Kejraj Daily Message for 5/20/2023

Posted on 05/20/2023

The times of extreme changes are upon you. Hold love and compassion in your heart. Let go of all fear. There is no need for it. As it would only make the journey more difficult. All you need is love, compassion, and accepting the change. Find the peace and understanding of this within your heart. ~Kejraj

El Morya: The Game and Your Role Excerpt:

“Your commitment to the light and to the golden future of this humanity is unsurpassed.

Put the doubts aside! Doubts – you are contributing too little to change or the outcome of this game is uncertain, despite all your efforts – must be shed.

Because the victory is yours! The triumph of light and the elevation of mankind to a unity connected in the divine spirit can no longer be stopped.

Pay no more heed to the dire prophecies than will benefit you in interpreting things past and present. The future is being shaped and changed by you every moment, today, here and now.”

Jared’s Conference Call 5/24/2023 “WOW (Mistakenly announced in March)”.

-) The Federal Reserve (Not part of our government) fiat dollar is going to fail soon, says Jared. The reason is 80% of what is traded between countries is another currency, it is not the “so called” reserve fiat currency. The “Brick Countries were formed to debase the dollar, and it is working. Over 120 countries are trading or buying in their own currency for oil and other goods. The illuminati telling the world that they have to trade in dollars for oil is not working anymore. Most of these countries are gold or precious metals back with their own currency; this is why.

-) Many of the Nurses and Doctors were NOT real nurses or Doctors during the fake COVID-19 pandemic.

-) Money will not exist in about 12 years says Jared. This is because of the technology coming, we will NOT need it.

-) The good R/V GCR will happen, no worries mates.

-) Many companies are failing because of greed, pricing things too high, and like Anheuser Bush beer company, trying to give you new polices or backing polices of the Deep State, like the sex change people putting them front line.

-) Man-made Religions (all 55,000 on Earth are man-made too) have destroyed more lives and people than all the wars, combined.

-) What we are looking at is a TOTAL RE-EDUCATION of all people on the planet; on everything, we have been lied to so much.

The Collective: New Earth Vibrational Environment Excerpt:

“The most important of those being the powerful awakening occurring now throughout the Earth, and the New Earth vibrational environment. The energies that all experience daily have spurred on a powerful and unprecedented rise in human consciousness, in addition to Mother Earth’s own awakening and claiming of 5D Earth life.”

“THE COLLECTIVE: Regarding concerns over what you see currently in the media, understand that you have been programmed to judge circumstances by their outer appearance.

And so, as you see destruction, scenes of war, human rights violations, you will, going by the old forms of outer appearance, judge that there is more danger and conflict now, not less.

Yet we assure you, in those times when you sit quietly in your home or in Nature, quiet your thoughts and emotions, and ask to see or feel what is actually happening on the Earth—you will be astounded to see or feel great movement in human evolvment and liberation that are greatly overcoming all opposition. And this will not be because any of us have swooped down to rescue you!

It will be due to the natural out-picturing of your own growing consciousness, and your expectation of Peace, and Abundance for all life. All fed, all safe and healed, all honored and respected. All free. And yes, in the midst of all that, NESARA’s unfolding.

You are assisting in this, in this very moment that you anchor higher Light into the Earth, as you fulfill your Earth mission, friends! You are not a spectator in this grand passion play. You are most assuredly the movers and shakers who are making all happen now, on a grand scale!

No need to wait and wonder, “Who will help us?” Or “What is the old crowd planning next?”

The story is already written by all of you, and it only leads on to greater Joy.

And so, as you read of the desperate machinations of the old order, as they grasp whatever power plays, they can create now to retain their old positions, know that you are still in charge. You are still Creators.

Pull your eyes from the false representations of False Evidence Appearing Real, and hold in your heart-space that definite reassurance that All Is Well. As many enjoy saying now, affirm inwardly about New Earth life, “We’ve already created it!” And so, you have—we daily see the energy building that holds safely and comfortably your Renewal, Rebirth, and Transformation. The stars have spoken, in their turning to the energies of revolution. This time, a revolution from within the high heart. Likewise, all of you have spoken words of new Creation. We celebrate with you!”

The 9D Arcturian Council: Truths to Be Revealed in the Remainder of 2023 Excerpt:

_____*“We are very pleased to offer all of you this progress report. We know that many of you are seekers, and you have been seekers for a very long time. We want you to know that this is a time when more of the truth will be revealed, and through the revelation of so many different truths, you will have a deeper and clearer understanding of who and what you really are. Those of you who are a part of the Awakened Collective know that you are so much more than your physical bodies. You know that you are so much more than this one human lifetime, so much more than your mind and your thoughts. Most individuals do not understand that they are also a part of a larger family. You are a part of a galactic family and a galactic community, and more evidence of that is going to be found as you continue living and evolving in this year of 2023. The more that is uncovered, the more that is revealed, the more that people will begin to speak up and say, ‘Yes, I was aware of this. I know about these truths.’ “*

The Collective: New Earth Vibrational Environment

Posted on 05/20/2023

Greetings, dear ones! We are very pleased to have this time to speak with you today, as always.

Today we answer a question sent in by a Light Bringer who asks: “The World Health Organization (WHO) is made up of ‘unelected’ members, and yet, it is growing in power. “Lately, it has altered its mandate and is poised to become a power greater than our own elected governments. “How can this be allowed to happen, if we have galactic ‘protectors’?”

“This is equivalent to a nuclear explosion in its destructiveness. “I don’t give in to fear, but I am seeing this develop in sneaky ways, and I cannot help but think that we are going to wake up one morning and it will be here, established and ruling. “Is that to be the fate of our world? I thought it was NESARA!”

THE COLLECTIVE: This is an excellent question, and we are glad you have asked it. Many are uncertain or unhappy about what appear to be further movements to restrict group and individual freedoms, free choice, and free will, whether from the organization you name, or other organizations presumed to be in authority.

We will say, that while these developments can appear very concerning, they are nowhere near so far-reaching in scope as those drafting these proposals or “treaties” intend them to be.

They are not taking into account several things which powerfully influence the outcome of this issue. The most important of those being the powerful awakening occurring now throughout the Earth, and the New Earth vibrational environment. The energies that all experience daily have spurred on a powerful and unprecedented rise in human consciousness, in addition to Mother Earth’s own awakening and claiming of 5D Earth life.

Efforts to contain or negate these developments are utterly failing, from the ground up.

The old power structure, with its various methods of social control, mental programming, and A I interferences, feels it is concocting exactly the solution needed to slow or end this extreme acceleration in higher awareness.

They are playing a very old game, yet the rules have changed drastically from the eras in which their plans would have worked well.

Whereas once there were a few in every culture who refused to be taken in by lies and mental training, even when sufficient threats and endangerments were created to induce cooperation—now there are millions.

That small group of “dissenters” who stood up so bravely over the centuries has grown to millions of Light Bringers and Starseed, and their soul families.

These ones stand not so much in opposition to the old tricks and games of the old power structure, but well above them. They call to them vibrationally an entirely new and far higher reality than what the old web-spinners have propounded for thousands of years.

You literally do walk to the beat of an entirely different drum, increasingly hearing only that, and not the many distractions thrown onto the path, and that has made all the difference.

Rather than viewing life and Divinity through the eyes of those sanctioned as power structure representatives, who have spun deceptions to keep the masses entrained to so many mythic constructs, you are choosing to stand on your own, and create your own reality. You have chosen to look to the Light particles offered by your Sun, that beautiful arbiter of fifth dimensional life energies, to see what is actually happening now for your planet, solar system, and galaxy.

In opening to the empowering energies flowing to you via your Sun Sol, you are choosing your own sovereignty over and above all the old Earth structures.

Those structures, based on fast-fading concepts, are small and ineffective compared to the increasing galactic connections and soul presence you all hold.

We understand your concern. Many feel at times, as they read of these dark interests, that perhaps your Star Nations families have somewhat left you behind, leaving you to a dark fate.

We wish to say that “fate” is itself another lie, another false construct.

You are yourselves the determinative points of Light creating the New Earth.

Your star families are assisting as much as they can (and in increasingly visible ways) without usurping your free will, as your current, fast-fading power structure has done for eons.

We are aware that it does appear at times that no one is helping. It may not appear as such, yet Archangel Michael and his Legions of Light are on the ground now, often in physical form, letting Earth-based governments and their corporate adjuncts know their time is highly limited, and that if they wish to avoid severe judgment, they need to cease their operations and come into the Light.

Lord Michael and his high Angelic forces are most assuredly on the ground now, doing all they can to assist humanity, yet always within the Universal directive to not interfere with a society's development except in cases of psychic or nuclear holocaust.

Of course, both of these have been experienced upon the Earth. And so, the interventions have been powerful and dramatic some days, though your “news” sources have been ordered to never report them.

Yet the work is there, nonetheless. The increasing refusal of so many to accept the authoritarian pronouncements handed down to the masses is a beautiful expression of both a growing Earth consciousness and the fading of the old matrix.

What we are most joyful about at this time, is that as we noted earlier, human responses now reach well above anger or resistance.

Releasing duality, they are far more engaged in, “We are building a much better Earth life than this!” The inner sight of many millions now goes beyond the falsely constructed levels of non-life. It insists, via your own creational ability and heart-based desire, that a New Earth is not only possible, but already being birthed.

We use the feminine metaphor of birthing, rather than the masculine metaphor of building, because this is a living, breathing presence you are all assisting in now, and not only a left-brain concept carried out via the wounded masculine.

And as you know, the Divine Feminine is increasingly being expressed in Earth life now, and being felt around the world—in the workplace, in commerce, in medicine, in education. In all sectors of human life, her face shines brightly, without feelings of shock or pain at the fact that some still suffer.

For this too is ending, though of course, for all of you on the ground now, in Earth bodies birthed in 3D, you may feel that the pace is not fast enough. We share here a Message from your Star Nations families: “Family members, we have not forgotten you, any more than you could be forgotten by the whole of the Angelic realms.

“We are hovering ever closer, and landing more often and more visibly than in the past, as you are calling us in, in increasing numbers.

“You may feel isolated at times, yet the old barriers between us are fading so quickly now.

“Ask to see us and speak with us in your dream state, as well as in your meditations, and to remember those conversations. For we are so close—often, in the room with you, though you do not yet see us with your outer eyes.

“We are nevertheless here and can be seen with inner eyes, and felt in the heart-space. “For all our purported technological capability, we too live within the heart-mind, and have vulnerabilities as a result, though they may be different from yours. “Yet you are never forgotten. These supposed dark plans will never dampen the horizon that now appears in such brilliant colors. “You are one of us, and we could never leave you behind. Your many brief forays upon the Earth in physical Earth lives have been adventures you could not be dissuaded from.

“And this is fine—there was an especially hard press, as so many pushed forth to be on the Earth at this time! “We are working with you on many levels, so that your neurological capabilities will permit you to see us more fully, and to take in Light spectrums, colors, and images not visible to you while you lived in the third dimension.

“You are awakening and regaining your galactic capabilities on many levels.

“Do not be afraid of the inner journeys, for that is where all your outer journeys are birthed.

“We are with you; never doubt this. You are one of us, and precious to us in all ways. “Namaste!”

THE COLLECTIVE: Regarding concerns over what you see currently in the media, understand that you have been programmed to judge circumstances by their outer appearance.

And so, as you see destruction, scenes of war, human rights violations, you will, going by the old forms of outer appearance, judge that there is more danger and conflict now, not less.

Yet we assure you, in those times when you sit quietly in your home or in Nature, quiet your thoughts and emotions, and ask to see or feel what is actually happening on the Earth—you will be astounded to see or feel great movement in human evolvment and liberation that are greatly overcoming all opposition. Namaste, dear ones!

In this, as in all things, we are with you, always.

The Telosians: The Intergalactic Confederation of Beings of Light

Posted on 05/25/2023

Dear brothers and sisters of the Earth, we greet you. We are happy to have you back for another message of support and help. We are indeed very close to you, not only by these regular messages that we transmit to several humans who agree to receive them, but we are close to you by our physical presence, if we can say so, in our vessels above you, in your sky.

Of course, we are not yet visible to your earthly eyes as this could create panic among large numbers of humans. However, we are happy to see humans using your internet talking about our presence on many planets. We are happy about this because it will allow humans to understand that Earth is not the only inhabited planet.

We are really a large number of planets inhabited by humanoids, by beings with a body part resembling yours but with totally different heads. There are multitudes of diverse presences in all the planets of the Universe.

We are telling you about this because, when the time is right, and perhaps sooner than you think, we will show ourselves to you and you will be less surprised by our bodies, our differences. In the Intergalactic Confederation of Beings of Light, there are many differences. But, despite these differences, whether physical or differences in language, there is a very important cohesion between us.

We accept these differences because there is a strong bond.... very important between us, which is the Love of the heart. If we accept these differences it is thanks to the Love which connects us, which allows us to look at the other in front of us, not as a bizarre stranger, but as a Being of Divine Light who lives a divine experience on his own planet.

Of course, to arrive at this level of respect between us, to arrive at this level of agreement, of serene consultation, we have evolved considerably since very distant times. Indeed, for the beings of certain planets there were, a very long time ago, based on your terrestrial time, difficulties such as you are currently experiencing. But the humanities of these planets have agreed to live in peace, understanding that violence, lack of respect and judgment only bring discomfort.

By dint of experiencing ill-being, these humanoids have decided, gradually, to experience Love and this is how we were able to join, for most of us, in this Intergalactic Confederation which decided, to mutual agreement, to come to the aid of other planets which greatly needed it, such as the Earth. But the Earth is not the only planet that we help, that we support. We have a lot of work, no doubt about it.

But back to the Earth we help. We help you by our presence around you in your sky. We help you in many ways. This is done by contacting your rulers who are willing to receive us and listen to us, which is not always the case, but some take our messages into account and try to put them into practice. But this is not always easy for some of them because they have to deal with humans for whom personal power and the power of money is stronger than anything and put them “on the road”.

We also help you by trying to clean up the soil of your planet as much as possible. All this is invisible to you because we use particular radiation which sweeps certain parts of the ground of your planet and stops these various pollutions. As you know, we are doing our best to help you, but so that you become aware of the damage you are creating on and in the soil of the Earth, we are only depolluting a fairly large part of your planet.

We also help you, and this has happened several times, during the breakdown of nuclear power plants. If we had not been there to clean up the Earth during the Fukushima and other recent disasters, humanity would be in great destruction and a large number of humans would have disappeared. For this, we have the ability to absorb the fumes from these power plants and to partially clean the places where it happened. However, there are still soils which for many years will no longer be habitable or cultivable. But we prevented the nuclear clouds from spreading all over the Earth and thus protected most of humanity.

We also help you by protecting you from the beings of certain planets who, for lack of Love, wish to make terrestrial humanity a humanity of slaves in their pay.

As you see, we help you, we support you. So, understand that you are not alone, that you are not abandoned, that you are surrounded by Friends, Great Friends of heart and Love that we are.

In some time of your earthly time, you will get to know us more and more. Revelations about us will become more and more precise and we thank you for welcoming them with joy in your heart. We are your galactic Brothers of Light but we are not alone in helping you because Great Beings of very Great Light accompany us and support us in the help that we bring to you.

We accompany you with great Love, you our brothers and sisters of planet Earth. Be at peace of heart. We thank you.

EI Morya: The Game and Your Role

Posted on 05/25/2023

The game and your role in the middle of a fight rejoice, for the day of truth is near!

Loved people,

You are in the midst of a battle, a battle being forced upon you – and you have learned your lessons, for your answers are clear. You stand up for justice courageously and fearlessly, you challenge the truth and you have matured into incorruptible tools of GOD. Refined by the fate of many previous lives, today you can do what you came to do. Your commitment to the light and to the golden future of this humanity is unsurpassed. Put the doubts aside! Doubts – you are contributing too little to change or the outcome of this game is uncertain, despite all your efforts – must be shed.

Because the victory is yours! The triumph of light and the elevation of mankind to a unity connected in the divine spirit can no longer be stopped.

Pay no more heed to the dire prophecies than will benefit you in interpreting things past and present. The future is being shaped and changed by you every moment, today, here and now.

Everything is in motion and only one thing is certain: the bright outcome of this game.

You were given up!

Yes, it's a game, the greatest game ever played in this universe. Will a star that has already been abandoned and a humanity doomed to perish succeed in returning to the luminous planes of creation?

You were abandoned centuries ago and for centuries. When the thick veils of mist settled over the earth and clouded your consciousness, there seemed to be no awakening. Deep in the matter and bereft of any hope, you were abandoned – abandoned by yourself. For it was always up to you how this game ended. It was always you who could take the reins of fate into your own hands. However, you left the leadership to other forces and entanglements were created that had to be unraveled and from which there was no escape. This spiritual and mental derangement of the past times made you remain in the belief in sacrifice without any prospect of salvation.

The act of God's grace

Then the act of God's grace occurs – made possible by the light flooding of the earth, whereby isolated people woke up and became aware of who they are despite the adverse circumstances. At first still hesitant, later clearly perceptible, individual people woke up and they pushed off their preordained fate.

This opened up the opportunity for Heaven to shape the ascension cycle of this Universe WITH Earth.

From this point on, it was no longer about the annihilation of the earth, but about the transformation and healing of all life on earth. This happened in 1987. Since then, Earth and humanity have been deeply intertwined and are on the path of ascension. Nothing and nobody in the universe can stop this. There were and are impairments, interference fields and manipulations to keep you from awakening. I tell you, the people who are meant to wake up will, for the number of people who have walked the path of ascension is awesome!

So, it is happening now that more and more people are being touched by the ascension energy. They turn and change sides – from darkness to light. They turn from evil to good – and they begin to trust the truth instead of serving the lie. Everything is reversed – and this process is now underway.

You are now asked to continue on your path of light and truthfulness. Don't look back! Give those people who don't understand you, smile at you, or fight you only the attention necessary to calm their demons or keep them in check.

your role

Fight with the light of truth and with the sword of discernment! Don't shy away from a confrontation when it's inevitable, but be wise: most fights belong to a time that is no longer relevant to you. Distinguish clearly, recognize what is being played – whether you should play a role, and if so, which one.

Always pay attention to your inner input, to the impulses that reach your heart from your soul and that are passed on from the heart to the brain. Test what needs to be tested and trust GOD.

Embedded in GOD'S MERCY, no harm can and will come to you. Surrounded by an unmanageable number of angels, masters and beings of light, your life on earth will be fulfilled. Protection is great and mighty, as are your orders.

United with GOD, what has to happen now happens.

The stream of life flows out of you into the light and returns to your heart as love. Following this sacred circuit, you are pure divine consciousness – born in man. Remember, remember!

Message from Jeshua: Armor of God

Posted on 05/24/2023

When will everything be alright?

Loved people,

the days go by and you ask yourself: when will everything be good again, when will it be LIGHT and BRIGHT?

Truly I say to you: the day of truth is near! The day when you will see your own truth and understand your own reality is near – very near.

So, I invite you to face everything that is alive with courage and to no longer pay attention to the inanimate – to live with GOD full of confidence and to be a human being through GOD.

Today it's all about not getting lost in the thicket of opinions and diffuse energy fields, it's about staying with yourself. It's about experiencing the remaining days in the old hustle and bustle with clarity and sanity.

The Umbilical Cord of God

This is what you achieve when you stay connected to God's umbilical cord. This connection is given to everyone by birth, but many people forget it throughout their lives. Anyone who lives in this connection is truly blessed, and unaffected by daily events, this person draws his timeless circles.

No one and nothing can throw a person who maintains vital communication with GOD off track.

At this low vibrating level of being, this umbilical cord is the invisible thread to GOD – your only life insurance.

Maintaining this connection with Spirit under all circumstances is what this time is all about – a great learning experience that many people are ready for today. For in the end you will attain mastery of that plane of being. The end of this lesson is when you conquer doubt and can always perceive yourself as a part of something much bigger.

You are alive through connection with GOD, you are holy through union with GOD and you are complete in perfection with GOD.

Keeping this universal truth alive as an inner longing is the main task of a human being. Many meet these requirements, many re-enters the world of entanglements.

What are you looking for?

After a way out of the valley of tears – are you ready for the ascension into the reality of light? Then come and go! Take courage every day and in all matters!

The earth enters the phase of healing. Now humanity is being shaken awake and aware of its purpose. Events are already pointing in this direction and things to come can be read from the present. Everything changes.

Being equipped for this is your main task – and that means WEARING THE ARMOR OF GOD.

In infinite love

CHRIST

The 9D Arcturian Council: Truths to Be Revealed in the Remainder of 2023

Posted on 05/24/2023

Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you.

We are very pleased to offer all of you this progress report. We know that many of you are seekers, and you have been seekers for a very long time. We want you to know that this is a time when more of the truth will be revealed, and through the revelation of so many different truths, you will have a deeper and clearer understanding of who and what you really are. Those of you who are a part of the Awakened Collective know that you are so much more than your physical bodies. You know that you are so much more than this one human lifetime, so much more than your mind and your thoughts.

Most individuals do not understand that they are also a part of a larger family. You are a part of a galactic family and a galactic community, and more evidence of that is going to be found as you continue living and evolving in this year of 2023. The more that is uncovered, the more that is revealed, the more that people will begin to speak up and say, ‘Yes, I was aware of this. I know about these truths.' And when you can as a society change your concept of self, you can see the flowering of consciousness that would occur very naturally after more truths are revealed. Humanity has a long and storied history of interacting with extra-terrestrials, and in fact you would not even be there in the form that you are without the help of e.t.s.

There is a missing link even in Darwinian theory, and that missing link is e.t. intervention. Now, you have already uncovered the bones of giants there on Earth, and that has gotten very little attention, very little fanfare. But the more that is revealed, the more that is uncovered, the more undeniable the truth becomes of your history. And as you awaken to that knowing of who you really are as galactic beings, it then becomes easier for you all to accept the most important truth of all, which is that you are Source Energy Beings. When you go beyond the idea of yourselves as lowly humans who are just having a singular earthly lifetime, it becomes possible then for the mind to expand into that knowing that we are all One, and the One we all are is Source.

You have demonstrated in the past several months a readiness for more of these findings to occur, and so they will. And as they do, you will have exponential growth. You will see more evidence of the mass awakenings of which we have spoken, and you will be more prepared for full and open e.t. contact there on Earth with all people in all countries, all across the planet. You have, of course, had contact before in ancient civilizations, and there is continued contact for those who have been ready to receive it, but it has been more personal, and what we are talking about is more global, because you need those changes to occur within the consciousness of the human before you can see them in the physical realm of planet Earth.

And that's where you are headed, what you have demonstrated you are ready for, and what is to be revealed to you will not be so earth-shattering for those of you are a part of the Awakened Collective, but you will start to see more people around you showing their acceptance of these truths, and that will help all of you to feel more settled in while you go through this next phase of your evolution of consciousness.

We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you.
