

Dear patriots of the World.

Liberation is one thing; rebuilding is another.

We, the people suffering under the Globalists' regime of terror, must take our fate into our own hands.

After our liberation, we must repair everything this system has done to us.

Open Letter: Urgent Appeal to the Globalists of the WEF Hitler Cabinet in Occupied Netherlands, Inc., including the entire civil service, the justice system—including the judiciary—and all municipal enterprises.

I feel compelled to send this letter to clarify a few matters.

Here is the solution that makes elections completely unnecessary: no more power for a criminal cartel—the Royal House or the bankers.

As long as you think you can remain in power and impose laws and regulations on the population—for which none of you have a mandate as a company or corporate entity under the company "Netherlands BV"—the population will continue to be the ones left holding the short end of the stick.

Try estimating how many people it would take to drive you out, and how many police you could deploy to prevent this if all hell breaks loose in every municipality.

I estimate that between 3,000 and 10,000 people per municipality should be enough to reclaim our freedom if all of this were to start at once on October 1, 2026.

The deliberate destruction of society and the replacement of the murdered victims of the COVID-19 genocide among the population, as well as the deliberate destabilization of the economy under the pretext of a climate crisis.

Given that the bankers have commissioned wars whose sole purpose is to decimate the population, along with the fiat money scam and tax extortion, I can say that enough is enough—we won't put up with it any longer.

That is why I propose that you take the front lines in the trenches of the war against Russia that you so crave; show your willingness to die and die with the thought that you are doing it for us, the people, and not for yourselves—just as with the COVID slogan, "You're doing it for someone else."

How foolish must one—or you—be to create a broad front against the Russians and your own people? Your death will be our bread, freedom, happiness, and prosperity.

The deception surrounding energy prices and the creation of perpetual scarcity, the exploitation of society's most vulnerable, and the indoctrination of children and youth through the devious educational system—which produces nothing but idiots with oversized egos who have gotten vaccinated en masse—by turning off common sense in exchange for a diploma that has no value but is merely a certificate of ignorance.

It should be clear that this can no longer be accepted—that millions are suffering at the hands of a political crime cartel of Satanists, narcissists, and pedophiles.

For where have all the children from the child benefit scandal gone?

None of you pitiful figures has ever contributed to our economy through physical labor, blood, sweat, and tears.

Then I have a proposal to change things and do better—something you are powerless to do.

Then I have our “Build Back Better” plan to turn the tide.

Given past results, it is now up to us to change all of this.

We must abolish corrupt politics and the Royal House, ban political cartel parties, which will render stolen elections obsolete.

No more mayors will be elected by the party cartel; all mayors are complicit in the COVID-19 GENOCIDE, due to their violation of Article 3 of the Geneva Convention, which falls under the jurisdiction of a Nuremberg Code Tribunal.

The Ten Points of the Nuremberg Code

Here is a translation of the full text of the Nuremberg Code as set forth in the verdict of the Doctors’ Trial:

1. The subject’s voluntary consent is absolutely essential

This means that the person involved must have the legal capacity to give consent; must be able to make a free choice without the use of force, fraud, deception, or any other form of restriction or coercion; and must have sufficient knowledge and understanding of the subject matter to be able to make an informed choice. The latter requires that, before the subject can confirm his or her choice, the nature, duration, and purpose of the experiment; the methods and means by which it will be conducted; all reasonably foreseeable discomforts and risks; and the consequences for the health of the person who may participate in the experiment must be clearly explained.

The duty and responsibility for determining the quality of consent rest with the person who initiates, directs, or participates in the experiment. This is a personal duty and responsibility that cannot be transferred to another without consequence.

2. The experiment must be designed to yield fruitful results for society that cannot be achieved by other methods or means, and must not be arbitrary or unnecessary in nature.

3. The experiment must be designed and based on the results of animal studies and knowledge of the natural history of the disease or other problem under investigation, such that the expected results justify conducting the experiment.

4. The experiment must be conducted in such a way as to prevent all unnecessary physical and mental suffering and injury.

5. An experiment must not be conducted when there is a priori reason to believe that death or disability will result; except, perhaps, in cases where the physicians conducting the experiment also serve as subjects themselves.

6. The risk involved in the experiment must never exceed the humanitarian importance of the problem the experiment is intended to solve.

7. Proper preparations must be made, and adequate safeguards must be provided to protect the subject from possible injury, disability, or death.

8. The experiment must be conducted only by scientifically qualified individuals. The highest degree of skill and care must be required of those who direct or conduct the experiment at all stages of the experiment.

9. Throughout the entire course of the experiment, the subject must be free to terminate the experiment if he or she has reached a physical or mental state in which continuing the experiment seems impossible.

10. Throughout the entire course of the experiment, the responsible scientist must be prepared to discontinue the experiment at any stage if he or she has reason to believe, based on common sense, superior skill, and the careful judgment required of him or her, that continuing the experiment will result in injury, disability, or death of the subject.

We must use referendums to determine our own policies—both regionally and nationally—and appoint leaders who will represent us internationally and who are neither corrupt nor incompetent.

All positions to be filled will be preceded by an IQ and EQ test, which must be evaluated alongside an existing resume and certificate from their previous position.

They will take an oath to remain loyal to direct democracy and the people, and not to adopt laws proposed by officials unless these have been established through a referendum by the people.

We must return to the customary practice (birthright) to also replace the judicial system and eliminate corruption and human trafficking within it due to entity fraud caused by the use of fictitious legal entities that hold people hostage, as these people have no rights within the judicial system because they are denied as dead entities.

All banks that do not comply with ISO 20022 and Basel 3-4 will be phased out, and we will transition to the QFS using the CIPS protocol, which will replace the SWIFT payment system.

Between today, September 18, 2026, and October 15, 2026, the QFS will have replaced the entire fiat money system, with a phased-out supply of fiat money among the population continuing until January 1, 2027.

As a result, banks will immediately be unable to create money out of thin air, because the QFS cannot recognize this as a deposited value.

For breach of contract, genocide, forgery, and the unauthorized enactment of laws on behalf of a company called Nederland BV—which ceased to exist as of May 13, 1940—thereby rendering the Constitution null and void.

As of May 18, 1940, the Hague Fascist Hitler Cabinet has been in power to this very day—and thus has never been legitimate—meaning that all contracts concluded internationally with “Netherlands BV” are not legally valid; consequently, the EU, UN, WHO, NATO, and the participation of Ukraine, as well as the migration pact, are invalid and null and void.

Every migrant is entitled to claim their birth trust in their country of origin, which will result in voluntary deportation, put an end to the housing crisis, and halt the expropriation of farmers.

Despicable globalists and political morons: your party is over; we’ve had enough.

It is our duty as a people to restore everything you have deliberately destroyed and to immediately halt Agenda 2030.

Pray that the Army takes you into custody until you are tried under the Nuremberg Code for your treason, genocide, corruption, and abuse of power.

Since the new system eliminates all corruption, you will be completely stripped of your money, goods, real estate, securities, and stocks.

That should make you feel good—“You Will Own Nothing and Be Happy”—because you’ll get to stand next to Klaus Schwab at the gallows.

The countdown has begun until the Army’s action between now and September 29, when the revaluation of the new asset-backed currency will be announced, restoring the population’s freedom from coercion and fiat currency fraud.

As of October 1, the revaluation must be complete so that the exchange of global fiat currencies can begin at the rates known at that time, which will be paid out in XRP and XLM if our information on this is correct.

Banks will no longer have access to customers’ accounts, because everyone will then be their own banker, rendering debt collection fraud by bailiffs impossible and punishable by law.

With the introduction of medical beds that operate on frequency technology, the entire healthcare system will be redefined, and people will be treated for free for conditions that you have helped cause and perpetuate.

After the lockdown, everything will be and become different; the corrupt government’s venomous fang will then be pulled out once and for all.
