“A few months ago, we spoke about humanity's awakening process, emphasizing that the moment of your collective awakening was very close. Now many are wondering will it ever actually materialize, or is it just another aspect of the dream or game that life in form provides and, like that, is it in truth unreal?
I ASSURE YOU THAT THIS IS NOT THE CASE!

James Gilliland (ECETI News): July 13, 2023 Excerpt:

As far as the new QFS monetary system and Nesara/Gesara are concerned, if you ask thirty different people you will get thirty different answers. This whack a mole game has been going on for centuries. All I can say is flip the F$%&#%$ switch. It is rumored everything is in place, Nesara/Gesara and the Quantum Financial System. This puts an end to the Feds which were never federal. The USA Inc. falls and we go back to constitutional law or common law. The end of tyranny.

A few months ago, we spoke about humanity's awakening process, emphasizing that the moment of your collective awakening was very close. Now many are wondering will it ever actually materialize, or is it just another aspect of the dream or game that life in form provides and, like that, is it in truth unreal?

I ASSURE YOU THAT THIS IS NOT THE CASE!

Your awakening is divinely assured, and it is very close now, even though the experience of time is itself unreal. Quite a paradox for you to deal with and accept. Please continue to set and reset your intent daily, when you take your essential quiet time alone and at peace in your holy inner sanctuaries, to be only loving whatever may arise in your daily lives. And of course, you are never alone because you are eternally at One with Mother/Father/God, in a divine and uninterrupted Union, while also maintaining your individuated selves that make Union and Relationship with God the one and only Reality. Separation never happened, and it never will because such a state is utterly impossible.

Whenever any of you experience a sense of aloneness, abandonment, or separation remind yourselves that that sense or feeling is unreal, that your egos are misleading you in order to encourage you to engage with fear. And of course, the more you personally live your lives as though your human bodies are your true identity, the more that your fear will seem justified because your bodies can be badly hurt, damaged, or destroyed, causing you pain and suffering. When that fear is present it is practically impossible for you to believe that you are in every moment inseparably One with Mother/Father/God.

You were all created completely and utterly FREE! Therefore, you are totally unrestricted and are always, in every moment, free to choose whatever you wish to experience. All of you in human form, either eons ago or right now, are in form because you freely made that choice. Every time you incarnate you do so in order to experience the seemingly real but totally unreal sense of independence, autonomy, and freedom that separation from your Source, were it possible, would appear to provide, or to become once more joyfully and consciously aware that to be separate is impossible, and to assist others, who have also made that choice, to become again consciously aware that they too are eternally and uninterruptedly One with Source, Love, Mother/Father/God, the Real and only state of existence.

Continuous conscious awareness of your true nature, of who you truly and eternally are, is your destiny. It is the gift that was given to you at the moment of your creation as you were brought into being at One with Mother/Father/God. It is your eternal state of life from which you have never for even a micro-moment been separated. In form as a human it appears that you are separated independent beings living your own lives while others with whom you interact live theirs. This is the unreality you have chosen to experience, which your egos confirm for you is reality; it is a very confusing state and the amnesia that blocks your memory of Reality is very effective. To awaken is to dissolve that amnesia as Reality floods into your awareness filling you once more with infinite peace and joy.

Life is Love experiencing Itself in Union and Relationship with Itself as Mother/Father/God, and as every sentient being that She has created. There is only the One, but It can experience Itself in infinitely creative ways as the absolute vastness of Love forever expanding, or as individuated beings united in loving relationships to display their infinite creative abilities for the delight and wonder of All. There are NO LIMITS to Love, it is a state without boundaries of any kind, it just IS! As the beloved children of God, you have total freedom to experience existence in any manner that you choose. When you choose a human experience you also choose to accept the limitations that are a feature of that unreal state, limitations that you established when you conceived the idea and inaugurated it. Separation is unreal, as you well know, and so are the aspects of it that make it appear real, such as duality and limitation.

Therefore, accept that you are now and always just as you were created, divine beings with the power, freedom, and wisdom of God – every infinite aspect of Mother/Father/God – Love in all Its Glory! You were created in infinite Joy, and you chose to experience an unreal and impossible state that is opposed to that. When you choose to awaken from that state, and you will, it is inevitable because it is your will and God's, your exultation will be infinite.

To awaken means to release your need to hold onto a separate human identity, and to ALLOW yourselves to be One with and in Union with God. The problem is that you believe that you are beings who are unworthy of God's Love – small and insignificant beings in comparison to the infinite vastness of Love and Wisdom that is God. Because you have totally forgotten the wonder and joy you experienced at the moment of your creation, and because of the consequent state of amnesia – an aspect of the unreal state of separation that you inaugurated – you have very effectively blocked your awareness of Reality, of your True and eternal nature. There is only Love, God, and therefore that is Who You are, eternally, in every moment of your existence.

Your loving brother, Jesus.

Therefore, during your absolutely essential daily quiet or meditative periods of relaxation into just being, remind yourselves of your true nature, your Oneness with your Source. If necessary create a very positive affirmation to repeat quietly to yourselves whenever any doubt arises in your minds, and know that your support team in the nonphysical realms is with you at all times, loving and uplifting you as they delight in the magnificent work that they see you doing just by being. You ARE most positively, skillfully, and competently assisting in humanity's collective awakening, so let go of all your doubts – REJOICE – and trust in the wonder, power, and fruitfulness of God's Love for you as you approach the most glorious moment of your awakening into Reality.

There are so many topics to cover it makes one's head spin. Things are manifesting so fast it is hard to keep up. The Sun is rapid firing flares, the Schuman Resonance is spiking and the influx of consciousness and energy is bringing about Mega change. The planetary liberation, awakening and healing process some call ascension is accelerating at a rapid pace. Social, Economic and Physical Earth Changes are the result. Then there are the manmade weather manipulations adding to the mix, HAARP and chemtrails. There are temporal multidimensional wars, weather wars and major social unrest along with other smaller wars the global elite are trying to escalate in their depopulation programs. WW3 is one of their agendas. As we watch the global elite press for world domination along with their political puppets and captured institutions it will be increasingly apparent who is wearing the white hats. The grey hats have to choose. No one can stop what is coming.

I took the time to watch the hearings about the weaponization of the agencies, the two-tiered justice system. I watched them evade the questions, double speak while knowing the jig is up. The majority of the democrats had their noses so far up Christopher Wrays but they could not see the obvious. They will be the first to whine when they are held accountable. Of course, they don't want to address the problem, it is weaponized in their favor. All they care about is power, and control projecting their traumas on others taking no personal responsibility in their division games. They support the opposite of a democracy yet they say democracy is in danger, an open display of double speaks and hypocrisy. They firmly established their ignorance and character during the hearings. By the way we live in a republic not a socially engineered mob rule democracy.

Bottom line is the FBI engaged in extreme censorship teaming up with the legacy and social media. They hid the Hunter and Weiner laptops and shielded Hilary, Hunter and Joe from a mountain of incriminating evidence refusing to investigate or charge them with glaringly obvious crimes. They pressured lame stream and social media to censor anything critical of the present administration and its policies. We have been at the butt end of that one.

This had a major impact in the election. They spent millions pulling out all the stops to imprison and take out republicans and conservatives trampling on the constitution. The January 6th arrests are a blatant example, to this day those arrested are denied their constitutional rights in a blatant disregard of the present administration's oath of office many have not signed, notarized or have on record. They have also withheld exculpatory evidence which would exonerate them as in the Shaman case. They will be held accountable in the very near future. Remember that little saying, "What you do unto others will be done unto you." Universal Law and the acceleration and amplification of karma will take care of this. Nowhere to hide. Can't win a game of hide and seek with the Creator. Many are being consumed by their own guilt. The ones with any soul left.

The Sound of Freedom was a box office success beating out the new Indiana Jones movie. Major corporations which own the theaters did everything possible to interfere in the release, canceling tickets, leaving the lights on while the movie was showing, setting off alarms, shutting off the air conditioners all a complete fail. As I warned earlier those involved in making the movie need to prepare for the backlash, character assassinations, gossip and rumors. Trust me it comes with being authentic and going against the controlled narrative.

Hollywood is saying there really is not a problem with child and sex trafficking nor is there any Satanic/Luciferian child sacrifice or rituals going on. Some of them own islands adjacent to Epstein Island. Top politicians have their islands as well. Top officials in the just us system are saying the numbers are way down in child and sex trafficking due to their efforts, just like the numbers of border crossings are very low another blatantly obvious lie. Those affirming there is not a problem are most likely the involved in the problem. Some very big names are going to surface in the very near future. Research who owns Islands and what goes on there. Might be a few up for sale shortly.

As far as the new QFS monetary system and Nesara/Gesara are concerned, if you ask thirty different people you will get thirty different answers. This whack a mole game has been going on for centuries. All I can say is flip the F$%&#%$ switch. It is rumored everything is in place, Nesara/Gesara and the Quantum Financial System. This puts an end to the Feds which were never federal. The USA Inc. falls and we go back to constitutional law or common law. The end of tyranny. With the military in place obviously things are very close. The military is the only answer, all civil remedies have been exhausted, the justice agencies have been captured. It would be wise to prepare on all levels. Have a month's worth of food, access to clean water, and do not depend on the ATMs, banks power and internet grids. It could go smoothly in some areas while drastic in others.

I wish to end on a positive note. Things will get crazy during the transition. It will become increasingly ugly and chaotic which is the healing process then it will get increasingly good. A whole new world awaits us. It is our destiny to unite with the greater family of man/woman throughout the multiverse. They are here now in great numbers, watch the skies. You might want to call them a division of Gods Army. Not all have harps and wings. They are removing the fallen ones.
