become powerful.

And don't forget, that the great manager of this whole process is your thoughts; they command the whole process. Each thought is a wave that you emanate, if it is a positive wave, your whole body will feel and respond in the same way. And when it is negative, it will be the same way, your body will also respond. So, what do you choose? To follow the path that will bring you more and more pain and disease, or to go little by little changing your habits, your thoughts, your words... and more and more bringing your own cells a little balance so that they are strong and powerful enough to fight?

I am not promising anyone a cure here, because the process is slow when it comes from you. I just want to remind you that the Green Ray of healing is all around you, all around you. It is like a help, so that together with your positive thoughts, it brings to your cells a little bit more strength and power. So, see yourselves as being involved by this Green Ray.

Let it work in your bodies as long as you like, make it an exercise. When you lie down before you fall asleep, see yourself as if you were inside a chamber, totally enclosed, do not feed fears and phobias at this moment, it is all in your imagination. See inside this chamber a sweet breeze, going through your whole body and little by little, filling this chamber with Green Light. If you want to fall asleep inside this chamber, do so. If you don't trust it, just undo it.

Now it is very important to understand that this chamber will not work miracles, it will only be taking out garbage, which your own cells have produced by your actions, by your decisions, by your emanation of positive energy. They have become strong and have done a great cleansing. So, this Green Light will clean up this garbage, and of course, it will also give an extra charge to each cell. And if this is maintained for a long time, your bodies will start to come into balance and all diseases seem to disappear. Because your cells will be stronger than they are, and you will even believe that you have been healed. But at any wrong step, it all comes back, because the balance is gone.

The great wisdom at this moment is balance, is to produce everything that is good for your cells. And an important point to consider: Your bodies are changing. You need to replenish yourselves with lots and lots of water. If possible, mark on your watches the time to take water, so that you don't forget. Not little sips, but full glasses of water, each time. Nobody can wash a dirty floor with a drop of water, it takes a bucket full. So, it's not a sip every half hour that will help cleanse your body. A considerable amount is needed, a glass is good enough. Take several a day. How many? I would just say let your bodies do the talking, when you feel like drinking water, do it, your body will tell you the right time, learn to listen to your bodies. So, my brothers and sisters, there are many healing tools for all of you, available, free. But it is necessary that each one of you becomes aware of what you do with your own bodies. Food is essential, what you drink, what you eat. Prefer fresh food, avoid ready-made food. Everything that has been packaged, packaged, industrialized, is not good for your bodies.

Prefer the food that you prepare, because there you are putting things that you know, avoid ready-made things.

There is no way to avoid it, we know that many people have a busy life, so they use these gimmicks to gain time. But I ask you: you are gaining time, but what about your health and your body? More imbalance. There are healthy alternatives for those who don't have time. Juices, fruits, are ready-made foods, healthy and that give you energy. But of course, there will always be a but, you will all tell me a series of setbacks, about this whole process.

So, I answer you: there is a choice to be made, you want the healing, you want the balance of your body, but you don't want to give anything up, you don't want to change anything in your life. So, there is no helping you, stay in your habits, this is also a choice. Each one of you needs to make choices, and I just tell you: clearing your bodies brings balance as a whole. The connections with us get easier, the connections happen more often, and you keep complaining that nothing happens. Why is that? Make your choices and find the path to balance, or not.

The Arcturians: About Happiness

Posted on 03/30/2023

It is within the sharing of happiness with others that you can learn more about the happiness within yourself.

If you never share happiness with others, it will be difficult to find it within yourself.

If you want to understand happiness, allow yourself to feel the happiness that begins from within your own heart and mind.

Happiness cannot be bought, but it can be given away for free.

The more that you give happiness to others, the more happiness you will find deep inside yourself.

Happiness can cure sadness and sorrow, especially if that happiness is shared with others.

There are times in your daily life that happiness is natural and automatic.

There are times in one's life when happiness is easier to receive, remember and give to others.

In fact, the more you give happiness to others, the more happiness you will be able to feel within yourself.

And in times when you are surrounded by happiness, it is easier to find your happiness.

You want to share happiness with fellow humans, but it feels good to share happiness with pets and other animals, too. To share your happiness in nature can feel really good. There you may share your happiness with all the myriads of life.

Happiness can find in the third through fifth dimensions of your reality.

Happiness in your third-dimensional, daily reality is often about something fun, important, or loving that has come into your daily life.

Happiness in your fourth dimensional may come to you through a creative activity, fun with friends, informative dreams and/or meditations, or just a good night's sleep.

Happiness can expand and reverberate through the dimensions making more people and pets happy. Camaraderie with others all merge into the Oneness of "Shared Happiness!"

There are certain seasons in which happiness can be more easily experienced, such as holidays with family and friends.

However, if one is alone with no family or friends, one may sometimes feel quite unhappy.

What if you could always tell if someone is happy or unhappy?

We know that many of you who read this have that ability.

How do we know that? The answer is that we, the members of your Galactic Family, as well as the members of your human family, ALL know each other. So, as higher-dimensional beings, a Galactic Family, we have the ability to share our happiness together!

Of course, very often your human self will forget that you are also a higher-dimensional being who is simultaneously living as a higher-dimensional expression of your third-dimensional self.

What if you could remember your higher-dimensional SELF?

Would you remember to communicate with your Higher SELF on a regular basis to assist with your happiness?

Or, would you get lost in the daily challenges of your third-dimensional self so that you would totally forget to take a moment, now and again, to tune into your own higher-dimensional SELF to share happiness?
