Matthew Ward Message: Progress of the Light, Universe's Beginnings Excerpts:

"That intensity of light is the reason conflict and chaos are occurring around the globe—it is part and parcel of a world being freed from the grasp of darkness. Light's high vibrations are clashing with and overwhelming the low vibrations, thereby bringing a long, long era of darkness to its close.

Dear ones, we know you want clear, irrefutable evidence. You want to know when G/NESARA will be announced; the new global economic system will be implemented; the illegal Biden administration will be removed; and the Federal Reserve System, whose tentacles reach all countries, will be abolished. Citizens who are rebelling against their corrupt governments want to know when they will have leaders with wisdom and integrity, and all of you want to know when the many truths still hidden will come forth.

We wish we could say more than "on the near horizon," but we don't know exactly when those vital developments will occur. What we can do is assure you the Divine Plan is smack on target and extraterrestrial family members are part of the liberating forces of light that some call "White Hats."

And, let us remind you of the light's progress in just the last two years or so. The Illuminati's efforts to start WWIII failed; so, have all their attempts to demolish strategic cities with nuclear warheads on missiles. Their covid-19 virus did not kill billions of the populace and trying to achieve that goal via vaccinations is not working either. Their hold on major media is cracking. In several countries their bioweaponry laboratories and storage facilities and centers for sex trafficking, pedophilia, satanic rituals, adrenochrome production, money laundering and cyber warfare have been demolished. Many of the individuals at the top of their diabolical pyramid have been removed.

The Illuminati's stronghold is their illegally and immorally amassed fortunes, and the light forces are working to separate them from their funds so that money can be used to end mass impoverishment. If you think helping in an undertaking of that scope is beyond your ability, let us tell you, it is not—it is right up your alley, so to say. Your light that has been helping the peoples awaken has been undergirding every effort to vanquish darkness from Earth.

“Upcoming solar flares—the energy surges that raise vibrations—will offer slumbering individuals more opportunities to awaken. You, too, dear ones, will reap benefits, and the light you radiate will continue to uplift our family on Earth.”

Quan Yin: Supernova Excerpts:

“My question is, Is this speeding along our Ascension, and the freeing of our planet from dark forces?”

“COR: We seem to be skating so close to that edge, considering what the old power structure has planned and is trying so hard to implement now.

QUAN YIN: They will not be successful. All of you know that deep down.

You are simply vulnerable to their propaganda, having been trained (and entrained) to believe what you are told by media outlets and those in “authority,” which is not the correct term for them.

COR: No. Most of them are so lost.

QUAN YIN: As you know that, then you are well and strong enough to shrug off the influence of their pronouncements regarding “What is coming next.”

What is coming next, and what is already in motion, is the liberation of an entire planet and all Her beings.”

Jared’s Conference Call 6/7/2023” (We Are All One)” Notes.

-) The “Old Structure is destroying itself. Like the Central Banks.
-) There are some “Trojan Horse” people to like Florida Governor DE Santo’s.
-) We have a Civilization that has NO outside influence Now!! (No bad Aliens or illuminati)
-) The Wildfires are Natural, and coming from the molten lava with the Mother Earth changes into 5D. They are NOT caused by the dark ones.
-) The “Programming of the Civilization” was lies of 90% of things, to condition us into FEAR!! Do NOT fear, all will be well!
-) There are military forces on and above the planet Earth that is not from here, our star brothers and sisters are going to liberate this Planet!!
-) Jared says, the people of Earth have NOT unified to have Earth liberated yet.
-) We will have human Extinction if we do not do something about it. The illuminati have cause sperm issues in men and sterilized many women, with vaccines and poison food, & water. ONLY the “Celestial Chamber” will be able to NOT cause extinction in 15 to 30 years. Japan has clearly crossed over the threshold.
-) The dark ones are going to try to start a New Virus, this one is 40% more lethal, and of course, they have a vaccine for it too, already made up. But the White Hats will head off this one. All that stated, we Have NOT crossed over worldwide to extinction.

-) It will be our responsibility to have babies in a loving environment in “New Earth”.
-) Dates of major happenings have been given out, but NEVER come true yet!
-) In Ukraine, 750,000 men have died, really for NOTHING. War and conflict are not the answer; ever!! New Earth will be PEACE!!!!
-) There are going to be many “False Profits” of the future in the coming months and years, be careful of these “Ego Maniac’s” or Deep State plants.
-) The Dark Side Destroyed about 50% of our food manufacturing, but we have much stored that we can use in the D.U.M.B’s the illuminati stored underground.

Message from Hannelore: Other Spheres Excerpts:

H: From my perspective – looking forward to what is to come because there is no need for fear or worry. Now it shows who has done their homework – and many, very many people will remember and erase the abysmal in sublimity.

JJK: ... and not afraid of “judging”.

H: Be relaxed when confronted with deeply human emotions. Don’t be ashamed when feelings of anger or hatred come over you.

With what is emerging on earth now, it is impossible to always radiate the serenity of a yogi who never leaves his meditation cushion.

You are in conflict, struggles are being forced upon you, and you are faced with situations that most entities in the universe cannot even imagine. The Army of Reconciliation

The ascension into the higher dimension is now taking place.

“Therefore, everything is brought to the surface. The lie is defeated with the truth and the light penetrates the darkness. The first paralyzed, then angry, and finally peaceful people form the Army of Reconciliation.

People who have spent decades preparing spiritually and energetically for the cascade of planetary disclosures now unleashed are moving forward. You keep the overview and your nerves – stand in the light and remain in peace. One thing is certain: We will emerge safely from this storm; we are guided by our light and are accompanied by GOD.

As a farewell for today: take care of yourself! Love each other for being who you are now.

Live by your intuition, live by your conscience!

Matthew Ward Message: Progress of the Light, Universe's Beginnings

Posted on 06/04/2023

With loving greetings from all souls at this station, this is Matthew. When weaker civilizations fell prey to the darkness, they were captive within its low vibrations. Warring, ignorance, poverty and fear, which are bereft of light, is how dark ones-controlled populations, and that is what befell Earth's peoples.

When a dearth of light put the planet's very life at risk about 90 years ago, Gaia asked for help. Out of love for her and her residents, highly evolved civilizations infused the planet with light and souls started leaving their advanced worlds to incarnate on Earth to add their light.

That intensity of light is the reason conflict and chaos are occurring around the globe—it is part and parcel of a world being freed from the grasp of darkness. Light's high vibrations are clashing with and overwhelming the low vibrations, thereby bringing a long, long era of darkness to its close.

Dear ones, we know you want clear, irrefutable evidence. You want to know when G/NESARA will be announced; the new global economic system will be implemented; the illegal Biden administration will be removed; and the Federal Reserve System, whose tentacles reach all countries, will be abolished. Citizens who are rebelling against their corrupt governments want to know when they will have leaders with wisdom and integrity, and all of you want to know when the many truths still hidden will come forth.

We wish we could say more than “on the near horizon,” but we don’t know exactly when those vital developments will occur. What we can do is assure you the Divine Plan is smack on target and extraterrestrial family members are part of the liberating forces of light that some call “White Hats.”

And, let us remind you of the light’s progress in just the last two years or so. The Illuminati’s efforts to start WWIII failed; so, have all their attempts to demolish strategic cities with nuclear warheads on missiles. Their covid-19 virus did not kill billions of the populace and trying to achieve that goal via vaccinations is not working either. Their hold on major media is cracking. In several countries their bioweaponry laboratories and storage facilities and centers for sex trafficking, pedophilia, satanic rituals, adrenochrome production, money laundering and cyber warfare have been demolished. Many of the individuals at the top of their diabolical pyramid have been removed.

The Illuminati’s stronghold is their illegally and immorally amassed fortunes, and the light forces are working to separate them from their funds so that money can be used to end mass impoverishment. If you think helping in an undertaking of that scope is beyond your ability, let us tell you, it is not—it is right up your alley, so to say. Your light that has been helping the peoples awaken has been undergirding every effort to vanquish darkness from Earth.

We know it is hard for you to think of yourselves as the powerhouses you are, and this is understandable. You get sick, moody, disillusioned, angry, impatient and exhausted. Some of your efforts fall short and you make decisions that in retrospect you realize were poor. You don't always have satisfying jobs or enough income or fair treatment, and some days are just plain miserable.

That is part of life in a third density world, and before you volunteered to go to Earth—and you did that with fervor—you knew that is what you would experience. You also knew you would surmount whatever obstacles you encountered because those feelings and circumstances are not who you are. You are eternal beings of love-light, and your energy's high vibrations have been creating betterment on the planet during all the years you have been there. Simply by BEing, you are that powerful, that influential!

“Probably souls at your station know some scientists don't believe the ‘Big Bang’ happened. If it didn't, how was the universe created? Also, how were souls created? How did good and evil begin?” First let us say, always Big Bang has been a misnomer—the Beginning was completely silent as Creator/Source/Creation expressed Itself as light. Creator, the Ultimate Being and Supreme Ruler of the cosmos; Source, from whence everything in existence comes; Creation, Its action and “products,” immortal souls. For simplicity of speaking, we say only Creator, and It as designation for I AM, Totality, Oneness of All is with utmost reverence and respect.

While light may be thought of visual, or science, and love as a sensation, or spirit, light and love—or science and spirit—are one and the same energy, and it is the most powerful force in the cosmos. This energy is Creator's infinite, eternal omniscience, omnipotence and omnipresence as pure love-light.

At a time, unknown, Creator created the first souls, whom you call the archangels, and they had proportionally the mind and power of Creator. That didn't diminish It one iota—the archangels were Creator experiencing Itself. At some point It endowed them with the capability to co-create—they could use Its energy to make whatever they could think of. First, they made a lower realm of angels, then gods and goddesses. Those souls, which also had proportionally the mind and power of Creator via the archangels, added to Its experiencing and to their co-creators'.

After the archangels made materials for forms so each soul could choose to have a body or remain pure spirit, Creator selected a god of pure spirit to co-create whatever he desired and rule over this universe and chose other gods or goddesses to do the same in six other universes. Our god made myriad souls, all of whom had proportionally his mind and power. As his experiencing selves, they did not diminish his entirety in any way at all—he is an amalgamation of all souls, in physical bodies or in spirit, in this universe.

Some of them helped him make galaxies with billions of astral bodies, and all souls could choose to incarnate within or upon those bodies or be free spirits. The energy of love-light—good, or godly—was the total essence of everything that was manifested throughout this universe.

It was reptilians, mutated descendants of Luciferian energy, who brought evil here. By agreement of our god and the ruler of the universe where reptilians originated, a portal was briefly opened so some of them could enter ours. At that time in antiquity they were the most intelligent species in the cosmos, and the agreement was intended to benefit both universes.

By reproducing themselves as well as procreating with souls who lived here, the incoming reptilians would genetically impart their superior intelligence while absorbing this universe's love-light energy. When they returned to their universe, they would spread this energy's high vibrations throughout their civilizations, and their progeny in this universe would genetically endow successive generations with superior intelligence.

The win-win situation the two universal rulers anticipated did not happen.

Some of the reptilians who came did become beings of love-light as they passed on their genes, but they did not go back home. Neither did those who refused the light. They also proliferated and all of them have caused havoc ever since the first ones came eons ago. They initiated warring and rendered dormant ten of twelve DNA strands in civilizations they conquered, making them susceptible to falling into darkness.

Now then, Gaia is the soul that embodied as the planet she called Terra—somewhere along the line Earth became its name. Gaia, God and Sol, your solar system's sun, manifested pristine verdant lands; crystal clear seas; magnificent trees, flowers and other plants; and the mineral kingdom. She gave animal design ideas to residents of Jupiter, where similar conditions existed, to manifest and transport to Terra.

When everything was ready, Gaia asked some souls in highly evolved human civilizations if they would like to live in a marvelous new world, and at the speed of thought, they arrived. Others came later, by spaceships, astral travel or incarnation. The people, animals, plants and minerals knew their Beginnings in Creator's infinite love-light and their eternal connection with each other and the ruler of this universe. All life forms communicated telepathically and flourished as a harmonious symbiotic Oneness.

Darkness, or evil, came into that paradise when people with only two strands of active DNA settled there. As time passed, their brutal behavior amassed so much negativity that it almost extinguished Terra's light. To save her planetary body, Gaia released the negativity in a series of earthquakes that lasted several decades. One quake of a magnitude sufficient to release that amount of negativity would have exploded the planet into countless fragments instead of preserving its life.

Terra's land mass broke into several extensive regions, large and medium-sized islands and many thousands of small ones; new coastlines had peninsulas, bays, cliffs and beaches. Terra's gently rolling terrain became rugged mountain ranges, volcanoes, canyons and deserts. The placid sparkling seas turned into oceans with strong currents, lakes, rivers and streams; and the sea bed's flat terrain became similar to the new surface formations. No longer was the climate pleasant—massive areas of ice developed in polar extremes, mountains were covered with snowpack, and intolerable heat built up around the equator.

After millennia passed and the planet was habitable, a new civilization began. But darkness reentered and committing atrocities once again became the nature of the people. This time Gaia released the accumulated negativity abruptly, with an ice age, and after its drastic effects subsided, the repopulating process started over. Since then civilizations have risen and fallen, including those in Atlantis and Lemuria.

The purity of love-light that permeated young Terra and her first inhabitants never has been repeated. However, indigenous peoples know they and all other life forms on Earth are connected with each other and the ruler of this universe. To prevent their knowledge from spreading, dark forces inspired explorers from European nations to kill most of the natives in the lands they claimed for their respective royal families; later, colonists continued the genocide. However, tribal survivors passed on their knowledge to descendants, who generation after generation preserved it, and the light within that truth helped Earth survive in deep third density until the infusion of light enabled her to start ascending.

Now souls around the world are standing strong against oppression and all other injustices spawned by darkness. Despite, or perhaps because of turmoil, destruction and grief, there is more goodness, kindness and compassion than ever before in the planet's recorded history. In this respect, beloved sisters and brothers, you have done your part magnificently.

You can inspire, but you cannot push anyone toward the spiritual and conscious awareness that puts them on the personal ascension pathway—that is each soul's choice. It is a joy for us to behold those who are firmly on the pathway, and that many others are starting to trust their intuition is greatly encouraging. Upcoming solar flares—the energy surges that raise vibrations—will offer slumbering individuals more opportunities to awaken. You, too, dear ones, will reap benefits, and the light you radiate will continue to uplift our family on Earth.

All light beings in this universe honor you for steadfastness in your mission and support you with the power of unconditional love.

LOVE and PEACE

Quan Yin: Supernova

Posted on 06/10/2023

Greetings, friends! We are very pleased to have this moment to speak with you again today. Today our writer speaks with Ascended Master Quan Yin, known to many as the goddess of mercy, kindness, and compassion.

COR: Greetings, Lady Master!

QUAN YIN: Greetings, dear one!

COR: I come to you today with a question and a request.

The question has to do with how most Light Bringers / Starseed are feeling great shifts and disruption now, as so many powerful energies hit us at once, and not only from the powerful solar flares happening.

The White Knights of the Ashtar Command and other sources have reported that a star exploded and went supernova in the Pinwheel galaxy.

Its Light is now reaching us here on Earth, after traveling 87 million Light years.

Celia Fenn has noted in her blog that supernovas “give off waves of light and information that hold all the records or information about that dying star.

“It is a major information transfer from that star to the records and libraries of the Cosmos.”

She notes that that sensitive people may be feeling this huge download of information to such a degree that we just feel overloaded:

“We may feel overwhelmed and unable to ‘keep up,’ because on the higher levels there is so much information flooding our record-keeping systems.

“We may also feel the ‘emotions’ of the dying star as sadness, feelings of wanting to let go as well as feelings of joy as the light goes out into the Cosmos.”

Clearly, this supernova is yet another reason why we have been experiencing so many powerful intakes of Light over the past few weeks!

Celia calls this experience “witnessing the death and rebirth process in a member of our Celestial Family. The process of the Phoenix: Dying to Live eternally in another form, and gifting us with its wisdom and knowledge.”

So along with powerful solar activity, the intensity of the current energies has only increased with this supernova, plus other portals opening and planetary alignments.

The Full Moon energies of June 3rd were so freeing and positive.

But now I and so many others just feel to be in turmoil at times. It’s stirred up something from deep within us.

My question is, Is this speeding along our Ascension, and the freeing of our planet from dark forces?

And my request is, would you and all other Ascended Masters please assist us in integrating all of this?

And help us call on our higher selves for direction, to not go into Overload?

We would be most grateful, Lady Master!

Amidst all these shifts, I've been asking some days (not for the first time in my life), "Why does life has to be so hard?"

QUAN YIN: We are aware of what you speak of.

I and all of your friends in the Collective, and all the soul groups I work with now to assist in the Ascension process, are all powerfully involved in all you speak of, dear one.

You and many others may indeed feel isolated some days, as you seek to balance all of the incoming energies and the messages they hold.

Some of these are new forms of information, and some are so ancient as to be timeless.

Yet all of these coded messages speak powerfully to the DNA and to the etheric body, as well as to the connection the physical body has to the soul and higher self.

MS Fenn is correct in saying that the star has had its own life, and that the final expression of that life, and the dissemination of that history throughout the universal records, will affect all who receive the star's remaining Light.

You may indeed feel both sadness and Joy some days, a lightness that is interrupted by moments of grief or unsureness, as if things were even more tenuous on Earth than you had thought.

And yet—they are also more Light-filled!

A great conundrum that so many are experiencing now.

Even the many who are on the ships, gathered round the planet, are feeling the extremes in emotional and metabolic temperature, one might say.

And the very great shifts that accompany awakenings that shift not only one planet or group of beings, but the Universe at large.

COR: This to me feels as if it would be overwhelming for most.

QUAN YIN: It can be quite overwhelming for many, yes.

Yet there are moments of reprieve and calm that can restore one far more quickly than you might expect.

There are also new inroads to inner understanding (inner-standing!) regarding what it is that one came here to experience, to heal, to begin, and to finish.

COR: There is so much from our past lives that is coming up now. It is just astounding.

Because I offer channelings sessions to people, I see so many powerful examples of old contracts and agreements, old oaths and vows, old curses or trauma rising to the surface to be released, once and for all.

It is staggering, what humanity is experiencing now.

And so, Lady Master, is how do we navigate all of this without feeling entirely bereft of support some days?

In the midst of great change, so much is “shaken loose,” you might say.

Like many, I have found nearly everything shifting now.

We may feel that how we dress, what we eat, how much sleep we need, how much water we need to drink, what information we take in during the day and how it affects us—all of this is shifting.

I think even my breathing is changing.

All of this may be positive, but can still rattle us at times!

QUAN YIN: Yes, of course. It would not be an Ascension if it were otherwise.

One could say, that these shifts you refer to are a powerful form of detoxification from the density and yes, the horrors of the third dimension on this planet.

There are other planets that have experimented with the third dimension, but most (barring parallel Earth realities) have not gone so low and so far into density.

You would have most assuredly destroyed yourselves by now, if that had been allowed. The chaos has been that severe, and that ruthless.

COR: We owe a great deal to the Angelic realms, and to benevolent friends in the galactic realms!

QUAN YIN: Yes, although—they contracted with humanity to ensure that things never went too far, on the current timeline.

And so, they were fulfilling that promise to themselves, to humanity, to Divine Mother.

You had asked about striking a balance between these moments of extreme growth and great “shake-ups.”

Of course, there is the calm that can rest upon one in moments of contemplating the beauty of Nature, meditation, or other quietude.

And we would say, all of these activities—and spending time in quiet is most assuredly positive action, and not an inaction—all of them are there to assist you in remaining as balanced and on keel as possible, as you adjust to returning to your true selves.

COR: Which are intergalactic in nature, and also more etheric than physical—?

QUAN YIN: There is that, yes. And those are of course significant.

Yet we refer to awareness in the waking sense. And also, to the vibration of the inner consciousness, only part of which you are aware of at any one time.

You deepest (and highest) level of consciousness has been hidden from you for so long.

And so, your lives have spun on the tiniest levels of empowerment and inner resources that could be brought forward, while you still had life in the body.

COR: So, we have been subsisting on an incredibly small amount of our greater selves. QUAN YIN: Yes, but now all that is changing.

The subconscious mind is of course alarmed at the changes, as are the body, conscious mind, and emotions.

It feels to be too much to bear at times, particularly physically.

This is why the upgrading of the physical body is so vital now. This in itself is a great part of the path to Ascension.

COR: What is the rest of that path?

QUAN YIN: Your own willingness to learn what you must heal, how you must move into a daily life of support for the open heart.

And how there are clear boundaries between people (and all beings) that must be respected, much as the members of the galactic federation must remember to show respect to Earth beings, and not “zoom in” to rescue them as things appear difficult.

COR: That is another issue, Lady Master!

So many desires to receive more help from those able to give it, who have stationed themselves on and around the Earth now.

Yet we hear of Non-intervention as being the Universal rule of law, except in very specific, extreme circumstances.

QUAN YIN: It is indeed.

Yet part of the agreement humanity has with itself as well as with the Ashtar Command and all of the Intergalactic Confederation, is that helps are extended as human consciousness rises—in direct proportion to that rising consciousness and life vibration.

COR: I always hear, “Call us in!” from the White Knights’ contacts.

QUAN YIN: And many have been calling in your star families, and this is fine!

We are not remote, nor abandoning you, who are our own.

COR: We seem to be skating so close to that edge, considering what the old power structure has planned and is trying so hard to implement now.

QUAN YIN: They will not be successful. All of you know that deep down.

You are simply vulnerable to their propaganda, having been trained (and entrained) to believe what you are told by media outlets and those in “authority,” which is not the correct term for them.

COR: No. Most of them are so lost.

QUAN YIN: As you know that, then you are well and strong enough to shrug off the influence of their pronouncements regarding “What is coming next.”

What is coming next, and what is already in motion, is the liberation of an entire planet and all Her beings.

You are here, feeling the energies of that development, and know it to be so!

Do not doubt your own intuitive realizations. They come from the Divine Source Itself.

COR: Thank you, Lady Master! I bow to your grace and wisdom, and all you have shared with us today.

QUAN YIN: We are more than pleased to assist at any time, dear ones!

We are here, and so yes—call upon us!

We may not show up in a ship you can physically see—it may be a cloud shaped as a ship, or only a feeling of our presence, or a message in the dream state. Or a message such as this one.

Yet we are here, and ready to assist as needed.

COR: We are so thankful for all that the Ascended Masters do for us! And all the Company of Heaven.

Namaste, dear one!

QUAN YIN: Namaste, friends!

We are with you, always.

Message from Hannelore: Other Spheres

Posted on 06/08/2023

How deep have you dived?

JJK: The days and weeks just fly by! It's been over 2 months today since you returned to the light. Here on earth everything goes its way, everything takes its course. How far are you from your last life today and how deeply have you immersed yourself in the world of light?

H: Hugs, dearest Jahn! I am with you now and I am with you now who are counting your days on earth until upheaval, ascension or change. I am close to you, very close and I do my work in my spheres – in heaven as well as on earth.

Time doesn't exist on my level, so I don't look back on my last earthly life, but I see it as one life among many. It has a quality and reality that is unimaginable for a human being when one can experience oneself in all earthly existences at the same time. The closeness to my life as Hannelore exists through you, consists in the fact that many angels of our spiritual family are still in service on earth, have exposed themselves to time and subjected themselves to space.

This is an eternal and indestructible bond that remains in the Hereafter as well as in this world, no matter from which side one looks at the Hereafter and this world. Only when we, as beings of light, return completely to the source and experience the last of all hugs from God, do these intimate ties also dissolve.

So, I dived deep into the world of my spheres beyond what is visible to you. At the same time, I am with you and with you, protecting, caring and supporting your life and our project. The light world project was breathed into life from heaven and it is the heavenly family who help shape and work on it on earth and in heaven.

JJK: From your current perspective, how do you view the fact that quite a lot of people actually don't want to do any real transformation work at all. Immerse yourself in your own topics? Then, when it really matters, many people prefer to put it off. Does that have an impact on the developments that are now pending – or are things going to be the case, no matter how many people can now “get the curve”?

H: With love – everything is looked at with love, my perception is that of love. Quite the opposite of what I sometimes felt as Hannelore. Now an absolute inner peace has occurred when looking at all worlds and the conditions on these worlds.

Of judging and judging!

It was impossible for me as a human being to be free from judgment or free from condemnation. It’s just as difficult for you. Why?

Because you live in this energetic environment of judgment and condemnation. To always be aware of this and to be aware of it, to take the higher perspective, requires great awareness. No matter how hard a person tries, the closer a situation gets to you, the closer a person is to you, the more likely it is that at certain moments he will take sides, that he will judge and condemn. My good advice:

Do not judge yourself when judging or condemning certain acts. There are moments and events that evoke this human behavior – and neither should nor can you do anything about it.

JJK: But an enlightened one is above it – right?

H: As long as an enlightened one is on earth; he too has to deal with it. It is a rare art that hardly anyone can master – not getting wet from the water that surrounds you.

Even the enlightened always retain a remnant of qualities that are not usually ascribed to an enlightened person. This is done so that such people can exist on earth at all. This creates the necessary grounding or entanglement. Judging and judging might indicate a propensity to do so. From my current perspective, healthy judgment is essential for a successful human life. Discernment and judgment are siblings that are mutually dependent.

JJK: In many messages it is pointed out that we should not “judgment”. What is that supposed to mean?

forgiveness

H: The solution is: Do not condemn man, but condemn an act that is evil and produces evil.

Forgiveness comes after a thorough confrontation with the circumstances. For this it is necessary to look at what was and is. Forgiveness means confrontation – many people want to avoid this and forgive into emptiness.

Regarding the forthcoming revelations on earth: No human being can and will approve of the actions of a group sworn to Satan, which will become known to the world public in the near future. The road to forgiveness will be a long one.

People will condemn this and pass their judgment on those who have committed this. That has to be acknowledged. Love of enemies is only possible at the end of a process of knowledge. First you have to take the emotional steps and overcome the mental hurdles.

Love is not a feeling, but a state of consciousness that is imparted as grace at the end of all experiences.

JJK: There are indeed some indications of major revelations. How will people react?

Revelations like a bomb!

H: Shocked at first, then relieved and liberated – accompanied and carried by beings of light who are incarnated as humans like you, everything ends well.

The revelations must and will hit like a bomb! Only in this way is the collective energy of liberation released by mankind.

This is the sparking energy needed now to turn the earth and bring humanity back into balance.

JJK: So, dress warmly and go!?

H: From my perspective – looking forward to what is to come because there is no need for fear or worry. Now it shows who has done their homework – and many, very many people will remember and erase the abysmal in sublimity.

JJK: ... and not afraid of “judging”.

H: Be relaxed when confronted with deeply human emotions. Don't be ashamed when feelings of anger or hatred come over you.

With what is emerging on earth now, it is impossible to always radiate the serenity of a yogi who never leaves his meditation cushion.

You are in conflict, struggles are being forced upon you, and you are faced with situations that most entities in the universe cannot even imagine. What unique service people perform and what powers we are surrounded by throughout life is reverent from my perspective today. Give yourself love, especially when you are not “perfect” or do not live up to your own spiritual standards. What is possible on earth is unimaginable on my level, what is possible with us is unthinkable on earth. It is important to recognize the different “levels of being” and to align oneself with the respective conditions.

The Army of Reconciliation

The ascension into the higher dimension is now taking place. Therefore, everything is brought to the surface. The lie is defeated with the truth and the light penetrates the darkness. The first paralyzed, then angry, and finally peaceful people form the Army of Reconciliation.

People who have spent decades preparing spiritually and energetically for the cascade of planetary disclosures now unleashed are moving forward. You keep the overview and your nerves – stand in the light and remain in peace. One thing is certain: We will emerge safely from this storm; we are guided by our light and are accompanied by GOD.

As a farewell for today: take care of yourself! Love each other for being who you are now.

Live by your intuition, live by your conscience! What if you're wrong? Who will judge you, who will judge you or condemn you – who but you?!

The journey goes into other spheres – to be loved because you are!

I bless you with all my love.
